REPORT OF
THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY,
Washington, December 4, 1893.

SIR: In compliance with law I have the honor to herewith submit for the consideration of Congress the annual report of the Comptroller of the Currency. It covers the year which ended October 31, 1893, and is the thirty-first report made since the organization of the Bureau.

The records of the Bureau show that at the close of the year the total number of national banks in active operation was 3,796, with an authorized capital stock of $683,598,120, represented by 7,450,000 shares, held by 300,000 shareholders.

On October 3, the date of their last report of condition, the total resources of the 3,781 banks then in operation was $3,109,563,284.36, of which their loans and discounts aggregated $1,843,634,167.51, and money of all kinds in bank $369,862,636.97. Of their liabilities $1,451,124,330.50 represented individual deposits, $339,153,447.54 surplus and net undivided profits, and $182,959,725.90 circulating notes outstanding. The total amount of circulation of national banks, October 31, as shown by the books of the office, was $209,311,993, a net increase during the year of $36,886,972 and a gross increase of $40,775,165 on circulation secured by a deposit of bonds.

During the year 119 banks were organized in thirty-two States and Territories, with a capital stock of $11,230,000. Of these 44, with a capital stock of $5,135,000, are located in the Eastern States, 41 west of the Mississippi River, with a capital stock of $2,340,000, and 34 in the Central and Southern States, with a capital stock of $3,755,000.

The number of banks whose charters were extended was 40, distributed throughout twenty-five States, with a capital stock of $5,046,000, and circulation to the amount of $1,585,925. The charters of 4 expired, but in each instance the banks were succeeded by new associations.

Within the same period 158 banks suspended, with a capital stock of $30,350,000. Of this number, however, 86, with a capital stock of $18,205,000, resumed business. The number which passed into the hands of receivers was 65, with a capital stock of $10,935,000. On October 31 seven remained in the charge of examiners, with prospects of speedy resumption. Forty-six banks, with a capital stock of $5,735,000, went into voluntary liquidation.

By comparing the foregoing synopsis of the history of the banks for the year ended October 31, 1893, with that of the year ended October 31, 1892, as the same is set forth in the Comptroller's Report for that year, the following changes are noted: The number of banks organized decreased 44, receiverships increased 48, voluntary liquidations decreased 7, corporate extensions decreased 47, and expirations of corporate existence decreased 7. The total gain in the number of active banks was 8.

The varying condition of the banks throughout the year appears from the following abstract of the reports of condition, made in response to the five calls required by law.

A comparison of the figures of 1893 with those of 1892 in the foregoing table will indicate to what extent and in what respect the national-banking interests of the country suffered from the severe and unusual monetary stringency which characterized the greater portion of the past year. Compared with their aggregate resources or liabilities on October 3, 1893, with those of September 30, 1892, it is found they were $400,531,613 less, being but $3,109,563,284 on the former date as against $3,510,094,897 on the latter, the highest point ever reached in the history of the national-bank system. This unparalleled shrinkage in liabilities is accounted for by a decrease between the dates mentioned in the following items, viz: Capital stock $8,032,677, individual deposits $314,298,653, and bank and bankers' deposits $181,338,125. An increase is shown in circulation outstanding to the amount of $39,536,428, in liabilities of all kinds for money borrowed $54,464,628, and in surplus and undivided profits $9,701,265.

Not less marked is the decrease in the items making up the resources of the banks. It shows as follows: Loans and discounts, $327,406,926; stocks, securities, etc., $5,965,564, and due from banks and bankers, $132,054,654. Cash of all kinds on hand increased $21,991,191, including $8,410,815 in gold, and United States bonds held for all purposes increased $40,601,250. These figures illustrate the far-reaching effect of the year's financial depression and show that when panic-stricken depositors withdrew their money the banks of necessity, to meet the sudden and extraordinary demands made upon them, called in their loans and discounts, supplementing such amounts by borrowed money and the additional circulation which they were able to procure from the Government through a deposit of bonds.

A closer examination of the figures contained in the reports of condition made to the Comptroller shows this shrinkage to have occurred chiefly between May 4 and October 3, 1893. Within this period of five months $298,806,487 of individual deposits and $79,313,076 of bank deposits, a total sum of $378,119,563 was withdrawn from the banks. To meet this withdrawal loans and discounts were reduced to the amount of $318,767,691; amounts due from banks and bankers, $51,198,856, and stocks, securities, etc., $2,177,912, and to provide against further danger of withdrawals of deposits, which strongly menaced them, the banks between the same dates increased their liabilities for money borrowed in various ways $36,615,092, and through the taking out of additional circulation $31,265,616, of which amount $27,888,905 was taken out between July 12 and October 3, 1893.

The cash resources of the banks, which on May 4, 1893, amounted to $343,901,803, were $32,559,267 less on July 12, but between that date and October 3 increased $59,520,130, amounting at the last-named date to $369,862,637, the largest sum ever held by them. This was accumulated in the face of continued heavy withdrawals of deposits and is the most practical demonstration that could be had of the solvency of the banks as a whole and their ability in an emergency to rapidly convert their assets into cash.

It is unnecessary to here enter upon a further or more specific analysis of these tables. They comply in detail with the requirements of the law, and show "a summary of the state and condition of every association from which reports have been received the preceding year, at the several dates to which said reports refer, with an abstract of the whole amount of banking capital returned by them, of the whole amount of their debts and liabilities, the amount of circulating notes outstanding, and the total amount of means and resources, specifying the amount of lawful money held by them at the times of their several returns."

The careful and unbiased student of the facts shown in this summary must inevitably reach the conclusion that the cause which more than all others contributed to bringing about the stagnation of the past months in commercial business, the suspension of manufacturing and the closing of mills, was this unprecedented demand on the part of depositors for money which the banks had distributed through the channels of trade and which, to meet this demand, they were obliged to withdraw.

The situation made so dangerous for the banks by the action of depositors caused a sudden contraction of the volume of money needed and already employed for business wants, prevented the making of new loans and rendered it hazardous on the part of the banks to grant renewals of credit, already extended. It is to be said, however, that despite the dangers threatening them, the banks contributed in the largest measure by a wise, judicious and, under all the circumstances, generous course, to the prevention of a general commercial panic. In evidence of this is the fact that at no time throughout the prolonged monetary stringency was there complaint made to the Comptroller by any depositor, creditor, or patron of a national bank on account of the treatment accorded him, either as to cash payments of indebtedness, or for any other reason.

So, too, it is worthy of remark that, when there is taken into consideration the widespread feeling of distrust so prevalent throughout these months, the fact most deserving of comment is not that so many banks closed their doors, but that so many were able to continue in operation. No stronger evidence can be had of the honesty, conservatism, and ability of those active in the management of the banks than the comparatively few failures which occurred, and no greater tribute can be paid to the principles upon which the system as a whole is based and administered.

Supplementary to the information which has already been given should be added that which bears upon the corporate existence of the banks of the system. The table on page 73 shows the title, capital, and circulation of associations whose corporate existence expired by limitation during the year, and of the associations which succeeded them, the new associations showing an increase in capital of $5,000 and an increase in circulation of $30,250.

The table on page 73 shows by States the number, capital stock, and circulation of the forty banks whose corporate existence was extended during the year. Their aggregate capital stock was $5,046,000, and their circulation $1,585,925.

The table on page 74 shows the charter numbers, title, location, date of expiration, capital, bonds, and circulation of the forty-nine associations whose corporate existence will expire during the year ending October 31, 1894. These associations are located in twenty different States, with an aggregate capital of $6,708,000, and circulation amounting to $2,006,950.

The table on page 73 shows by States the number, capital, and circulation of associations whose corporate existence will expire during the period from 1894 to 1903. Of these there are 777, with an aggregate capital of $117,275,850, and circulation of $32,467,992.

The table on page 72 shows by States the number and capital of the 1,466 banks, whose corporate existence has been extended since the beginning of the system, located in forty States and Territories, with an aggregate capital of $375,945,005. Of these, New York has 225, with a capital of $72,872,460, Massachusetts 209, with a capital of $88,612,500, and Pennsylvania 174, with a capital of $45,954,000.

Of the 119 banks organized, as shown in the table on page 71, Pennsylvania is first, with 25 banks, having a capital stock of $2,375,000, New York next, with 11 banks, with a capital stock of $2,050,000, Texas and Iowa have 10 each, with capital of $610,000 and $500,000, respectively. Wisconsin follows New York in amount of capital stock of newly organized banks, having $1,750,000, although the number of banks organized was but 5.

The marked difference in the number of banks organized during the year ended October 31, 1893, as compared with the preceding year, arises largely from the changed monetary conditions, but is also due in a measure to the very rigid rules now enforced in the granting of charters. It has become the policy of this Bureau to more carefully scrutinize all applications for authority to organize new banks, as the Comptroller appreciates the necessity of discrimination to protect the system from the entrance of associations whose weakness would be an injury. To this end the Comptroller before approving an application for authority to organize, satisfies himself in detail as to the business experience and financial responsibility of each of the applicants, by information obtained through inquiries from sources believed to be reliable.

BANKS OTHER THAN NATIONAL.

That the general statement of the resources, liabilities, and condition of banks and banking companies other than national, namely, State, savings, private banks, and loan and trust companies, may be presented to Congress, as is required by law, the Comptroller, through the courtesy of State officers having supervision of these institutions, has obtained official returns from each State and Territory, excepting Delaware, Maryland, South Carolina, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kansas, Nevada, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Arizona, and Oklahoma. A summary of this information is here given to complete a résumé of the various banking interests of the country throughout the past year. It will be found in detail in the tables which appear in the appendix.

At the close of the fiscal year ended June 30, 1893, there were in operation in the United States 5,024 incorporated banks, banking institutions, and savings banks, and from 4,837, or 96 per cent, reports of conditions were received, an increase of 419 over the number reporting last year. The number of private banks from which reports were received is 313 less than last year, but the net increase is 106.

In view of the fact that the returns from banks other than national show their condition in most of the States prior to the financial stringency of 1893, the effect of that depression does not appear in these statistics with respect to banks organized under State authority.

The total resources of the 4,837 incorporated and 848 private banks, as shown by the returns from both official and unofficial sources, amount to $3,979,008,533, of which loans and overdrafts are $2,348,193,077; United States bonds, $149,982,221; State, county, etc., bonds, $407,709,961; railroad bonds and stocks, $133,729,231; bank stocks, $45,752,014; all other bonds, stocks, and securities, $272,430,923; due from banks and cash on hand, $250,700,719 and $205,645,203, respectively.

Of the liabilities the capital reported is $406,007,240; surplus and undivided profits, $346,206,287; individual deposits, $1,285,311,723; savings deposits, $1,785,150,957. The capital employed by the 3,579 State banks is $250,767,709, and their deposits $706,865,643. The reported capital of the 228 loan and trust companies is $94,867,268, and deposits $486,244,079.

The capital of the private banks is $26,943,075 and deposits $68,552,696. Nearly 51 per cent of the resources of the 5,685 banks is reported by the 1,030 savings banks, of which 614 are mutual and 381 stock savings institutions; the resources of the former, however, are over 84 per cent of those of both classes. With the exception of two banks in the Southern and 10 in the Western States, mutual savings banks are confined to the Eastern and Middle States. Excepting 17 in the Eastern and 7 in the Middle States, stock savings banks are located in the Southern, Western, and Pacific States and Territories.

It also appears that while the entire deposits in mutual savings institutions are "savings," the reports show that over 10 per cent of the deposits in the other class are not of that nature, and the presumption is that the percentage is much greater, as it is known that stock savings banks in certain States make no classification of deposits, and yet transact a commercial as well as a savings bank business.

In the table on page 226 is shown the resources and liabilities of both classes by States and geographical divisions, to which is appended a statement of the number of depositors and the average amount due each, by States, etc.

The table on page 237 is a consolidated statement of both classes, showing the aggregate number of depositors, amount of savings deposits, and the average amount due each in each State. The average savings deposit in the Eastern States is $359.48; in the Middle States, $362.21; in the Southern States, $168.21; in the Western States, $328.11; in the Pacific States and Territories, $661.22. The large average in the latter division is due to the fact that the average amount due depositors in the savings banks of California is $771.28; the average amount due depositors in that division, exclusive of California, being but $163.07.

On page 238 a table appears showing the growth of savings banks from 1820 to 1893, the interesting features of which are the average annual savings deposit and per capita deposit in each census year from 1820 to 1890, and annually since the latter date. The per capita deposit in 1820 was but 12 cents; in 1830, 54 cents; 1840, 82 cents; 1850, $1.87; 1860, $4.75; 1870, $14.26; 1880, $16.33; 1890, $24.35; and in 1891, 1892, and 1893, $25.29, $26.11, and $26.63, respectively. The number of savings banks in 1820 was 10; the number of depositors, 8,635; the amount of deposits, $1,138,576; and the average deposit, $131.86; the number of banks this year is 1,030; depositors, 4,830,599; deposits, $1,785,150,957; the average deposit $369.55; and per capita deposit, based on the estimated population on June 1, last, $26.63.

The aggregate loans of savings banks amount to $1,047,270,478, of which $763,579,985 are secured by real estate, $74,179,877 by collateral other than real estate, and the remainder, principally, by personal security. The stock and bond investments amount to $799,372,476, of which $129,610,783 are United States bonds, $398,606,298 State, county, and municipal bonds, $121,519,071 railroad bonds and stocks, $44,466,725 bank stocks, and $105,169,599 other stocks, bonds, and securities.

The capital stock of national banks on July 12 last, and of other banks, at date of latest returns to this Bureau, in each State and geographical division, is shown in the table on page 241. This table also shows the amount of capital stock per capita of population in each State. The total capital reported is $1,091,793,959, and the average per capita $16.29. By comparison with similar returns for 1892, it appears that there has been a shrinkage of capital to the extent of about $20,000,000, the average per capita at that time being $16.33.

In this connection data appearing in the table on page 242 showing the total amount of banking funds at the command of national and other banks, namely, capital, surplus, undivided profits and deposits, will be of interest, for, while as heretofore stated, their total capital is but $1,091,793,959, their aggregate banking funds amount to $6,412,939,954, and is an increase of $22,845,826 over the amount held on the same date in 1892. The estimated population of the United States on June 1 last was 67,021,000, making an average, per capita, of these funds of $95.68, as against an average of $97.42 in 1892.

The table referred to gives the average of these funds per capita of population and the per capita averages in each class of banks, and in all. The averages in each class are: National banks, $38.64; State banks, $15.83; loan and trust companies, $9.73; savings and private banks, $29.93 and $1.55, respectively.

The amount of coin, paper currency, etc., held by national banks on July 12, last, and by all other banks on or about the same date is shown in detail in the table to be found on page 240.

The aggregate reported is $515,987,740, of which $310,342,537 was reported by national banks and $205,645,203 by other banks; the total holdings were: Gold coin, $103,417,876; silver coin, $15,315,656; specie not classified, $15,093,221; paper currency, $264,602,355; fractional currency and cash not classified, $117,558,632.

In the appendix, pp. 219-251, will be found tables showing the condition at the date of latest returns of State banks, loan and trust companies, savings banks and private banks; State banks from 1872-'73 to 1892-'93; loan and trust companies, 1888-'89 to 1892-'93; savings banks, 1888-'89 to 1892-'93; number of depositors, amount of savings deposits, and average amount due each depositor in savings banks by States 1891-'92 and 1892-'93; growth of savings banks from 1820 to 1893; condition of private banks in 1889-'93; condensed statement showing the aggregate resources and liabilities of each and all classes of banks in 1892-'93; the capital of national banks on July 12, 1893, and of all other banks on or about the same date, and average per capita of population by States; the population of the United States by States, the capital, surplus, undivided profits, and deposits of national and other banks, the average of these funds per capita, and the per capita averages in each and all classes of banks; the cash holdings of national and other banks on or about July 12, 1893; the number, assets, and liabilities of State banks, etc., which suspended during the first eight months of 1893; the number, assets, and liabilities of suspended State banks, etc., which resumed business during the first eight months of 1893; the condition of the loan and trust companies of the District of Columbia on October 3, 1893, and the condition of the Canadian banks on August 31, 1893.

A condensation of the foregoing for the sake of comparison with national banks shows the principal items of resources and liabilities, and the total resources of banks other than national, as indicated by the latest returns to the Comptroller, to be as follows:

SUSPENSIONS OF NATIONAL BANKS.

In the introductory pages of this report is indicated the number of associations "whose business has been closed during the year." In the appendix will be found tables giving in detail names, location, circulation redeemed and outstanding, voluntary liquidations, failures, and temporary suspensions of banks as is required by the statute to be furnished to Congress, together with such other facts as are necessary.

It does not seem essential, nor would it be possible to enter into a minute statement of all the circumstances attendant upon the closing of the banks during the past year. It is sufficient to say that the cause which brought about the large proportion of such suspensions was the action of depositors who, becoming doubtful of the solvency of the banking institutions of the country, withdrew their deposits. The result was that many banks after paying out on the one hand all the money in their vaults and failing to collect their loans on the other, suspended and passed into the hands of the Comptroller. With a full knowledge of the general solvency of these institutions and the cause which brought about their suspension, the policy was inaugurated of giving all banks, which, under ordinary circumstances would not have closed, and whose management had been honest, an opportunity to resume business. This policy was one which seemed to commend itself to the Comptroller as proper to pursue under the circumstances, and it is believed the results have justified the experiment of its adoption.

In no instance has any bank been permitted to resume on money borrowed or for which an association it has become liable. Whenever those active in the management of the banks resuming, either as executive officers or directors, have been debtors to such banks, their indebtedness has been paid or secured, and whenever impairment of capital stock has been found, such impairment has been made good, either by voluntary or enforced assessment on the shareholders. In a number of instances changes have been made in the directory and official corps of resuming banks. The criticism to be made upon the management of these banks was the improper distribution of their loans, a circumstance which greatly retarded the conversion of such loans into money at a time when it was needed to avoid suspension.

Of the banks which failed to resume many had long been under the continual criticism of this Bureau for violations of law and imprudent methods of banking, and the closing of them was only hastened by the general condition of financial affairs. Some failed because of criminal acts on the part of the officials in charge, and others because of a lack of proper appreciation of the purposes of a bank.

An analysis of the suspensions and failures which occurred shows that during the year 158 national banking associations, as heretofore stated, were compelled to suspend business, being 4.09 per cent of the number of existing associations. Their capital stock aggregated $30,350,000, or approximately 4.3 per cent of the paid-in capital stock of all the banks in the system.

Of the banks which suspended 65, or 41.14 per cent, with a total capital stock of $10,935,000, were insolvent, and required the appointment of receivers; 86, or 54.43 per cent, with a capital stock aggregating $18,205,000, were able to resume business and 7, or 4.43 per cent, with a capital stock of $1,210,000, were placed in charge of examiners in the expectation of resumption. Of the suspended banks two were located in the New England States, both in New Hampshire, with a total capital stock of $250,000, for each of which a receiver was appointed.

In the Middle States there were three suspensions—two in New York, with a total capital stock of $500,000, and one in Pennsylvania, with a capital stock of $50,000. Those in New York were placed in the hands of receivers, and the one in Pennsylvania in charge of an examiner pending proposed resumption.

There were 38 suspensions in the Southern States, the capital stock involved aggregating $8,815,000. Of these 19, with a total capital stock of $5,630,000, resumed business, and the same number, with a total capital stock of $3,185,000, failed. In this geographical division, Texas furnished the greatest number of suspensions, namely 12, with a total capital stock of $1,480,000, of which 6, with a total capital stock of $430,000, resumed business, and the remainder, capitalized to the amount of $1,050,000, failed. There were 6 suspensions in Kentucky and the same number in Tennessee. The total capital stock of those in Kentucky was $2,300,000 and of those in Tennessee $2,750,000. In Kentucky all the banks that suspended, except one, with a capital stock of $50,000, were permitted to resume business. Two of the banks in Tennessee, with a total capital stock of $2,000,000, resumed business and 4 were placed in the hands of receivers. Four banks in Georgia suspended and the same number in Alabama, with a total capital stock of $675,000 and $550,000 respectively. Of these, 1 bank in Georgia, with a capital stock of $250,000, and 3 in Alabama, with a total capital stock of $400,000, resumed business. Two banks in North Carolina suspended, with a total capital stock of $300,000, both of which were able to resume business, but the two which suspended in Florida, with a total capital stock of $200,000, required the appointment of receivers, as did also the one in Mississippi, which had a capital stock of $60,000, and the one in Arkansas, with a capital stock of $500,000.

The Western States furnished 49 suspensions, with an aggregate capital stock of $10,125,000. Of these 31 resumed business, 17 failed, and 1 was placed in the charge of an examiner pending resumption or the appointment of a receiver. The capital stock of the banks which resumed aggregated $6,275,000, and of those which failed $3,750,000. The greatest number of suspensions which occurred in this section was in Kansas, namely, 8, although the capital stock involved, $880,000, was less than that of the banks in four other States. Four of the banks in Kansas, with a total capital stock of $480,000, resumed, and three, with a capital stock of $300,000, failed. Of the 7 banks in Indiana which suspended, 4, with a total capital stock of $450,000, resumed, and 3, with a total capital stock of $550,000, were placed in the hands of receivers. In Iowa 6 banks suspended, with a total capital stock of $575,000, of which number but one failed, with a capital stock of $50,000. The same number of banks in Nebraska suspended, three of which, with a total capital stock of $350,000, resumed business, and receivers were appointed for the remaining three, the total capital stock of which was $450,000. Five banks suspended in Wisconsin, with a total capital stock of $625,000, all of which resumed business, while in Illinois there were 4 suspensions, with a capital stock aggregating $2,150,000. All of these were placed in the hands of receivers. In Missouri 3 banks suspended, with a total capital stock of $1,300,000, all of which resumed. In Michigan there were the same number of suspensions as in Missouri, but the capital stock involved aggregated only $215,000. But one of these banks resumed, the capital stock of which was $65,000. The fewest suspensions which occurred in any State in this division was in Ohio, there being but 2, the aggregate capital stock of which was $180,000. One of these banks, with a capital stock of $80,000, resumed business and the other failed.

Sixty-six banks suspended in the Pacific States and Territories, being nearly 42 per cent of the total suspensions which occurred and represent capital stock amounting to 35 per cent of the total capital involved. Of these, 36 banks, with a capital of $6,300,000, were solvent and resumed business; 25, with a capital stock of $3,250,000, were placed in the hands of receivers, and 5, with a total capital of $1,060,000, in charge of examiners-pending resumption. The greatest number of suspensions was in Colorado, involving the largest amount of capital stock of suspended banks of any State in the Union, the number being 16 and the capital $3,600,000. All of these banks resumed, except two, the capital stock of which was $300,000. The second greatest number of suspensions occurred in the State of Washington, 14 banks, with an aggregate capital stock of $1,735,000. Of this number 4, with a capital stock of $425,000, resumed; 3, with a capital stock of $510,000, were placed in charge of examiners pending resumption, and 7 failed. The suspensions in Montana numbered 10, and their capital stock amounted to $1,875,000. Of these, 2, with a capital stock of $300,000, resumed, and 7, with a capital stock of $1,075,000, were placed in the charge of receivers. Six suspensions occurred in Oregon, and the same number in California, the aggregate capital stock represented being $800,000 and $1,200,000, respectively. There was but one failure in each State, the capital stock in the case of the Oregon bank being $100,000, and that of the California bank $250,000. There were 3 suspensions in Utah, 3 in North Dakota, and 3 in South Dakota. The three banks in Utah, with a capital stock aggregating $250,000, resumed business, while the three in North Dakota, with a total capital stock of $400,000, failed. Two of the banks in South Dakota, with a total capital stock of $100,000, were placed in the hands of receivers, and one, with a capital stock of $125,000, resumed. Two suspensions occurred in Wyoming, and the same number in New Mexico. One bank in Wyoming, with a capital stock of $200,000, resumed, and one, the capital stock of which was $50,000, failed. Of the banks in New Mexico, one, with a capital stock of $175,000, failed, and the other, with a capital stock of $50,000, was placed in the hands of an examiner pending resumption or the appointment of a receiver. The only other suspension in this geographical division occurred in Oklahoma, being that of a bank with a capital stock of $50,000, which, being solvent, resumed.

In the appendix, page 80, will be found the information above referred to in tabular form.

The official records show that of 4,930 national banks organized since February, 1863, 246, or about 5 per cent, have been placed in the hands of receivers. In this number are included 9 banks which had previously gone into voluntary liquidation, but upon failing to pay depositors the Comptroller appointed receivers to wind up their affairs. Of the 246 failed banks, 39 have paid their creditors, principal and interest in full, 7 have paid principal and a part of the interest, and 16 have paid the principal only. The affairs of 115 of the 246 banks have been finally closed, leaving 131 in process of settlement, of which 16 are virtually closed, with the exception of undetermined litigation. There are 115 receiverships in active operation. In four instances prior to October 31, 1893, the receiverships were terminated and the banks permitted to resume business.

The total amount thus far paid to creditors of insolvent national banks is $50,943,147, upon approved claims aggregating $81,963,207. The amount paid during the year was $3,041,134.90. Assessments under the provisions of section 5151 of the Revised Statutes of the United States aggregating $20,118,350 have been made upon shareholders of insolvent national banks. From this source the gross collections have been $8,085,931, of which there was received during the past year $462,171. The affairs of but five banks have been closed during the year and final dividends paid to creditors, while the titles of four on the inactive list in 1892 have disappeared.

It is a source of regret that no better exhibit is made of dividends paid to the creditors of failed national banks during the past year, but the same conditions which produced so many failures seriously retarded the ability of receivers to collect the assets of their trusts, and consequently large dividends could not be declared. However, when are taken into consideration the many embarrassments of the year, the general average is good. In the appendix will be found a tabular statement of all dividends, expenses, and kindred matters connected with the trusts which are yet in process of liquidation.

SUSPENSION OF BANKS OTHER THAN NATIONAL.

The same causes which so seriously affected the national banks affected in like manner State, savings, and private banks, and loan and trust companies.

During the year ended June 30, 1892, there were 69 failures of private banks and of those incorporated under State authority, with liabilities amounting to $11,024,628 and assets to $6,125,189. The failures included 24 State banks, with $3,177,529 liabilities; 6 savings banks, with $917,000 liabilities; 36 private banks, with $6,505,099 liabilities; and 3 loan and trust companies, with $425,000 liabilities.

The number of failures of this class during the last six months of 1892 was 35, of which 18 were State banks, 16 private banks, and 1 a loan and trust company. During the first eight months of the current calendar year the failures and suspensions, as reported by the Bradstreet Agency, numbered 415, the assets aggregating $94,291,348 and the liabilities $97,193,530. Of these institutions 79, or 19 per cent, with liabilities amounting to 14 per cent of the total liabilities of the suspended banks, resumed business.

The number, assets, and liabilities, by classes, of banks which suspended and of those which resumed, from January 1 to September 1, 1893, are shown in the following table:

Class.	Suspended.			Resumed.
	Number.	Assets.	Liabilities.	Number.	Assets.	Liabilities.

* June 1, 1893.

In the appendix, pp. 244-246, will be found tables showing, by classes, States, and geographical divisions, the suspensions and resurreptions of State banks, etc., from January to September, 1893. It appears from the first table that of the total suspensions 172 were State banks, 47 savings banks, 177 private banks, 13 loan and trust companies, and 6 mortgage companies. Of the ten suspensions in the Eastern States, 6 occurred in New Hampshire, 3 in Vermont, and 1 in Rhode Island. In the Middle States 15 suspensions occurred in New York, 8 in Pennsylvania, 1 in New Jersey, and 1 in Delaware. The Southern States had 61 suspensions, of which 12 were in Texas, 10 in Tennessee, 8 in Virginia, 6 in Georgia, 6 in Florida, 4 in Alabama, 4 in Kentucky, 3 in Arkansas, 2 in West Virginia, 2 in North Carolina, 2 in South Carolina, and 1 in Louisiana. The most severe effects were felt in the Western States, both in the number of suspensions, which were 232, and the amount of liabilities, which were $51,777,665, or 56 per cent and 53 per cent, respectively. In Kansas, the largest number (32) occurred, though the liabilities were but 3 per cent of the total; Wisconsin, with 30 suspensions, followed, but the liabilities were over 14 per cent of the total; in Ohio 27 were reported, Minnesota 26, Illinois 24, Indiana 23, Iowa 22, Missouri 21, Nebraska 16, and Michigan 11. The number occurring in the Pacific States and Territories was 87, of which California furnished 21, with liabilities amounting to nearly 8 per cent of the aggregate of all the banks. Colorado followed California in number (20), although the liabilities were less than half of those of the banks in California. Oregon furnished 13 suspensions, Washington 11, Montana 8, Idaho 4, Wyoming 3, North Dakota 3, and Utah, New Mexico, Arizona, and Oklahoma 1 each.

The second table referred to gives similar information in detail with respect to banks which have resumed. Of the 79 resumptons, 44 were State banks, or 25+ per cent of the total suspensions; 10 savings banks, or 21 per cent; 2 loan and trust companies, or 15 per cent, and 23 private banks, or 13 per cent. Of the suspensions in the New England States, there was but one resumption, that of a private bank in Vermont. One savings and 2 State banks resumed in New York. Of the 61 banks which closed in the Southern States, 8 reopened: 2 in West Virginia and one each in South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, and Texas. As the suspensions in the Western States were the most numerous, so also were the resumptons, 58 per cent of the total resumptons being reported from that division. In Minnesota, 10 occurred; in Ohio, Wisconsin, and Iowa, 6 each; in Missouri, 5; Indiana and Kansas, 4 each; in Michigan, 3, and Nebraska, 2. The resumptons in the Pacific States and Territories were confined to California (13), Colorado (7), and Montana (1).

The fright among depositors of the present year appears to have affected all classes of banking institutions alike. The shrinkage of deposits of national banks from May 4 to July 12 last exceeded $190,000,000. In order to ascertain the extent of the shrinkage in banks other than national, the Comptroller requested each State officer charged with the supervision of banks organized under State authority to submit a statement showing similar information with respect to that class of banks. Replies were received from the officers of 23 States and 2 Territories indicating that the loss to banks of this character corresponded with that shown by the returns from national banks. Generally no information was given with respect to savings banks and much less regarding private banks.

CLEARING-HOUSE LOAN CERTIFICATES.

The unprecedented condition of the money market from June to September called for extraordinary remedies, not only to avert general disaster to the banks but to prevent commercial ruin. This remedy was the issuing of clearing-house loan certificates, which were brought into use as in 1873, 1884, 1890-'91, by the associated banks of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and other cities where needed. The service rendered by them was invaluable, and to their timely issuance by the associated banks of the cities named is due the fact that the year's record of suspensions and failures is not greatly augmented.

The form of these certificates, with the conditions under which they were issued in 1890-'91 (the form and conditions being the same during the late issuance of them as then), is described at length in the Comptroller's Annual Report for 1891. The subject is alluded to again only because it constitutes a very important part of the year's banking history, and for the additional reason that here and there are to be found those who entertain an entirely erroneous idea of the purpose for which these certificates were issued and what was accomplished by their issuance. Briefly stated, they were temporary loans made by the banks associated together as a clearing-house association, to the members of such association, and were available to such banks only for the purpose of settling balances due from and to each other, these balances under normal conditions of business being always settled in coin or currency. Each clearing-house association selected a committee charged with the issuing of the certificates to each bank desiring the same, such bank being required before receiving them to deposit with the committee its bills receivable, or other securities, as collateral for the loan. The amount of certificates issued to each bank was limited to 75 per cent of the value of the securities deposited. They bore interest at rates varying from 6 to $7\frac{3}{10}$ per cent. Immediately upon their surrender to the committee they were canceled and the securities held as collateral were returned to the bank depositing the same.

At a time when vast sums of coin and currency were being withdrawn from the banks, to be hoarded, these loan certificates, by performing the functions of the currency or coin customarily required for settling daily balances at the clearing house, released so much currency or coin to the legitimate and current demands of business and unquestionably placed it within the power of the banks in the cities named to extend to outside banks the aid needed on the one hand and liberally granted on the other. In no instance were these certificates designed to nor did they circulate as money: They were but due-bills and their sole function consisted in discharging the single obligation at the clearing house. An attempt on the part of a bank in any of the associations issuing these certificates to use them otherwise would have incurred a fine and other penalties provided in the rules governing such associations. Their issuance at so early a date in the financial derangement of the country was most opportune in not only preventing an acute panic, but in tending to restore public confidence, such action demonstrating that by mutual agreement of all, the weak banks of the association would be, so far as depositors and other creditors were concerned, as strong as the strongest.

In inaugurating the issuing of certificates so promptly and in issuing them to so large an amount the Clearing-house Association of New York, in particular, rendered the country great service, and the associated banks of that city are entitled to the credit which the public generally accords them.

The following figures, showing the movement and amount of the issue of loan certificates in 1893 in the cities named, will indicate the measure of relief afforded by them:

	Date of issue of first certificate.	Date of largest amount outstanding.	Largest amount outstanding.	Date of surrender of last certificate.	Amount outstanding Oct. 31.
New York	June 21	Aug. 29 to Sept. 6	$38,280,000	Nov. 1
Philadelphia	June 16	Aug. 15	10,965,000		$3,835,000
Boston	June 27	Aug. 23 to Sept. 1	11,445,000	Oct. 20
Baltimore	do	Aug. 24 to Sept. 9	1,475,000		845,000
Pittsburg	Aug. 11	Sept. 15	987,000		332,000
Total			63,152,000

The issue of loan certificates in 1893 greatly exceeded that of previous years. In 1873 and 1884 they were issued only by the New York Clearing House Association, the total amount issued in 1873 being $26,565,000 and in 1884 $24,915,000.

ERRATA.

On page 16, last paragraph, it is stated that the issue of clearing-house loan certificates, in 1873, was confined to the New York association; it has been learned, however, since this report was printed, that the Philadelphia association, also, issued certificates in that year, the total amount issued to 1880, when the last was retired, being $6,785,000.

In the table, on page 17, under "Largest amount outstanding," etc., opposite Philadelphia, for "$29,140,000," read "$8,870,000," and for the total "$49,410,000," read "$29,140,000."

In 1890-'91 they were issued in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, the largest amounts outstanding at any time being as follows:

	Date of first issue.	Largest amount outstanding at any one time and date of same.
New York	Nov. 12, 1890	$15,205,000, Dec. 13, 1890.
Boston	Nov. 19, 1890	5,065,000, Dec. 6, 1890.
Philadelphia	Nov. 19, 1890	29,140,000, Jan. 9, 1891.
Total		49,410,000

LAWFUL MONEY RESERVE.

Not less attention has been attracted during the present year, and particularly during the closing months of the year, to the subject of lawful-money reserve to be held by the banks, than to that of clearing-house loan certificates, and the discussion provoked has been quite as widespread.

As the law now stands all national banks, outside of certain designated "reserve cities," are required to maintain a reserve fund equal to 15 per cent of the net deposits made with such banks by individuals and by other banks and bankers. They are permitted by law to deposit not over three-fifths of this 15 per cent (or 9 per cent) with such national banks located in the "reserve cities" as the outside banks may with the Comptroller's approval select. The remaining two-fifths (or 6 per cent) must be kept in bank in lawful money, or more, if less than three fifths is kept with reserve agents. The national banks located in reserve cities are divided into two classes: (1) Those in the "central" reserve cities of New York, Chicago, and St. Louis being required to keep 25 per cent of their net deposits in bank in lawful money, with the privilege of acting as the reserve agents of any national banks located outside of these three cities. (2) Those located in the reserve cities, other than New York, Chicago, and St. Louis, being required to keep 25 per cent of their net deposits on hand, not over one-half of which may be deposited with any national bank or banks located in any of the three central reserve cities, while the remainder must be actually on hand in lawful money. The banks in the reserve cities of this class have the privilege of holding a part of the reserve of any bank or banks located outside of all reserve cities, viz, banks of the 15 per cent class.

In effect these requirements are not as onerous as they appear, for a national bank in New York City holding $100,000 of the reserve of any other bank or banks on deposit must keep only $25,000 of the amount on hand in money, while it is at liberty to lend or otherwise invest the remaining $75,000. So a bank in a reserve city of the second class holding $100,000 on deposit for other national banks may loan out or invest $75,000 of the amount, and of the remaining $25,000 must keep $12,500 in bank in money and may deposit $12,500 with its reserve agents, receiving a low rate of interest (usually 2 per cent) on the same. A bank of the 15 per cent class must keep only 6 per cent of its depositors' money actually on hand in bank, and is at liberty to deposit not over 9 per cent with its reserve agents, on which usually receives a low rate of interest. To illustrate the operation of the law it will be found that with normal conditions of business the banks in reserve cities (not central) held on December 9, 1892, net deposits amounting to $495,196,952, against which they held $77,869,593 cash in bank, or about 16 per cent, and the 15 per cent banks held net deposits of $975,622,088, and against these $108,012,546 cash in bank, or about 11 per cent. Again, a large portion of the reserve actually held by the banks can not be considered as taken out of circulation, or as hoarded through operation of the law, for much of it is paid out during each business day, other money coming in through deposits to take the place of that paid out.

In any view of the matter, however, the intent of the law is to compel a bank to retain always on hand a very moderate proportion of the money deposited with it for safe keeping by the depositor, who practically makes a loan to the bank payable on demand, for the use of which he ordinarily receives no interest. The entire effect is to exercise a wholesome restraint upon a tendency to an undue extension of business by a bank, and that this intent is recognized as an underlying principle of safe and conservative commercial banking is evidenced by the fact that those banks which are compelled by law to maintain but 15 per cent reserve have voluntarily for years past held an average of over 25 per cent, the proportion required for banks located in reserve cities.

The evident theory of the law is that a bank shall always have on hand such an amount of lawful money as will enable it under normal conditions of business to meet the current demands of its depositors. A careful examination of section 5191, United States Revised Statutes, as amended, will show that it is expected that emergencies will arise under which this fund will fall below the legal requirements. This contingency is distinctly recognized by the plain provisions contained in the section named, prescribing what shall be done "whenever the lawful money reserve of any association shall be below the amount" of the required percentage of its deposits. The provisions referred to are that the bank shall make no new loans or discounts, except the discount of bills of exchange payable at sight, nor make any dividend of its profits until the required amount of reserve has been again accumulated. The reason for this is obvious. The depletion of a bank's reserve occurs either because the bank has loaned out or otherwise invested too great a proportion of the funds it has received on deposit, or that its depositors have withdrawn their money to an extent which produces a similar result. In either case the only safe and prudent course for the bank to pursue is to cease paying out money in any direction except to depositors until either through the collection of demand or maturing loans on the one hand, or the receipt of deposits on the other, the required proportion has been restored. The discount of sight bills of exchange is excepted because money invested in this way will be repaid immediately, and in this branch of its business the bank's customers will be caused no inconvenience and the commercial interests of the country be thus protected from loss which otherwise might ensue.

The provision of law governing the time allowed a bank to make good a depleted reserve is most lenient. It provides that the Comptroller may notify the bank to make good its reserve, and further that if it fails for thirty days thereafter to do this the Comptroller, with the concurrence of the Secretary of the Treasury, may appoint a receiver for the bank. However, before the Comptroller can send notice to any bank he must have reliable information that its reserve is deficient, and as the source of such information is either the report of its examination heretofore made once a year, but hereafter to be made twice, or its sworn report of condition made five times a year, some time may intervene before such condition becomes known to him. Again, when he is officially informed, the use of the word may both as to his sending notice and as to his appointing a receiver in a case of noncompliance with such notice, plainly leaves the enforcement of the law to the discretion of the Comptroller in either or both of these particulars. This power thus conferred upon the Comptroller is one that ought to be used with great prudence and caution. It would be not only unwise but would work great injury to the business interests of individual communities and the general public to exercise the authority thus vested in him at a time when arbitrary action must necessarily result in general disaster, and therefore in the interest of the public the discretion given to the Comptroller has always been used with moderation. It is this moderation which in an emergency has in numerous instances contributed in no small degree to averting widespread financial ruin. In this view there can be no question as to the legality and propriety of a bank's exhausting its entire reserve, if necessary, in an emergency, to pay its depositors, but for no other purpose, except to discount or buy sight bills of exchange, and where the withdrawal of deposits continues or is likely to continue no careful bank manager needs to be informed that not only must he cease to make new loans and discounts, but must replenish his exhausted stock of lawful money by converting his resources into cash through collections of loans and discounts or selling securities, or where this is not possible by using these assets to borrow the money needed to enable him to meet his liabilities.

Tabular statements showing deposits, reserve required, and reserve held, classification of reserve, and average percentage of same on or about October 1 of each year from 1874 to 1893, both inclusive, will be found on pages 130-131 of the appendix, also a table, page 134, showing similar information at the date of each report of condition from December 9, 1892, to October 3, 1893. This last-named table is inserted to show the movement of the reserve during the financial stringency of the present year, both as to volume and average percentage of deposits. An inspection of these figures will show that the average percentage of reserve to deposits from December 9, 1892, to July 12, 1893, varied only between 26.42 per cent and 27.24 per cent, and that on October 3, 1893, the average increased to 32.66 per cent. In volume the amount of lawful money actually held by the banks was $318,641,595 on December 9, 1892, decreased to $289,244,850 on July 12, 1893, but increased by October 3, 1893, to $346,433,212, an amount approximating $57,000,000 greater than on July 12, 1893, when the panic was at its height, and almost $27,000,000 greater than on December 9, 1892, when business was in a normal condition.

AMENDMENTS RECOMMENDED.

By provision of law it is made incumbent upon the Comptroller of the Currency to call the attention of Congress to "any amendment to the laws relative to banking by which the system may be improved and the security of the holder of its notes and other creditors may be increased." There are certain amendments which it is obvious ought to be made, and which, in their operation, would make the present system more nearly serve the purpose for which it was designed, and to a measurable extent give an increase in the volume of circulation, if such is desirable. The following amendments to the law as it now stands are recommended to be made,

(1) That every association be authorized to issue circulating notes equal to the par value of the bonds deposited.

No good reason can possibly exist at present for depriving the banks or the business interests of the country of the additional circulation which would be added by such amendment. Whatever reason may have existed at the time of the enactment of the present provision does not now exist and its effect is to make circulation unprofitable and to lock up in bond investments the difference between 90 per cent and 100 per cent of this par value which, under the amendment suggested, would be adding to active circulation, under the present deposit of bonds, $20,941,635.

(2) That the semi-annual duty on circulation be so reduced as to equal one-fourth of 1 per cent per annum.

In support of this proposed amendment it is respectfully suggested that the present rate of tax takes from the banks a very large sum of money which is not used by the Government to meet the expenses for which the tax was originally laid. Its bearing upon the question of an increased circulation on the part of the banks is important, as the additional cost entailed by it of necessity so largely reduces the profits of circulation and adds to the cost of taking it out that banks will not, except under other circumstances, increase their issue.

Unwillingness on their part to add to the volume of currency, coupled with a tendency some years since to decrease the same, has subjected the banks to criticism. Such criticism, however, is unjust in this, that it is based on the idea that the banks are simply indifferent to the matter and are content to be banks of deposit and discount rather than banks of issue. The fact is banks ceased taking out circulation simply because until recently there was no profit in it. The high price of Government bonds necessary to be deposited, coupled with the tax upon circulation, and the refusal to grant more than 90 per cent of the par value of the bonds in currency return, has rendered circulation either without profit or profitable to so slight an extent as to offer no inducement to banks to take out circulation.

The Government can not relieve the banks of the additional expense to them by reason of the premium on bonds to be deposited, but it can materially lessen the cost of their circulation by enacting the amendments suggested, and in this manner offer an inducement, which is now wholly wanting, to the banks to add to the volume of bank-note circulation. The whole question is one of a business character. Banks are but business institutions, conducted upon the same lines and for the same purpose as other business undertakings. It can not be expected that they will do that which either entails a positive loss or warrants little or no profit, and if relief is to come through an expansion of the national-bank currency, Congress must remove rather than erect unnecessary barriers.

The following amendments pertaining to the administration and conduct of banks are recommended:

(3) That the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be empowered to remove officers and directors of a bank for violations of law, first giving such officers and directors an opportunity to be heard, leaving the vacancy so created to be filled in the usual way.

It is respectfully suggested that the powers now vested in the Comptroller do not accomplish the result that they otherwise would if the law permitted the removal of officers and directors for misconduct in office. Many banks would be saved from embarrassment, creditors from loss, and shareholders from assessments if the Comptroller, upon learning of the misconduct of those charged with the management of a bank, could take positive action in the premises.

(4) That no executive officer of a bank or employé thereof be permitted to borrow funds of such bank in any manner, except upon application to and approval by the board of direction.

This amendment is recommended with the knowledge that the House of Representatives, at the late special session of Congress, passed a bill (H. R. 2344), entitled "An act for the better control of and to promote the safety of national banks," which bears upon the same subject-matter, but differs in that it embraces in its provisions all directors of a bank, instead of confining them to the executive officers and employés only.

At the best the question as to what extent loans and discounts should be made by a bank to its directors and executive officers by reason of the various circumstances under which these are granted is a difficult one to satisfactorily legislate upon, and an equally difficult one upon which to make specific recommendations. Where money is borrowed directly by any such officer or director to an amount exceeding the limit prescribed by section 5200 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, the Comptroller's duty is as plain as in any other case where the law is violated, but the limit to which discounts should be granted them is a question involving consideration of safety and prudence. Holding this view, the Comptroller has, in cases where the aggregate of loans and discounts to executive officers and directors appeared to be out of proportion to the total loans and discounts made by the bank, addressed the following form of letter to the bank, with the request that all directors unite in a reply:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY,
Washington, D. C., _____, 189 .

Cashier, _____,

Sir: Upon examination of your report of condition on _____, it is found that the "loans and discounts upon which officers and directors are liable" amount to $_____, out of total loans and discounts of $_____.

While recognizing the right of directors and officers to borrow within the limitations of law and safety, the Comptroller must insist most rigidly that directors and others connected with the bank in this fiduciary relation shall not avail themselves of the easy opportunity afforded them to borrow beyond this limit, either directly or indirectly, the funds intrusted to their keeping, in order to carry on enterprises outside of the banks with which they are connected.

Officers and directors should remember that the funds held by banks are in a large measure funds of others held in trust for the safe-keeping thereof, and, as trust funds, ought not to be loaned to the trustees of such funds, except upon the very best collateral or other security.

In the matter of accommodations to them, directors and officers should be placed upon the same footing as other customers of the bank, except that their financial ability and standing should be the more rigidly scrutinized, for the reason that they act in the dual capacity of lenders as well as borrowers.

The continued experience of this office is that such loans in many instances result disastrously to all concerned, and therefore the danger attending upon such a course ought not to be risked. The Comptroller must insist that this condition of affairs be remedied with the least possible delay, by reducing the amount of these accommodations to safer and more reasonable limits.

Please bring this communication to the immediate attention of your board of directors for consideration, and request them to unite in making a prompt reply over their individual signatures.

Respectfully, yours,

Comptroller.

The information upon which this letter is based is found in the reports of condition made under oath to the Comptroller, in which appear the indebtedness of every kind and character of each director and officer of the bank.

Accompanying this letter is sent to directors a copy of such sections of the National Bank Act as prescribe their duties and the penalties attaching for the nonperformance of them.

Beyond the substance of the amendment above set forth the Comptroller is not prepared to recommend any legislation upon this subject.

It seems that a difference should be made between loans to and overdrawn accounts of directors, who are simply directors, and of those who are the executive officers of a bank, and as such have and receive adequate compensation for the active management of its affairs. The abuse of the easy privilege of loaning to themselves is generally on the part of the managing officers, and not on the part of directors who are only members of the board of direction, and hence the distinction which is drawn between the recommendation here made and the bill referred to.

So far as loans, through drafts or otherwise, to directors who are not executive officers of the bank, are concerned, there are strong reasons against the advisability of such legislation. Any positive restriction imposed by direct law might have the effect of deterring honest, intelligent, and substantial men from serving as directors. As a rule, men of this class are sought for these positions in order to obtain the benefit of their judgment and business capacity in managing the affairs of the bank, and to secure their own business for the bank. This business does not consist alone of deposits, but is largely made up of loans and discounts, by means of which the profits are chiefly earned. As a rule these directors receive no compensation for their services, which are rendered largely through motives of interest as shareholders, or of pride in holding a position supposed to give a certain prominence in business circles.

An inquiry as to the practice of banks paying directors for attendance upon meetings showed that in some cities this is in vogue. It would be better for all concerned if all banks adopted such policy. However small the compensation, it could not but result in benefit to the shareholders and more than compensate for the expense involved. The general criticism to be passed upon directors is their failure in so many instances to give to the business of the bank the attention their oaths and duties require. The successful administration of a bank's affairs depends upon the watchfulness and fidelity of the board of directors. When such conduct is wanting bank failures ensue, or if failures do not follow great loss to shareholders is entailed through want of profits or assessment to make good the impairment of capital stock caused by imprudent loans. The administration of the Comptroller, if supplemented by the watchful care of directors, would minimize even the comparatively few failures which occur.

(5) That the assistant cashier, in the absence or inability of the cashier of a national bank to act, be authorized and empowered to sign the circulating notes of such bank.

This amendment is suggested in order to meet a difficulty which has arisen in numerous instances during the past months, there being no provision in the law for any one to sign currency for the cashier in his absence or inability to act, and banks are frequently put to serious inconvenience on this account.

(6) That the law be amended by appropriate legislation so as to empower some class of public officers to administer the general oaths required by the provisions of the National Bank Act.

The necessity for this amendment is occasioned by the fact that the authority of officers empowered to administer oaths is now restricted under the Federal statutes to certain specific cases, and with the exception of the acknowledgment of the organization certificate and the verification of reports of condition, required by section 5211 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, no provision is made for administering the oaths required of the officers of national banks.

The following amendments bearing upon the subject of bank examiners would, the Comptroller believes, result in benefit, and are therefore recommended:

(7) That bank examiners be required to take an oath of office before entering upon the discharge of their duties, and to give bond with proper conditions in such amount and with such sureties as the Comptroller of the Currency may require.

An anomaly is presented in the case of bank examiners, which does not appear in that of any other public official. No position under the Government is more responsible in the duties attaching to it, and none requires a higher degree of integrity in the incumbent. The exception is rare where dishonesty has been found in examiners, but it is the opinion of the Comptroller that an oath, such as is required of other officers under the Government, should be taken and a bond given.

(8) That the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be empowered to appoint two general examiners of conspicuous ability and experience to be paid out of the reimbursable funds, whose duty it shall be to visit, assist, and supervise the various examiners in their several districts, in order to secure uniformity in method and greater efficiency in work.

This amendment has been heretofore recommended by former Comptrollers, and the reasons for it suggested. It would aid in uniformity of method and give to the office of the Comptroller at all times officers who could do special and confidential work, which can not be done at present, because no compensation is provided.

(9) That the law be so amended as to provide that the compensation of all bank examiners be fixed by the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

This amendment is suggested in the interest of better examinations. Thoroughness in bank examinations is not to be expected under a system in which compensation is provided for and ascertained by a method that furnishes a constant temptation to the examiners to neglect their duty. Under the law as it now stands the compensation for bank examinations made outside of reserve cities, and the States of Oregon, California, and Nevada, and the Territories, is fixed at various amounts, ranging from $20 in the case of a bank having a capital of less than $100,000 to $75 in the case of a bank having a capital of $600,000 and over. As the earnings of the examiner are thus made dependent upon the number of examinations he makes, without regard to the amount of work he actually performs, it is obvious that he has a pecuniary interest in increasing the number of examinations by neglecting his duty to make them thorough.

Again, the law requires a bank which is properly conducted, and the examination of which involves but little time, to pay the same compensation therefor that is paid by a bank which is not properly conducted and which by reason thereof requires a much longer time for its examination. These objectionable features could be remedied if the law were so amended as to provide that the compensation for all bank examinations be fixed by the Comptroller, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Many other amendments have been suggested to the Comptroller as proper ones to be made to Congress for action, but it is not deemed best to submit them. The foregoing are presented, with the earnest request that they receive consideration. Some of these amendments have been recommended by former Comptrollers in the belief based upon knowledge gained from experience in the Bureau that they would "improve the system and add to the security of the holders of bank notes and other creditors," but no action has been taken upon them. It is respectfully submitted that as the national banks are under the supervision of the general government, and as Congress is vested with the power to legislate upon all matters pertaining to their control and conduct, it should be the constant aim of Congress to so legislate as to enable them to meet the public needs.

CURRENCY LEGISLATION.

The Comptroller has been urged to make some specific recommendation with respect to a revision of the law so far as it pertains to the issuing of currency. After a careful consideration of the question the Comptroller is of the opinion that, aside from the amendments heretofore suggested, allowing banks to issue circulating notes to an amount equal to the par value of the bonds held to secure circulation, and abolishing a portion of the tax on national-bank circulation, the public good will be best subserved at this time by making no radical change in the provisions of the law.

The financial situation of the past months was not the result of either a lack in the volume of currency, of which there is now a plethora, or a want of elasticity in the present system of issuing it, but arose from a loss of confidence on the part of the people in the solvency of the distinctively monetary institutions of the country. It is worthy of note and of serious consideration that at the very time the scarcity of currency for business purposes was at its height, the country's volume of currency was increasing the most rapidly, and the amount per capita was much larger than in any recent years. Under the same peculiar condition of affairs which marked the monetary situation from May to September, no system, no matter how elastic, or volume of currency however large, could afford relief. As long as confidence is destroyed and credit wanting, money hoarding will go on and additional issues but add to the hoardings and give but little, if any, actual relief. On the other hand, when confidence and credit abound there exists little need for an abundant circulating medium, because under such a condition of affairs the amount of actual money required to transact the daily business affairs of life is reduced to a minimum.

The statistics show that the volume of business carried on through cash transactions is on an average but 8.7 per cent, and as the monetary conditions of the country become more fixed and confidence in them established, cash transactions will decrease and credit transactions correspondingly increase. This fact is to be considered in connection with all plans having as their sole object an increase of the volume of bank-note or other paper currency, and coupled with this is the further fact that no issue is so dangerous to a people's prosperity as a large paper issue, unless such paper rests upon a proper foundation, is absolutely redeemable and convertible into coin upon the demand of the note-holder, and surrounded with every safeguard as to supervision of issue and redemption.

In view of the fact that there is now a very great abundance of unemployed currency in the country, as shown by the daily money returns from the commercial centers, it would seem that whatever need appeared some months since for enlarging to any marked extent the circulating medium has now ceased to exist; and therefore Congress is afforded an opportunity of giving to the whole subject that careful research and investigation which its importance in all of its bearings demands. It will not do to place upon the statute books any experimental legislation upon this subject, but whenever a new law governing bank issues is enacted it must be one that immediately upon going into operation shall command in every respect the confidence of the whole people and insure to them a currency as safe in every respect as the present one, but with none of its defects.

In the meantime it is respectfully suggested that Congress, either through a monetary commission created for such purpose or through the appropriate committees, obtain detailed information of the various systems of banks of issue now in operation, and also such information as is to be ascertained from skilled students of finance and practical financiers, that it may be able to formulate a system complete and harmonious.

CONCLUSION.

In concluding this report the Comptroller desires to bear testimony to the general efficiency of the employés in the Bureau, to the examiners in the field, and to the work accomplished by the receivers in relation to the trusts in their charge.

An extraordinary amount of work has been placed upon the employés of the Bureau, but it has been performed promptly and intelligently.

In the appendix will be found in detail the usual tables, together with a digest of legal decisions rendered by the various courts of the country involving questions affecting national banks.

In the second volume of this report will be found a detailed statement of the condition of all the national banks as shown by the report of condition of October 3, 1893, alphabetically arranged by States, and properly indexed.

JAMES H. ECKELS,
Comptroller of the Currency.

The SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

ABATEMENT:

An action brought by the creditor of a national bank is abated by a decree of a district or circuit court dissolving the corporation and forfeiting its franchises. First National Bank of Selma v. Colby; 21 Wall., 609.

ACCOMMODATION PAPER:

1. A national-banking association can not guarantee the paper of a customer for his accommodation. Seligman v. Charlottesville National Bank, 3 Hughes 647.
2. The accommodation paper of a national-banking association is void in the hands of one who takes it with knowledge of its character. Johnson v. Charlottesville National Bank, 3 Hughes, 657.
3. A national bank can not become an accommodation indorser. National Bank of Commerce v. Atkinson, 55 Fed. Rep., 465.

ACTIONS: See Jurisdiction.

1. Suit may be brought against a national-banking association though it is in the hands of a receiver. Bank of Bethel v. Pahquioque Bank, 14 Wall., 383; Security National Bank v. National Bank of the Commonwealth, 2 Hun., 287; Green v. The Walkkill National Bank, 7 Hun., 63.
2. A national-banking association is a foreign corporation within the meaning of a State statute requiring corporations created by the laws of any other State or country to give security for costs before prosecuting a suit in the courts of the State. National Park Bank v. Gunst, 1 Abb. N. C., 292.
3. As a national-banking association can acquire no title to negotiable paper purchased by it, it can maintain no action thereon in a State where the person suing must be owner of the paper. First National Bank of Rochester v. Pierson, 24 Minn., 140.
4. A shareholder of a national-banking association can not maintain an action against the directors to recover damages sustained for neglect and mismanagement of the affairs of the association whereby it became insolvent and its stock was rendered worthless. Such an action can be brought only by the corporation itself. Conway v. Halsey, 15 Vroom, 462; Heme v. Barney, 45 Fed. Rep., 668.
5. But where the receiver refuses to bring an action against negligent directors to recover the amount which the shareholders have been compelled to contribute to pay the debts of the association, an action against such directors may be brought by a shareholder on behalf of himself and the other shareholders. Nelson v. Burrows, 9 Abb. N. C., 280.
6. And when the receiver is a director, and one of the parties charged with misconduct and against whom a remedy is sought, the action may be brought by a shareholder on behalf of himself and the other shareholders. Brinckerhoff v. Bostwick, 88 N. Y., 52.
7. A stockholder in a national bank can not maintain an action at law against the officers and directors thereof to recover damages for willful waste of the assets whereby the value of his shares was decreased and he became liable to an assessment thereon. His remedy must be sought in equity. Hirsh v. Jones et al., 56 Fed. Rep., 137.
8. A receiver may sue either in his own name or the name of the bank. National Bank v. Kennedy, 17 Wall., 19.
9. Suits and proceedings under the act in which the United States or their officers or agents are parties, whether commenced before or after the appointment of a receiver are to be conducted by the district attorney under the direction of the Solicitor of the Treasury. Bank of Bethel v. Pahquioque Bank, 14 Wall., 383.
10. But section 380, Revised Statutes, is directory merely, and the employment of private counsel by the receiver can not be made a ground of defense to a suit brought by him. Ib.
11. Receivers may sue in the courts of the United States by virtue of the act, without reference to the locality of their personal citizenship. Ib.
12. The provisions of the codes that every action must be brought in the name of the real party in interest, except in the case of the trustee of an express trust or of a person authorized by a statute to sue, does not apply to the receiver of a national-banking association suing in a Federal court held in a State which has adopted the code procedure; for the right of the receiver to sue is derived from the national-banking law. Stanton v. Wilkeson, 8 Ben., 357.
13. Under section 1001 of the Revised Statutes, no bond for the prosecution of the suit, or to answer in damages or costs, is required on writs of error or appeals issuing from or brought to the Supreme Court of the United States by direction of the Comptroller of the Currency in suits by or against insolvent national-banking associations or the receivers thereof. Pacific National Bank v. Mixer, 114 U. S., 463.
14. The State statute of limitations applies to a suit brought by the receiver of a national bank against a shareholder to recover an assessment upon his stock to pay the debts of the bank. Butler v. Poole, 44 Fed. Rep., 586.
15. When the full personal liability of shareholders is to be enforced the action must be at law. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 505; Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673.
16. And it may be at law, though the assessment is not for the full value of the shares; for, since the sum each shareholder must contribute is a certain exact sum, there is no necessity for invoking the aid of a court of equity. Bailey v. Sawyer, 4 Dill., 463.
17. But the suit may be in equity. Kennedy v. Gibson, supra.

ACTIONS—Continued.

18. The provision of the banking law, section 5198, Revised Statutes, which requires that actions brought against national-banking associations in State courts shall be brought in the county or city in which the association is located, applies only to transitory actions; it was not intended to apply to actions local in their character. Casey v. Adams, 102 U. S., 66.
19. Whether a suit against a director for negligent performance of his duties, as required by the statutes of the United States and the by-laws of the association, will survive against the executor or administrator depends upon State laws. Witters v. Foster, 25 Fed. Rep., 737.
20. A specific performance of a contract to sell the stock of a national-banking association will not be enforced in favor of a purchaser who places his claim for equitable relief upon the ground that he desires to obtain control of the association. Such an object is contrary to public policy. Foll's Appeal, 81 Penn. St., 434.
21. Under section 57 of act of 1864, suits may be brought by, as well as against, any association. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 498.
22. Actions, local in their nature, may be maintained in the proper State court in a county or city other than that where it is established. Casey v. Adams, 102 U. S., 66.
23. A national bank may be sued in any State, county, or municipal court in county or city where located. Bank of Bethel v. Palquoque Bank, 14 Wall., 383.
24. Such action is not prescribed by the limitation of one year in Louisiana. Case v. Bank, 100 U. S., 446.
25. It is no objection to a bill against stockholders within the jurisdiction of the court, that other stockholders, not within such jurisdiction, are not co-defendants. Id.
26. Under the original act respecting national banks, and before the act of June 30, 1876, a court of equity had jurisdiction of suit to prevent or redress maladministration or fraud against creditors, in voluntary liquidation of such bank, whether contemplated or executed; and such suit by one creditor must be for all. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27.

ASSESSMENT: See Insolvent banks; Receiver.

1. Where national-banking association is insolvent, order of Comptroller of Currency, declaring to what extent the individual liability of stockholders shall be enforced, is conclusive. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall, 498; Casey v. Galli v. 94 U. S., 673; National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 628.
2. Payments of assessments by stockholder in national bank on increased stock can not be applied, in law or in equity, to discharge assessments by Comptroller in final liquidation of the bank. Pacific National Bank v. Eaton, 141 U. S., 227; Thayer v. Butler, 141 U. S., 234; Butler v. Eaton, 141 U. S., 240.
3. The assessments made by the Comptroller upon the shareholders of an insolvent association bear interest from the date of the order. Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673.
4. Where shareholders have assessed themselves to the amount of the par value of the stock for the purpose of restoring impaired capital, the contributions made in pursuance of such assessment, though all used in paying the debts of the association, will not so operate as to discharge the shareholders from their individual liability. Delano v. Butler, 118 U. S., 634.
5. Where a married woman is by the State law capable of holding stock in a national bank in her own right, she is liable to an assessment upon her shares, though the law of the State does not authorize married women to bind themselves by contracts for the payment of money. The law annexes her obligations by its own force; no act or capacity to act on her part is required. Witters v. Sowles, 35 Fed. Rep., 640; 32 Fed. Rep. 767.
6. Married women, who are permitted by the laws of the State in which they reside to become shareholders in national banks, are liable to assessments under the national-banking laws. In re First National Bank of St. Albans, 49 Fed. Rep., 120.
7. The coverture of a married woman, who is a shareholder in a national bank, does not prevent the receiver of the bank from recovering judgment against her for the amount of an assessment levied upon the shareholders equally and ratably under the statute. Keyser v. Hitz, 133 U. S., 138.
8. It is not essential, in an action to enforce the individual liability of the shareholders of an insolvent national-banking association, to aver and prove that the assessment was necessary; for the decision of the Comptroller on this point is conclusive. Strong v. Southworth, 8 Ben., 331; Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 505; Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673.

ASSESSMENT—Continued.

9. And the fact that the title to the stock of a deceased shareholder vests in his administrator does not relieve the estate from the burden of an assessment. Davis v. Weed, 44 Conn., 569.
10. Nor will the fact that the administration is complete, and all the assets have been distributed, defeat an action brought to recover the assessment. Ib. But see Witters v. Sowles, 32 Fed. Rep., 30.
11. A decision rescinding sale, so as to restore to the purchaser the proceeds of stock fraudulently sold, does not necessarily involve a decision that the purchaser is not liable to an assessment upon the stock, if necessary to pay debts. Florida Land & Imp. Co. v. Merrill, 52 Fed. Rep., 77.
12. The question whether there is a deficiency of assets, and when it is necessary to enforce the individual liability of shareholders, it is for the Comptroller to determine; and his decision in this matter is final and conclusive. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 498; National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 628; Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673.
13. The amount contributed by each shareholder should bear the same proportion to the whole amount of the deficit as his own stock bears to the whole amount of the capital stock at its par value. And the solvent shareholders can not be made to contribute more than their proportion to make good the deficiency caused by the insolvency of other shareholders. United States v. Knox, 102 U. S., 422.
14. Where, to discharge liabilities of an insolvent bank, Comptroller assessed against shareholders a sufficient per cent on par value of stock held by each, some being insolvent, he can not provide for deficiency by new assessment. Ib.

ATTACHMENT:

1. When a creditor attaches the property of an insolvent bank he can not hold such property against the claim of a receiver appointed after the attachment suit was commenced. Such creditor must share pro rata with all others. First National Bank of Selma v. Colby, 21 Wall., 609; Harvey v. Allen, 16 Blatch, 29.
2. The stock of a shareholder indebted to it may be attached by the association and sold on execution. Hager v. Union National Bank, 63 Me., 509.
3. No State court can issue an attachment against the funds of a national bank. Although the provision forbidding attachments was evidently made to secure equality among the general creditors in the division of the proceeds of the property of an insolvent bank, its operation is by no means confined to cases of actual or contemplated insolvency; but the remedy is taken away altogether and can not be used under any circumstances. The effect of the provision in section 5242, Revised Statutes, is to write into all State attachment laws an exception in favor of national banks, and all such laws must be read as if they contained an exception in favor of national banks. Pacific National Bank v. Mixer, 124 U. S., 721.
4. No attachment can issue from United States circuit court in an action against a national bank before final judgment in the cause, and a bond given on such attachment is illegal. Ib.
5. Sureties on attachment bond against national bank who have received assets of the bank to secure them from loss thereon, the obligation being illegal, will be discharged in equity and be compelled to transfer their collateral to the receiver of the bank. Ib.

BONDS OF OFFICERS:

1. It is not necessary that national-banking associations shall signify their approval of the official bonds of their officers by memoranda entered upon the journals or minutes of the directors. The acceptance is to be presumed from the retention of the bond, and from the fact that the officer is permitted to enter upon or continue in the discharge of his duties. Grover v. The Lebanon National Bank, 10 Bush., 23.
2. Where the sureties of an officer can reasonably be presumed to have been deceived by the statement of the condition of the bank published just prior to the execution of the bond, and to have been led to think that there was no deficit, whereas there had been a misapplication of a large part of the funds by the officer whose bondsmen they became, which fact would have been ascertained had the directors exercised ordinary diligence, the sureties are discharged from their liability. Ib.

BOOKS, INSPECTION OF: See Taxation.

1. Code of Alabama, 1886, section 1677, which provides that stockholders of all corporations have the right to have access to and inspection and examination of the books, records, and papers of the corporation at all reasonable and proper times, applies to national banks located within the State; and mandamus will lie against the officer having custody of the books to enforce the right. Winter v. Baldwin, 7 So., Rep., 734.

2. The rights of stockholders are not curtailed nor the statute in conflict with Revised Statutes, United States, which provide that national banks shall not be subject to visitatorial powers other than those authorized by Congress or vested in the courts of justice. Ib.

BRANCH BANKS:

Under Revised Statutes, section 5190, providing that "the usual business of each national-banking association shall be transacted at an office or banking-house located in the place specified in its organization certificate," a national bank can not make a valid contract for the cashing of checks upon it at a different place from that of its residence, through the agency of another bank. Armstrong v. National Bank of Springfield, 38 Fed. Rep., 883.

BROKER: See Government securities.

A national-banking association is not authorized to act as a broker or agent in the purchase of bonds and stocks. First National Bank of Allentown v. Hoch, 89 Penn. St., 324; Weckler v. The First National Bank of Hagerstown, 42 Md., 581.

CAPITAL STOCK: See Transfer of stock; Increase of; Reduction of.

Where a national-banking association purchases shares of its own stock, and divides them among its directors, to whom the shares are transferred upon the stock books, the transaction is void, and no title passes. Meyers v. Valley National Bank, 13 National Bankruptcy Register, 34.

CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT:

1. National-banking associations may issue certificates of deposit. Hunt, Appellant, 141 Mass., 515; Riddle v. First National Bank, 27 Fed. Rep., 503.
2. Certain persons, directors of a savings and of a national bank, procured money from the former on notes made by a third person to them for the payment of stock of the national bank, issued in the name of such third person for their benefit. These persons were behind in their accounts with the national bank, and the savings bank allowed them to overdraw their accounts with it to a large amount, which was used in settling their accounts with the national bank. Thereafter the savings bank delivered the notes and the check to the national bank, which issued to it a certificate of deposit for an amount covering the whole amount represented by them. Held, that this certificate of deposit was without consideration and void, and any loss accruing to the savings bank by virtue of the transactions was due to the fraud or incompetency of its own officers. Nurray v. Pauly, 56 Fed. Rep., 962.

CERTIFICATION OF CHECKS:

1. A national-banking association may "certify" a check. Merchants' National Bank v. State National Bank, 10 Wall., 604.
2. A broker received coupon railroad mortgage bonds to cover future margins of a customer and pledged them to a bank as collateral security for any indebtedness he might owe to it. Afterward the bank advanced money and certified checks on the faith of these bonds, when broker did not have money on deposit equal in amount to the checks. Held, under section 5208, that although the certifications were unlawful the checks certified were good and valid obligations against the bank. Thompson v. St. Nicholas National Bank, 146 U. S., 240.

CIRCULATION: See Post-notes; Taxation.

1. The circulating notes of a national-banking association are valid though they do not bear the imprint of the seal of the Treasury. Such imprint was intended to be simply evidence of the contract, and forms no part of the contract itself. United States v. Bennett, 17 Blatch., 357.
2. The State can not tax the circulating notes of national-banking associations. Horne v. Greene, 25 Miss., 452; contra, Board of Commissioners v. Elston 32 Ind., 27; see also Ruffin v. Board of Commissioners, 69 N. C., 493; Lily v. The Commissioners, 69 N. C., 300.
3. The circulating notes of national-banking associations are included in the phrase "United States Currency" when used in a penal statute. State v. Gasting, 23 La. Ann., 1609.

COLLATERAL SECURITIES:

1. A national-banking association may take stock of a corporation as collateral security for a loan. Shoemaker v. The National Mechanics' Bank, 2 Abb. U. S., 416; Canfield v. The State National Bank of Minneapolis, Thomp. Nat. Bank Cas., 312.
2. And it may take for such purpose the stock of another national-banking association. National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 628.
3. A national-banking association may take a pledge of personal chattels as security for a loan. Pittsburg Locomotive and Car Works v. State National Bank of Keokuk, 2 Cent. L. J., 692; 1 New York Weekly Digest, 332.
4. A national-banking association may take as collateral security for a loan a warehouse receipt for merchandise. Cleveland, Brown & Co., v. Shoeman, 40 Ohio St., 176.
5. Where stockholder borrows money from bank and gives as security certificate of his shares of its stock, he is not entitled to recover when, on nonpayment of loan, the bank sold his stock and applied proceeds to his credit. National Bank of Xenia v. Stewart, 107 U. S., 676.
6. Creditor of insolvent bank has the right to prove and have dividends upon his entire claim, irrespective of collateral security he may hold. Peoples v. Remington, 121 N. Y., 328.
7. The property which a creditor holds as collateral to the indebtedness of his debtor secures him to that extent in case his debt is not paid in full by the debtor, or by his estate. Evertson v. Booth, 19 Johns., 485.
8. It is the duty of a receiver if a secured debt is so reduced by dividends that the security will more than pay it, to redeem the security for the benefit of his trust. West v. Bank of Rutland, 19 Vermont, 403. Miller's Estate, 82; Penn. St., 113; Bates v. Paddock, 7 Western Reporter, 222.
9. A secured creditor is entitled to dividends upon his claim as it existed at the time of proving. Chemical National Bank v. Armstrong, 50 Fed. Rep., 798.

CONSTITUTIONALITY:

1. Congress has the constitutional power to incorporate banks. McCulloch v. Maryland, 4 Wheat., 316; Osborne v. Bank of the United States, 9 Wheat., 738.
2. Congress has power to clothe national-banking associations, as to their contracts and dealings with the world, with any special immunities and privileges exempting them, in their trade and intercourse with others, from the laws and remedies applicable in like cases to other citizens. The Chesapeake Bank v. The First National Bank of Baltimore, 40 Md., 269.
3. Thus, the provision of the banking law that no attachment, injunction, or execution shall issue against a national-banking association before final judgment in any suit, action, or proceeding in a State court is constitutional. Ib.
4. Congress having, in the exercise of undisputed constitutional powers, undertaken to provide a currency for the whole country, may secure the benefit of it to the people by appropriate legislation. Veazie Bank v. Fenno, 5 Wall., 533.
5. Congress has the power to divest the United States courts of their jurisdiction of suits by or against national banking associations. National Bank of Jefferson v. Fare et al., 25 Fed. Rep., 209.
6. National-banking associations, being instruments designed to aid the Government in the administration of a branch of the public service, can not be controlled by the States, except in so far as Congress may see proper to permit. Farmers and Mechanics' Bank v. Dearing, 91 U. S., 29.
7. A State law prohibiting the establishment of banking companies in the State without the authority of the legislature was not intended to apply to banking corporations created by authority of Congress, since such corporations may be legally established in the State without the consent of the legislature. Stetson v. City of Bangor, 56 Me., 274.

CONVERSION OF BANK: See Oath of director.

1. Where a State bank has been converted into a national-banking association it may enforce all contracts made with it while a State corporation. City National Bank v. Phelps, 97 N. Y., 44.
2. And it is liable, after the conversion, for all the obligations of the old institution. Coffee v. The National Bank of Missouri, 46 Mo., 140; Kelsey v. The National Bank of Crawford, 69 Penn. St., 426.
3. A national-banking association, organized as the successor of a State bank, may take and hold the assets of the bank whose place it takes, though there was not in form a conversion from a State to a national corporation but the organization of a new corporation. Bank v. McIntyre, 40 Ohio St., 523.

CONVERSION OF BANK--Continued.

4. And such association will be liable to the depositors of the former bank. Eaus v. Exchange Bank, 79 Mo., 182.
5. A State law authorizing national banking associations which have been converted from State banks to use the name of the original corporation for the purpose of prosecuting and defending suits is not in conflict with the national-banking law, and therefore proceedings based upon a judgment obtained before the conversion may be instituted by such association in its former corporate name. Thomas v. Farmers' Bank of Maryland, 46 Md., 43.
6. The conversion of a State bank into a national bank, with a change of name, under the national-bank act does not affect its identity or its right to sue upon liabilities incurred to it by its former name. Michigan Insurance Bank v. Eldred, 143 U. S., 293.
7. No authority other than that conferred by act of Congress is necessary to enable any State bank to become a national-banking association. Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673.
8. When a State bank is converted into a national-banking association all of the directors at the time will continue to be directors of the association until others are appointed or elected, though some of them may not have joined in the execution of the articles of association and organization certificate. Lockwood v. The American National Bank, 9 R. I., 308.
9. But even were the oath required, a majority of all who were directors at the time of the conversion, and not merely a majority of those who take the oath, are necessary to constitute a quorum. Ib.

CRIMINAL LAW: See False entries; Indictment.

1. The willful misapplication of the moneys and funds of a national-banking association, made an offense by section 5209, Revised Statutes, must be for the use or benefit of the party charged or of some person or company other than the association. United States v. Britton, 107 U. S., 655.
2. The exercise of official discretion in good faith, without fraud, for the advantage or the supposed advantage of the association, is not punishable; but if official action be taken in bad faith, for personal advantage and with fraudulent intent, it is punishable. United States v. Fish, 24 Fed. Rep., 585.
3. It is not necessary that the officer should personally misapply the funds of the association. He will be guilty as a principal offender though he merely procures or causes the misapplication. Ib.
4. A loan in bad faith, with intent to defraud the association, is a willful misapplication within the meaning of the statute. Ib.
5. It is no defense to a charge of embezzlement, abstraction, or misapplication of the funds of a national-banking association that the funds were used with the knowledge and consent of the president and some of the directors. The intent to defraud is to be conclusively presumed from the commission of the offense. United States v. Taintor, 11 Blatch., 374.
6. Where the president, charged as a trustee with the administration of the funds of the bank in his hands, converts them to his own use without authority for so doing, he embezzles and abstracts them within the meaning of section 5209, Revised Statutes. In the matter of Van Campen, 2 Ben., 419.
7. If, with intent to defraud the association, an officer allows a firm in which he is a member to overdraw its account, he will be guilty of misapplying the funds of the association. Ib.
8. Allowing the withdrawal of the deposit of one indebted to the association can not be charged as a misapplication of the money of the association. United States v. Britton, 108 U. S., 193.
9. It is not a willful misapplication of the moneys of the association within the meaning of section 5209, Revised Statutes, for a president who is insolvent to procure the discounting by the association of his note not well secured. Ib.
10. To constitute the offense of a willful misapplication of the moneys, funds, or credits of the association within section 5209, Revised Statutes, it is not necessary that the person charged with the offense should have been previously in the actual possession of such moneys, funds, and credits under or by virtue of any trust, duty, or employment committed to him. Nor is it necessary to the commission of this offense that the officer making the willful misapplication should derive any personal benefit therefrom. When the funds or assets of the bank are unlawfully taken from its possession, and afterward willfully misapplied by converting them to

- the use of any person other than the bank, with intent to injure and defraud, the offense as described in the statute is committed. United States v. Harper, 33 Fed. Rep., 471.
11. This criminal act may be done directly and personally, or it may be done indirectly through the agency of another. If the officer charged with it has such control, direction, and power of management by virtue of his relation to the bank as to direct an application of its funds in such manner and under such circumstances as to constitute the offense of willful misapplication, and actually makes such direction or causes such misapplication to be made, he is equally as guilty as if it was done by his own hands. Ib.
 12. To constitute the offense of willful abstraction by an officer, defined by the statute, it is necessary that the money or funds of the association should be withdrawn by the officer or by his direction; that such taking or withdrawing should be without the knowledge or consent of the bank, or of its board of directors; that the money or funds so taken or withdrawn should be converted to the officer's own use, or for the benefit and advantage of some person other than the association, and that this should be done with intent to injure and defraud the association. Ib.
 13. It is competent for a State by penal enactments to protect its citizens in their dealings with national-banking associations located within the State. State v. Fuller, 34 Conn., 280.
 14. An officer of a national-banking association can not be punished under State laws for embezzling the funds of the association. Commonwealth ex rel. Torrey v. Ketter, 92 Penn. St., 372; Commonwealth v. Felton, 101 Mass., 204.
 15. But where the offense committed by an officer is properly a larceny of the funds, and not an embezzlement, he may be indicted under a State law. Commonwealth v. Barry, 116 Mass., 1.
 16. And an officer may be punished under State laws for making false entries in the books of the association with intent to defraud it. Luberg v. Commonwealth, 94 Penn. St., 85.
 17. The officers of a national-banking association may be prosecuted under State statutes for fraudulent conversion of the property of individuals deposited with, and in the custody of, the association. Commonwealth v. Tenney, 97 Mass., 50; State v. Fuller, 34 Conn., 280.
 18. As the national-banking law makes the embezzlement, abstraction, or willful misapplication of the funds of a national-banking association merely a misdemeanor, a person who procures such an offense to be committed can not be punished under a State statute which provides that a person who procures a felony to be committed may be indicted and convicted of a substantive felony. Commonwealth v. Felton, 101 Mass., 204.
 19. The procuring by two or more directors of the declaration of a dividend at a time when there are no net profits to pay it, is not a willful misappropriation of money of bank within section 5204, Revised Statutes. United States v. Britton, 108 U. S., 199.
 20. It is not a willful misapplication of bank money by the president, under section 5209, for him to procure the discount by bank for his own benefit of an unsecured note on which both maker and indorser are insolvent to his knowledge. Ib., 193.
 21. Nor is president liable for a criminal violation of that section solely by reason of permitting a depositor who is largely indebted to bank to withdraw his deposits without first paying such indebtedness. Ib.
 22. It is not a conspiracy against United States, under section 5440, Revised Statutes, nor a willful misapplication of money of bank, under section 5209, for president and director of bank to cause shares of its stock to be purchased with its money and held on trust. Ib., 192.
 23. Purchase of stock in violation of section 5201, Revised Statutes, made with intent to defraud, and by officers named in section 5209, is not punishable under latter section. United States v. Britton, 107 U. S., 655.

DIRECTORS: See Officers.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY:

1. For services performed by the district attorney in bringing a suit against a national bank, and obtaining a forfeiture of its charter, he is not entitled to more than $10, the fees prescribed by section 824, there being no other law in the United States giving a compensation to a district attorney for such services. Bashaw v. United States, 47 Fed. Rep., 40.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY—Continued.

2. The 56th (now 153rd) section of the act providing that suits under it, in which officers of the United States are parties, shall be conducted by the district attorney of the district, is directory only. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 498.
3. District attorney can not recover compensation for services in conducting suit arising out of the provisions of the national-banking law in which the United States or any of its agents or officers are parties. Gibson v. Peters, Receiver, U. S. S. C., October, 1893.
4. The expenses of a receivership can not be held to include compensation of district attorney for conducting a suit in which the receiver is party, and he can not receive any compensation for services so rendered or offered to be rendered. Ib.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA:

After the act of June 30, 1876 (19 Stat., 63), savings banks organized in the District of Columbia under an act of Congress, and having a capital stock paid up in whole or in part, were entitled to become national banking associations in the mode prescribed by Revised Statutes, Sec. 5154. Keyser v. Hitz, 133 U. S., 138.

ESTOPPEL:

1. Where an officer of a bank loaned money for his individual benefit upon pretended collateral security of the bank, held, that his bank was estopped to deny the loan and is liable therefor, as the lender dealt with him solely in his official capacity. Stewart v. Armstrong, 56 Fed. Rep., 167.
2. Vice-president of bank, also manager of a commercial house, substituted as collateral, notes to order of his house, and indorsed by them without consideration. Held, that as against holders of collateral, the house was estopped to deny that these notes were properly pledged as security for a loan to his bank. Ib.
3. The estoppel upon his bank exists only in favor of lender. Hence, his house has no remedy against it for any liability enforced by the lender on account of its endorsed notes so pledged. Ib.
4. A shareholder who has held himself out to the world as such is estopped to deny that the association was legally incorporated. Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673; Wheelock v. Kost, 77 Ill., 296.
5. Where one sued by a national bank is accustomed to deal with it as such, and does so deal with it in respect to the matter in dispute, he is estopped from denying its incorporation. National Bank of Fairhaven v. The Phoenix Warehousing Company, 6 Hun., 71.
6. A person who received dividends on shares of stock standing in his name on the books of a national bank is estopped from denying his liability on the ground that he returned the same by check to an officer of the bank. He is presumed to be the owner of the stock when his name appears upon the books of the bank and the burden of proof is upon him to show that he is not in fact the owner. Finn v. Brown, 142 U. S., 56.
7. A shareholder against whom suit is brought to recover the assessment made upon him by the Comptroller will not be permitted to deny the existence of the association, or that it was legally incorporated. Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673.
8. A director is not, by reason of his position, estopped from setting up the defense of usury in an action brought against him by the association. Bank of Cadiz v. Stemons, 34 Ohio St., 142.
9. The legality of the appointment of the receiver can not be questioned by the debtors of the bank when sued by him. The bank may move to have the appointment set aside, but the debtors can not. Cadle v. Baker, 20 Wall., 650; Platt v. Beebe, 57 N. Y., 339.
10. Where a national-banking association has entered into a contract which it is not authorized to make, a party who has enjoyed the benefit of such contract can not question its validity. Casey v. La Société de Crédit Mobilier, 2 Woods, 77; German National Bank v. Meadowcroft, 95 Ill., 124.
11. Debtors of national banks, when sued by person whom Comptroller has appointed receiver under section 50, can not question the legality of his appointment. Cadle v. Baker, 20 Wall., 650.
12. Where officer of a bank guaranteed payment in name of bank and sold the note, the bank by retention and enjoyment of the proceeds is estopped to deny officer's act. People's Bank v. National Bank, 101 U. S., 181.
13. In such suit stockholder is estopped to deny existence or validity of corporation. Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673.

EVIDENCE :

1. The certificate of the Comptroller of the Currency that an association has complied with all the provisions required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking is admissible in evidence upon a plea of nil inel corporation; and such certificate, together with proof that the association has been acting as a national-banking association for a long time, is amply sufficient evidence to establish, at least prima facie, the existence of the corporation. Mix v. The National Bank of Bloomington, 91 Ill., 20; Merchants' National Bank of Bangor v. Glendon, 120 Mass., 97.
2. The certificate of the Comptroller that the association has complied with all the provisions of law touching the organization of associations removes any objection which might otherwise have been made to the evidence upon which he acted. Casey v. Galli, 94 U. S., 673; Thatcher v. West River National Bank, 10 Mich., 196.
3. And in a suit against the association or its shareholders such certificate of the Comptroller is conclusive as to the completeness of the organization. Casey v. Galli, supra.
4. A letter from the Comptroller directing the receiver to institute suit, if not objected to at the time, is sufficient evidence that the Comptroller has decided that the enforcement of the individual liability of the shareholders is necessary. Bowden v. Johnson, 107 U. S., 251.
5. A certificate signed by the Deputy Comptroller of the Currency as "Acting Comptroller of the Currency," is a sufficient certificate by the Comptroller of the Currency within the requirements of Revised Statutes, Sec. 5154. Aspinwall v. Butler, 133 U. S., 595.

EXECUTION :

A judgment against a national bank in the hands of a receiver only establishes the validity of the claim; the plaintiff can have no execution on such judgment, but must wait pro rata distribution. Bank of Bethel v. Paliquioque Bank, 14 Wall., 383.

FALSE ENTRIES :

1. The only remedy for the making of a false return to the auditor by the cashier of a bank, of the resources and liabilities of the bank for the purposes of taxation, is afforded by revised statutes of Ohio, section 2679, which provides that the auditor may examine the books of the bank, and any officer or agent of it under oath, and make out the statement; and any officer of the bank may be fined not exceeding $100 for failing to make the statement, or for willfully making a false one. Miller v. First National Bank, 21 N. E. Rep., 860.
2. Any entry on the books of the bank which is intentionally made to represent what is not true or what does not exist, with intent either to deceive its officers or defraud the association, is a false entry within the meaning of the statute. United States v. Harper, 33 Fed. Rep., 471.
3. It may be made personally or by direction. Ib.
4. The erasure of figures already written in the books of a national bank and the substitution of other figures which falsify the state of the account constitute a "false entry" within the meaning of section 5209, Revised Statutes, by which it is declared to be a misdemeanor to make "any false entry in any book, report, or statement of the association, with intent to injure or defraud," etc. United States v. Crocilius, 34 Fed. Rep., 30.
5. Where false entries are made by a clerk at the direction of the president, the latter is a principal. In the matter of Van Campen, 2 Ben., 419; United States v. Fish, 24 Fed. Rep., 535.
6. A report of condition of a national bank, whether called for by the Comptroller of the Currency or not, which is a report in the usual form made by an officer of the bank in his official capacity, if it contains a false entry made with intent to deceive, is within Revised Statutes, United States, section 5209, which declared such false entries to be a misdemeanor. United States v. Hughitt, 45 Fed. Rep., 47.
7. Where false entries were made by a bookkeeper in a statement requested by a national-bank examiner purporting to give the balance due to depositors, which statement it was the duty of the examiner to make and not the bookkeeper, an indictment for making "false entries in a statement of the association" will not be sustained. United States v. Ege, 49 Fed. Rep., 352.
8. In an indictment of an officer of a national bank under section 5209, Revised Statutes, United States, for making false entries in a report to the Comptroller of the Currency, it is no defense that such entries were made by a

- clerk and verified by the officer without actual knowledge of their truth, since it was his duty to inform himself. United States v. Allen, 47 Fed. Rep., 696.
9. A "false entry" in a report by a national-bank officer or a director to Comptroller of the Currency within the meaning of section 5209, is not merely an incorrect entry made through inadvertent negligence or mistake, but is an entry known to the maker to be untrue and incorrect and by him intentionally entered while so knowing its false and untrue character. United States v. Graves, 53 Fed. Rep., 634.
 10. In determining whether a certain false entry, made by a national-bank officer in a report to the Comptroller, was made with intent to deceive or defraud, etc., within the meaning of the statute, the jury are authorized to infer the intent if the natural and legitimate result of such false entry would be to deceive any other officer or officers of the bank or any agent appointed to examine into its affairs. Ib.
 11. In determining whether defendant made a "false entry" within the meaning of the statute, when he included in such report, as "Loans and discounts" of the bank, amounts which were being carried on the books of the bank as "overdrafts," the jury will not consider whether other national banks followed the same practice; but the jury, in determining whether such entry, if a "false entry," was made with intent to deceive and defraud, may consider whatever knowledge defendant is shown to have had as to practice of any other national bank in this respect. Ib.
 12. It is not necessary to complete the offense of making a "false entry" in a report to the Comptroller of the Treasury of the condition of a national bank, with intent to deceive or defraud, that any person shall have been in fact actually deceived or defrauded; for the making of such a "false entry" with the intent to deceive or defraud is sufficient. Ib.
 13. Under section 5209 of the national-bank act, it is an indictable offense to make a false entry in a report to the Comptroller of the Currency, or to aid and abet the making of such entry. United States v. French et al., 57 Fed. Rep., 382.
 14. It is not a "false entry" to enter under heading of "Loans and discounts," items which, on books of the bank, and for convenience of its officers, have been temporarily withdrawn from that heading, and which are, from day to day carried on books of the bank under heading of "Suspended loans" while awaiting action of directors as to same being withdrawn from character of loans and entered up as a loss on profit and loss account. United States v. Graves, 53 Fed. Rep., 634.

FORFEITURE OF CHARTER:

1. Under Revised Statutes, United States, section 5239, providing that if the directors of a national bank shall violate any of the provisions of the title relating to the organization and management of banks, the franchises of the bank shall be forfeited, such violation, however, to be determined by a proper court of the United States in a suit therefor by the Comptroller, and that in cases of such violation every director participating therein shall be personally liable for all damages which the bank, its shareholders, or any other person shall have sustained in consequence thereof, the Comptroller can not authorize the receiver to bring suit, under section 5234, to enforce such personal liability, until it has been adjudged by a proper court that such acts have been done as authorize a forfeiture of the charter. Wells v. Graves, 41 Fed. Rep., 459.
2. The right to maintain an action under Revised Statutes, United States, section 5239, to recover from a bank director the damages sustained by his bank in consequence of excessive loans made by him while serving in the capacity of director, is not affected by the fact that the Comptroller has or has not procured a forfeiture of the bank's charter. Stephens v. Overstolz, 43 Fed. Rep., 771.

GOVERNMENT SECURITIES:

National-banking associations can engage in the business of dealing in and exchanging Government securities. Van Leuwen v. First National Bank, 54 N. Y., 671; Yerkes v. National Bank of Port Jervis, 69 N. Y., 383; Leach v. Hale, 31 Iowa, 69.

GUARANTY:

guarantors when acted on by the guarantee though no notice of the acceptance of the guarantee was given, for the contract shows a personal interest of the guarantors in the advances constituting a consideration moving to them. Doud et. al. v. National Park Bank, 54 Fed. Rep., 846.

INCREASE OF CAPITAL STOCK:

1. National banks have no authority to increase their capital stock except as provided by Revised Statutes, section 5142, and act of Congress, May 1, 1886; and where an increase is attempted to be made without obtaining the consent of two-thirds of the stock, the payment in full of the amount of such increase, and the certificate and approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, as required by those statutes, the proceedings are invalid, and preliminary subscriptions to such increase can not be enforced. Armstrong v. Stanage et al., 37 Fed. Rep., 508.
2. Where one subscribes for shares in the increase of the capital of a national-banking association in a certain amount, such subscription and payment are upon the implied condition that the increase shall be in the exact amount so fixed; and if such amount is changed, the subscriber may avoid the subscription and recover the amount paid in. Eaton v. Pacific Bank, 144 Mass., 260.
3. And the certificate of the Comptroller of the Currency that the amount of the increase in another sum has been paid in, which amount includes what was paid by the dissenting subscriber, will not be conclusive upon such subscriber. Ib.
4. But if such subscriber has assented to or ratified the change he will be held a shareholder. Delano v. Butler, 118 U. S., 634.
5. When the previous proceedings looking to an increase in the capital stock of a national bank have been regular and all that are requisite, and a stockholder subscribes to his proportionate part of the increase and pays his subscription, the law does not attach to the subscription a condition that it is to be void if the whole increase authorized be not subscribed; although there may be cases in which equity would interfere to protect him in case of a material deficiency. Aspinwall v. Butler, 133 U. S., 595.
6. The Comptroller of the Currency has power by law to assent to an increase in the capital stock of a national bank less than that originally voted by the directors, but equal to the amount actually subscribed and paid for by the shareholders under that vote. Ib.
7. Where one subscribes for shares in an increase of capital stock of a national bank and pays for the same without waiting to see whether the whole amount of the increase is taken, he is bound by such subscription and payment, though the amount of the increase is afterward reduced by the bank and the Comptroller of the Currency. Butler v. Eaton, 141 U. S., 240.
8. The conditions imposed by Revised Statutes, Sec. 5142, to the validity of increase of national-bank capital were intended to secure actual cash payment of subscriptions and to prevent watering stock, not to invalidate bona fide subscriptions actually made and paid. Aspinwall v. Butler, 133 U. S., 595.
9. Stockholder in national bank who, with knowledge of its insolvent condition and of all material facts, subscribes for increased stock to same amount as his original stock, and amount of proposed increase is afterward reduced, can not question validity of proceedings for such increase to annul such subscription and payment. Delano v. Butler, 118 U. S., 634; Pacific National Bank v. Eaton, 141 ib., 227; Thayer v. Butler, ib., 234; Butler v. Eaton, ib., 240.

INDICTMENT:

1. An indictment charging defendants with aiding and abetting a director in a willful misapplication of the money of an association must state facts to show that there has been such misapplication committed by the director. United States v. Warner, 26 Fed. Rep., 616.
2. An indictment under act of July 12, 1882, amending section 5208, making it a misdemeanor to "certify any check" drawn by a person not then having on deposit sufficient money to meet same need not allege delivery of check by bank after certification. United States v. Potter, 56 Fed. Rep., 83.
3. When indictment alleges certification as accomplished, authentication will not be presumed as an essential part thereof, and hence it is unnecessary to allege absence of required credit or deposit at time of authentication. Ib.

INDICTMENT—Continued.

4. The indictment in charging in the language of section 5208 that the drawer of the check had not on deposit, at the time it was certified, "an amount of money equal to that specified" in the check is sufficient. Ib.
5. The indictment does not charge two offenses in the same count because it alleges therein that the check was certified "before the amount thereof had been entered to the credit of the drawer on the books of the bank," and also at a time when the drawer did not "have on deposit an amount of money equal to" the amount of the check. Ib.
6. An indictment against the president for "aiding and abetting" cashier in certifying check under prohibition can not be sustained. Ib.
7. An indictment charging directors of a national-banking association with making false entries in a report of condition to the Comptroller of the Currency can not be sustained under section 5209. Ib.
8. The use in an indictment, under section 5209, of the words "then and there" in alleging that the defendant was president or director of such bank and made alleged false entries, is not uncertain or repugnant merely because in one place they may refer to the whole of a day and in another to only one instant of the day. Ib.
9. The omission of the signs for dollars and cents in the recital of alleged false entries in reports and misnomer of reports are immaterial where reports are set out by their tenor in the indictment. Ib.
10. It is not necessary to allege specifically in such indictment that the reports were transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, or that they were published. Ib.
11. Allegations that the false entries were made with intent "to injure and defraud the said association and certain persons to the grand jurors unknown" are sufficient. Ib.
12. An indictment against the president of a national bank, under section 5209, for making false entries in the books of the bank, charging that it was done "with intent to defraud said association and certain persons to the grand jurors unknown" is sufficient so far as concerns the allegations of intent. United States v. Potter, 56 Fed. Rep., 97.
13. When indictment alleges that the false entries indicated that there was then in the paying teller's department of the bank certain amount in gold, legal tenders, and gold certificates, when in fact such amount was not there, it is not necessary that it should further allege that such amount was not then in other departments of the bank. Ib.
14. In addition to the entries themselves, the indictment need set out the context only when it so modifies the entries as to be in presumption of law a part of them. Ib.
15. The fact that the note teller's and paying teller's books, in which the president is charged with making the false entries are usually kept by those officers without interference by the president does not invalidate indictment thereon. Ib.
16. Counts charging false entries by the president in reports of condition of the bank, which allege that reports were made in conformity to the law and then set them out by their tenor are bad, for their failure to allege specifically that the reports were verified and attested by the cashier. Ib.
17. An indictment against the president of a national bank, alleging that he "unlawfully and willfully and with intent to injure and defraud the said association for the use, benefit, and advantage of himself, did misapply certain of the money and funds of the association which he * * * then and there with the intent aforesaid paid and caused to be paid" to certain persons named, was bad for failure to allege the fact that made such payment unlawful or criminal. United States v. Eno, 56 Fed. Rep., 218.
18. It is not essential that such indictment should allege that the acts charged were done without the knowledge and assent of the directors of the association. Ib.
19. Where the entry whose tenor is set forth contains the words "See schedule," it is not a valid objection to the indictment that these words are not explained. Ib.
20. It is sufficient if the indictment allege the substance of the reports in question without setting them out in full. Ib.
21. United States v. Work, 57 Fed. Rep., 391, was decided in accordance with United States v. French, 57 Fed. Rep., 382, and United States v. Potter, 56 Fed. Rep., 83 and 97.
22. An allegation in an indictment under this section that defendant "did make a certain false entry in a certain report of the association" will not be

INDICTMENT--Continued.

- construed to mean that the entry was made after the report was completed, and was, in fact, an alteration. United States v. French et al., 57 Fed. Rep., 332.
23. The preparation and completion of the report, the making of the false entry therein, its verification, attestation, and delivery to the Comptroller, may be considered as simultaneous, and there is no repugnance in failing to allege that any or all of these things occurred in consecutive order. Ib.
 24. Though the counts in an indictment under this section for aiding and abetting the cashier in making such false entries describe defendant as "being then and there a director" of the bank in question, it can not be held that they charge him in aiding and abetting in his official capacity. Ib.
 25. Counts in such indictment, which charge defendant with procuring and counseling the false entry before the fact, are valid, for such acts are covered by the clause of the section extending the penalty to anyone who "abets" an officer or agent in the acts prohibited. Ib.
 26. In indictment under Revised Statutes, Sec. 5209, for willfully misapplying the funds of a national bank, it is not necessary to charge that the funds had been previously intrusted to defendant; since such act may be done by an officer or agent of the association without his having previously received the funds into his manual possession. United States v. Northway, 120 U. S., 327.
 27. Indictment charging president of a bank with aiding and abetting its cashier in the misapplication of its funds, it is not necessary to aver that he then and there knew that the person so aided and abetted was the cashier.—Ib.
 28. A form of indictment which sufficiently describes and identifies the crime of abstracting the funds of a national bank created by Revised Statutes, Sec. 5209, and sufficiently states the character and capacity of the bank. Ib.
 29. Indictment against president for false entry on books held sufficient in form and averments. United States v. Britton, 107 U. S., 655.
 30. Indictment against president for fraudulent purchase of stock of the bank is bad if it fails to state for whose use purchase was made, or if it states that it was for use of the bank, or if it does not aver that it was not made to prevent loss on previous debt. Ib.
 31. Indictment for perjury against officer for false statement under section 5211, Revised Statutes, is bad if, prior to act of 1881, chapter 32, his oath verifying report was taken before notary appointed by a State. United States v. Curtis, 107 U. S., 671.

INJUNCTION:

- Sec. 5242 Revised Statutes, providing that no injunctions shall issue from a State court against a national bank before final judgment, does not deprive the Federal court of power to issue such injunction or to continue after removal of the case an injunction previously granted by a State court. Hower v. Weiss Malting and Elevator Co. et. al., 55 Fed. Rep., 356.

INSOLVENT BANKS: See Shareholders; Set-off; Receiver; Preferred claims.

1. National-banking associations were not subject to the bankrupt act while that act was in force. In re Manufacturers' National Bank, 5 Biss., 499.
2. The term "insolvency," as used in section 5242, Revised Statutes, forbidding transfer of the assets of national-banking associations after, or in contemplation of, such insolvency, has the same meaning as it had when applied to traders in the bankrupt act; that is, it does not mean an absolute inability of a debtor to pay his debt at some future time, upon a settlement and winding up of his affairs, but a present inability to pay in the ordinary course of business. Case v. Citizens' Bank of Louisiana, 2 Woods, 23; Market Bank v. Pacific National Bank, 30 Hun., 50.
3. It is not necessary that the facts upon which the Comptroller bases his action in appointing a receiver should be established by what is competent legal evidence; but he is left to be satisfied as best he can be, under the peculiar circumstances of each case, of the facts and the necessity for the exercise of his authority. Platt v. Beebe, 57 N. Y., 330.
4. A return of nulla bona upon an execution issued against the property of a national bank is proof of its insolvency. Whealock v. Kost, 77 Ill., 296.
5. The creditors of an insolvent association must seek their remedy through the Comptroller, in the mode prescribed by the statute; they can not proceed

- directly in their own names against stockholders or the debtors of the bank. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 498.
6. The creditors of an insolvent national-banking association in the hands of a receiver are entitled to interest on their claims during the period of administration. National Bank of Commonwealth v. Mechanics' National Bank, 94 U. S., 437; Chemical National Bank v. Bailey, 12 Blatch., 480; White v. Knox, 111 U. S., 784.
 7. Where a national bank has leased a banking house for a long term of years, and subsequently becomes insolvent, but during the time it continued business had not defaulted in paying the rent, the lessor has no claim against the receiver by reason of the insolvency or dissolution of the corporation or the forfeiture of its franchises, or by the refusal of the receiver to take under the contract and pay the rent. Fidelity Safe Deposit and Trust Co. v. Armstrong, 35 Fed. Rep., 567.
 8. A subscriber who has made payments on his subscription to the proposed increase, believing that the statutory requirements would be complied with, is entitled to have the amount thereof allowed as a claim against the assets of the bank in the receiver's hands. Armstrong v. Stange, 37 Fed. Rep., 568.
 9. Revised Statutes, United States, sections 5234 and 5239, prescribing the method of enforcing the liability of the directors of national banks for violation of the banking law, are exclusive of other remedies, and a creditor of an insolvent bank for which a receiver has been appointed, can not sue its directors for the purpose of making them personally liable for the mismanagement of the bank. National Exchange Bank v. Peters et al., 44 Fed. Rep., 15.
 10. Bank property attached by individual creditor after bank is insolvent can not be sold to pay his demand against the claim of a receiver subsequently appointed. National Bank v. Colby, 21 Wall., 609.
 11. Depositor, when bank suspends payment and receiver is appointed, is entitled from date of his demand to interest on his deposit. National Bank v. Mechanics' National Bank, 94 U. S., 437.
 12. It does not lose its corporate existence by mere default in paying its notes and the appointment of a receiver. Ib.; Bank of Bethel v. Pahquioque Bank, 14 Wall., 383.
 13. Such associations may be sued, though a receiver has been appointed and is administering its concerns. Ib.
 14. If failed bank was indebted to its subagent and the collections were entered in their books as a credit to such indebtedness, they were thereby reduced to possession and passed into the general funds of the failed bank. Commercial National Bank v. Armstrong, 148 U. S., 50.
 15. By the terms of an arrangement for the failed bank to remit the 1st, 11th, and 21st of each month, the relations of debtor and creditor were created when the collections were fully made, the funds being on general deposit with the failed bank with the right in that bank to their use until the time of remittance should arrive. Ib.
 16. Where a check of a depositor is accepted by a correspondent bank in payment of a draft for collection, which charges the same to the drawee and credits the drawer without separating the amount from its general funds, it holds the money as agent for the drawer, who, after insolvency, becomes a mere general creditor, notwithstanding the State constitution proves that "depositors who have not stipulated for interest shall for such deposits be entitled in case of insolvency to preference of claimant over all other creditors." Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association v. Clayton, 56 Fed. Rep., 759.
 17. Sureties on indebtedness of insolvent bank are not entitled to prove any claim against it by reason of the enforcement of their liability as such. Stewart v. Armstrong, 56 Fed. Rep., 167.
 18. A creditor of an insolvent national bank, who establishes his debt by suit and judgment after refusal of Comptroller to allow it, is entitled to share in dividends on debt and interest so established as of day of failure of bank, not for subsequent interest. White v. Knox, 111 U. S., 784.
 19. The personal property of an insolvent bank in hands of a receiver is exempt from State taxation. Rosenblatt v. Johnston, 104 U. S., 462.
 20. When a creditor of a national bank is entitled to interest on the amount of his dividend from the time it was declared by a receiver of the bank. Armstrong v. American Exchange National Bank, 133 U. S., 433.

22. What motive is sufficient under Revised Statutes, Sec. 5242, to invalidate a transfer by a national bank. Ib.
23. In estimating the dividends to be paid out of the assets of an insolvent association, the value of the claims at the time when the insolvency is declared is to be taken as the basis of distribution. White v. Knox, 111 U. S., 784.

INTEREST: See Usury; Insolvent banks.

1. The provision in section 30 of the act of 1864 "that where, by the law of any State, a different rate is limited for banks of issue organized under State laws, the rate so limited shall be allowed for associations organized in any such State under the act," is enabling, and not restrictive; and, therefore, a national-banking association in any State may stipulate for as high a rate of interest as by the laws of such State a natural person may, although State banks of issue are restricted to a less rate. Tiffany v. National Bank of the State of Missouri, 18 Wall., 409.
2. But it is not to be inferred from Tiffany v. National Bank of Missouri that whatever by the laws of the State is lawful for natural persons in acquiring title to negotiable paper by discount is lawful for national banks. National Bank v. Johnson, 104 U. S., 271.
3. The interest which a national-banking association may charge is limited to the rate allowed to the banks of the State generally; and the fact that a few of the State banks are specially authorized to take a higher rate is not a warrant for a national-banking association to do so. Duncan v. First National Bank of Mount Pleasant, 11 Bank Mag., 787; Gruber v. First National Bank, 87 Penn. St., 468.
4. Where the State law does not limit the rate of interest which may be charged on loans to corporations, a national-banking association located in that State can not charge more than 7 per cent interest on such loans. In re Wild, 11 Blatch., 243.
5. Where by the statutes of the State parties are authorized to contract for any rate of interest, national-banking associations in that State may likewise contract for any rate, and are not limited to 7 per cent. Hinds v. Marmeleje, 60 Cal., 229; National Bank v. Bruhn, 64 Texas, 571.
6. Bank may take the rate of interest allowed by the State to natural persons generally, and a higher rate where State banks of issue can take it. Tiffany v. National Bank of Missouri, supra.
7. May charge rate of interest allowed to natural persons in the State or Territory where bank is located, but can not take more, even on discount of paper for third party, without it being usury. National Bank v. Johnson, supra.

JURISDICTION: See Actions.

1. The tenth subdivision of section 629, Revised Statutes, which confers upon the circuit court of the United States jurisdiction of all suits by or against any national-banking association established in the district for which the court is held, has been repealed by the proviso to section 4 of the act of July 12, 1882. National Bank of Jefferson v. Fare et al., 25 Fed. Rep., 200.
2. The object of this proviso was to deprive the United States courts of jurisdiction of suits by or against national-banking associations in all cases where banks organized under State laws could not likewise sue or be sued in such courts. Ib.
3. But the proviso does not affect the right of the receiver of an insolvent association to sue in a Federal court. Hendee v. Connecticut and P. R. R. Co., 26 Fed. Rep., 677.
4. Nor would the act of July 12, 1882, take from the circuit court jurisdiction of a suit brought against a director for negligent performance of his duties; for, as such suits rest upon the requirements of the United States laws and by-laws made pursuant thereto, it is a case arising under the laws of the United States. Witters v. Foster, 28 Fed. Rep., 737.
5. In an action against a national bank in a circuit court of the United States, if all the parties are citizens of the district in which the bank is situated, and the action does not come under section 5209 or section 5239 of the Revised Statutes, the circuit court has no jurisdiction. Whittemore v. Amoskeag National Bank, 134 U. S., 527.
6. The Federal courts have jurisdiction of an action between a national bank located in one State and a citizen of another State. First National Bank v. Forest, 40 Fed. Rep., 705.
7. An action between a receiver of an insolvent national bank and a depositor does not present a Federal question under Revised Statutes of the United - States, section 5242, avoiding preferences to creditors of such an insolvent bank. Tehan v. First National Bank et al., 39 Fed. Rep., 577.

8. A receiver of an insolvent national bank is an officer of the United States within the meaning of section 563, Revised Statutes of the United States, which gives the district courts jurisdiction of "all suits at common law brought by the United States, or any officer thereof authorized by law to sue." Stephens v. Bernays, 41 Fed. Rep., 401.
 9. State courts have jurisdiction of suits by and against national banking associations. Bank of Bethel v. Pahquioque Bank, 14 Wall., 383; Orday v. Central National Bank, 47 Md., 217 and Claffin v. Houseman 93 U. S., 130.
 10. Where a national banking association is sued in a State court, the suit must be brought in the city or county in which the bank is located. Cadle v. Tracey, 11 Blatch., 101.
 11. The United States district court has jurisdiction of an action at law brought by the receiver of a national bank to recover an assessment made upon a stockholder, and the action may be maintained, in such event against the executor of a deceased stockholder. Stephens v. Bernays, supra.
 12. But in a State where the holder may sue without respect to the ownership an association may bring suit upon paper so acquired. National Pemberton Bank v. Porter, 125 Mass., 333; Atlas National Bank v. Savery, 127 Mass., 75.
 13. But in Talmage v. Third National Bank, 27 Hun., 61, the supreme court of New York said: "The words of restriction to the place where said 'association is situated' apply to the county and municipal courts, and not to the State courts. In the State courts of general jurisdiction a national-banking association can be sued whenever an individual can be for the same cause."
 14. A State court can entertain an action brought to recover of a national-banking association the penalty for taking usury. Orday v. The Central National Bank, 47 Md., 217; Hade v. McVay, 31 Ohio St., 231; Bletz v. Columbia National Bank, 87 Penn. St., 87.
 15. The State courts have jurisdiction of an action brought by a shareholder on behalf of himself and other shareholders to recover of the directors of an insolvent association damages for injuries resulting from their negligence and misconduct. Brinckerhoff v. Bostwick, 88 N. Y., 52.
 16. A State court has no power to make an order directing the receiver of a national bank, who has been appointed by the Comptroller of the Currency, to pay a judgment obtained against the bank before the receiver was appointed. Ocean National Bank v. Carll, 7 Hun, 237.
 17. State courts have no jurisdiction of the case of an embezzlement of the funds of the association by one of its officers. Commonwealth v. Felton, 101 Mass., 204; Commonwealth ex rel. Torrey v. Ketner, 92 Penn. St., 372.
 18. The defense of usury may be set up in action brought in a State court. National Bank of Winterset v. Eyre, 52 Iowa, 114.
 19. Neither the Comptroller nor the receiver by putting in an appearance to a suit can subject the United States to the jurisdiction of a court. Case v. Terrell, 11 Wall., 199.
 20. A national-banking association is for jurisdictional purposes a citizen of the State in which it is located. Davis v. Cook, 9 Nev., 134.
 21. The offense of making false entries in the books of a bank, for which an officer of the bank is liable to punishment, under section 5209, since it is not a crime of which the State courts have concurrent jurisdiction, under section 5328, is exclusively cognizable by the Federal courts. In re Eno, 54 Fed. Rep., 69.
 22. Under the provisions of the act of August 13, 1888, national banks are deemed to be, for jurisdictional purposes, citizens of the State wherein they are located and they no longer possess the right of removal on the ground that they are Federal corporations. Burnham et al. v. First National Bank of Leoti, 53 Fed. Rep., 163.
 23. When the citizenship is diverse and plaintiff is a resident of the district it is not necessary that he shall also reside in the particular division of the district in which the suit is brought, that a creditor's bill may be maintained in a Federal court upon a judgment procured in a different State court from the State in which the Federal court sits. Merchants' National Bank et al. v. Chattanooga Construction Co., 53 Fed. Rep., 314.
 24. The Federal courts have jurisdiction of suits by receivers of national banks to collect the assets thereof without regard to the citizenship of the plaintiff. Fisher v. Yoder, 53 Fed. Rep., 565.
 25. An action for money against a national bank whose corporate existence is admitted is not a suit arising under the laws of the United States. Ulster County Savings Institution v. Fourth National Bank, 8 N. Y., 162.

JURISDICTION—Continued.

26. The provision that the Federal courts shall not have jurisdiction of an action on a promissory note or other chose in action by an assignee thereof, unless the action might have been maintained in such courts if no assignment or transfer had been made (act August 13, 1888), does not apply to the indorsement and transfer of the payee of notes which were made to him merely that he might as agent of the maker raise money for it by negotiating them with third persons. Wachusett National Bank v. Sioux City Stove Works, 56 Fed. Rep., 321.
27. If the citizenship of original payee of promissory note is material to jurisdiction of an action by indorsee against maker, plaintiff must affirmatively plead it. United States National Bank v. McNair, 56 Fed. Rep., 323.
28. A suit on the official bond of the cashier of a national bank, conditioned for a faithful performance of the duties thereof, "according to law and the by-laws" of the bank, involves a Federal question and is maintainable in a Federal court irrespective of the citizenship of the parties. Walker et al. v. Windsor National Bank, 56 Fed. Rep., 76.
29. In a suit which is properly brought in a Federal court, because it involves a Federal question, the court has full jurisdiction of the defendant, who, though a resident of another district, waives his personal privilege of being sued in his district by voluntarily appearing. Ib.
30. A citizen of New York brought suit in the circuit court of North Carolina against a citizen of North Carolina on promissory note to cashier of national bank, which was also located there. Note had been indorsed to plaintiff. After indorsement a receiver had been appointed for the bank. Held, that the receiver would have been an assignee of the note although the assignment was brought about by operation of law, and that as bank could not have sued in circuit court neither could the receiver nor the plaintiff, as the court had no jurisdiction. Ib.
31. Under the above statute assignee can not maintain a suit on a promissory note unless the original payee could have prosecuted it. Ib.
32. The exemption of national banks from suits in State courts in other than their own county or city, by act of February 18, 1875 (18 Stat., 316, chap. 80), was a personal privilege which could be waived by appearing to such suit and not claiming the immunity. First National Bank v. Morgan, 132 U. S., 141.
33. The provision in act of July 12, 1882 (22 Stat., 163, chap. 290, sec. 4), respecting suits by or against national banks, refers only to suits brought after the passage of that act. Ib.
34. This court has jurisdiction to review a judgment in State courts involving the question whether a national bank is exempted from liability to account for bonds purchased by it on condition of selling back on demand. Logan Bank v. Townsend, 139 U. S., 67.
35. When transaction of transfer of national bank shares does not present a case arising under national-banking act, and so involving a Federal question. Le Sasser v. Kennedy, 123 U. S., 521.

LENDING CREDIT:

1. A national-banking association can not lend its credit. Johnson v. Charlottesville National Bank, 3 Hughes, 657; Seligman v. Charlottesville National Bank, 3 Hughes, 647; National Bank of Commerce v. Atkinson, 55 Fed. Rep., 465.
2. A national banking association can not take a pledge of its stock to secure a deposit made by it with another bank. Such a transaction amounts to a lending upon the security of its own shares. Bank v. Lanier, 11 Wall., 369.
3. Though a bank is prohibited from lending money upon the security of its own shares, yet, if the shares have been sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of the debt, the courts will not aid the shareholder to recover the value of the shares. He can dispute the validity of the transaction only while the contract is executory, and the security still subsists in the possession of the bank. National Bank of Xenia v. Stewart, 107 U. S., 676.

LIABILITY: See Officers; Shareholders.

1. And where an association receives United States bonds of one class for the purpose of having them converted into bonds of another class, it is not a mere mandatory, but is responsible for the failure to deliver the bonds on demand. Leach v. Hale, 31 Iowa, 69.
2. Where a national-banking association has taken collaterals to secure a loan, and, after the loan has been repaid, holds them to secure future advances, it is not a gratuitous bailee; and it is responsible for the loss of such collaterals occasioned by its lack of ordinary care and diligence, though at the time the bailor was not indebted to it. Third National Bank of Baltimore v. Boyd, 44 Md., 47.

3. A bank receiving a certificate of deposit for collection, and mailing it to the drawer with a request for a remittance, is guilty of negligence. First National Bank of Evansville v. Fourth National Bank of Louisville, 56 Fed. Rep., 967.
4. A bank is charged with notice of letters duly mailed to it and received by the general bookkeeper, whose duty it is to open and distribute mail matter, although he conceals such letters to hide certain irregularities in his office, and thereby prevents their coming into the hands of the other bank officers. Ib.
5. The E. bank, on May 8, 1888, mailed to the L. bank for collection a certificate of deposit issued by P. & Co., which, the next day, negligently mailed it to P. & Co. with request to remit. On June 1 the L. bank credited the E. bank with the item in account current for May, and wrote that nothing had been heard from P. & Co. On June 22 the L. bank wrote that repeated letters about the item had remained unanswered. The L. bank now charged the E. bank with the item. No further correspondence ensued. P. & Co. continued in good credit until after January 1, 1889, when they failed. Held, That the L. bank was not responsible for more than nominal damages. Ib.
6. Where bank acquires title to real estate by conveyance from its president who held same under deed reciting full payment of purchase money, and bank has no actual knowledge that purchase money was not in fact paid, it is an innocent purchaser without notice, and is not chargeable with constructive notice because of the knowledge of its president. First National Bank of Sheffield et al. v. Tompkins, 57 Fed. Rep., 20.
7. Where grantor states to director of bank that he is willing to convey a half interest in certain land to the bank's president, with the understanding that such president was to deed the whole interest to the bank, and the president of the bank was to pay him by giving him credit upon notes then running against him in the bank. Held, Not to amount to notice to the director that the grantor intends to retain a vendor's lien, but rather imports a notice that no such lien is to be retained. Ib.
8. If a cashier, without authority to buy coin in behalf of his bank, does so buy it, and it goes into the funds of the bank, it is liable. Merchants' Bank v. State Bank, 10 Wall., 604.
9. National bank is liable for damages occasioned by the loss through gross negligence of a special deposit made in it with knowledge and acquiescence of its officers and directors. National Bank v. Graham, 100 U. S., 639.

LIEN: See Preferred claims.

1. An association has equitable lien upon dividends declared for any just debt due to it from the shareholders. Hager v. Union National Bank, 63 Me., 509.
2. But a creditor will not have a lien upon the funds of the association because checks given in settlement of balances were fraudulent, and were given at a time when the bank was hopelessly insolvent and its officers were contemplating flight. Citizens' National Bank v. Dowd, 35 Fed. Rep., 340.
3. Bank can not acquire a lien on its own stock held by its debtors, even if its by-laws are framed with that intention. Bullard v. Bank, 18 Wall., 589.
4. Loans by bank to stockholder do not give lien to bank on his stock. Ib.; Bank v. Lanier, 11 Wall., 369.

LIQUIDATION:

1. A national bank may go into voluntary liquidation and be closed by a vote of two-thirds of its shareholders, although contrary to the wishes and against the interest of the remainder. Watkins v. National Bank of Lawrence, 32 Pac. Rep., 914.
2. A national bank which has gone into voluntary liquidation will continue to exist as a body corporate for the purpose of suing and being sued until its affairs are completely settled. National Bank v. Insurance Company, 104 U. S., 54; Orday v. Central National Bank, 47 Md., 217.
3. After an association goes into liquidation there is no authority on the part of its officers to transact any business in its name so as to bind its shareholders, except that which is implied in the duty of liquidation, unless such authority has been expressly conferred by the shareholders. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27.

LIQUIDATION—Continued.

4. The Comptroller may appoint a receiver for a bank that has voted to go into voluntary liquidation. Washington National Bank of Tacoma v. Eckels, Fed. Rep., 1893.
5. Where a bank has gone into voluntary liquidation, and the Comptroller has no power to appoint a receiver, a proper court, in a case where such action is necessary to protect the interests of a creditor, will appoint a receiver for it. Irons v. Manufacturers' National Bank, 6 Biss., 301.
6. Where a national bank is insolvent and in process of voluntary liquidation, and its affairs are being greatly mismanaged by its managing agents, to the injury of its creditors and stockholders, and some of the creditors and stockholders are being favored to the injury of others, a receiver may be appointed in such a case, even where the bank only has been made a defendant. Elwood v. First National Bank, 21 Kans., 673.
7. Where after an association has gone into liquidation a receiver is appointed at the instance of the creditors, the expenses of such receivership must be paid by the creditors. The shareholders can not be made individually liable for such expenses. Richmond v. Irons, supra.
8. In case of book accounts in favor of depositors, interest begins to run against an association in liquidation from the date of the suspension of business. Ib.
9. Without express authority from the shareholders in a national bank its officers, after the bank goes into liquidation, can only bind them by acts implied by the duty of liquidation. Ib.
10. Creditors of national bank who, after it suspends payment and goes into voluntary liquidation, receive in settlement of their claims bills receivable, indorsed or guaranteed in the name of the bank by its president, can not claim as creditors against the shareholders, as the original debt is paid. Ib.

LOANS:

1. Sec. 5200, Revised Statutes, which provides that the total liabilities to any association of any person, etc., shall not exceed one-tenth part of the capital stock paid in, was intended only for the guidance of the association, and, though its franchises may be liable to forfeiture for violation of the law, the association may recover of the borrower the full amount of the loan. Gold Mining Company v. Rocky Mountain National Bank, 96 U. S., 640; O'Hare v. Second National Bank of Titusville, 77 Penn. St., 96; Shoemaker v. The National Mechanics' Bank, 2 Abb., U. S., 416; Stewart v. National Union Bank of Maryland, 2 Abb., U. S., 424.
2. A note is not illegal because at the time it was discounted by the association the maker was indebted to the association in a sum equal to more than one-tenth part of its capital. O'Hare v. Second National Bank of Titusville, supra.
3. And a court of equity will not enjoin an association, at the instance of the borrower, from transferring to innocent third persons notes and securities, on the ground that the notes represent part of a loan made in excess of 10 per cent of the capital of the association. Elder v. First National Bank of Ottawa, 12 Kans., 238.
4. Where a State bank makes a loan to one person of an amount in excess of one-tenth part of its capital, and is afterward converted into a national bank, it may, after conversion, extend the time for payment of such loan without violating section 5200, Revised Statutes. Allen v. The First National Bank of Xenia, 23 Ohio St., 97.
5. Defendant sued by national bank for moneys it loaned him can not set up as bar that they exceed one-tenth of capital paid in. Gold Mining Co. v. National Bank, supra.
6. Placing by one bank of its funds on permanent deposit with another is a loan within this enactment. Bank v. Lanier, 11 Wall., 369.

MANDAMUS:

The writ of mandamus can not issue in a case where its effect is to direct or control the head of an executive department in the discharge of an executive duty, involving the exercise of judgment or discretion. United States ex rel. Boynton v. Blaine, 139 U. S., 306.

MARRIED WOMEN:

A national-banking association may take as security for a loan the indorsement of a married woman, charging her separate estate. Such security is to be treated as personal security, within the meaning of the banking law, and not as a mortgage. Third National Bank v. Blake, 73 N. Y., 200.

MORTGAGE: See Real estate.

1. National-banking associations are by implication prohibited from taking mortgages on real estate as security for contemporaneous loans. National Bank v. Matthews, 98 U. S., 621; Fowler v. Scully, 72 Penn. St., 456; Kansas Valley National Bank v. Rowell, 2 Dill., 271; Commonwealth Bank v. Clark, 4 Mo., 59; Crocker v. Whitney, 71 N. Y., 161; Fridley v. Bowen, 87 Ill., 151.
2. But where such security has been taken, no one but the Government can be heard to complain that the association has exceeded its powers. National Bank v. Matthews, supra; National Bank v. Whitney, 103 U. S., 99; Swope v. Leffingwell, 105 U. S., 3; Reynolds v. National Bank, 112 U. S., 405; Fortier v. National Bank, 112 U. S., 439.
3. Where a national banking association sells real estate it may take a mortgage thereon to secure the payment of the purchase money. New Orleans National Bank v. Raymond, 29 La. Ann., 355.
4. An agreement by a national-banking association to the effect that, in case a note discounted by it shall not be paid, a mortgage given by the maker to his indorser shall inure to the benefit of the association, is not inhibited by the national-banking law. First National Bank v. Haire, 36 Iowa, 443; National Bank v. Matthews, supra.
5. A national bank may loan on security of a mortgage if not objected to by the United States. National Bank v. Matthews, ib; National Bank v. Whitney, supra; Fortier v. New Orleans National Bank, supra.

NEGOTIABLE PAPER:

The president and secretary of a corporation are presumed to have authority to execute a promissory note in the name of the corporation, and the holder of such note will not be affected by the fact that such authority did not exist unless he is shown to have had notice thereof. American Exchange National Bank v. Oregon Pottery Co., 55 Fed. Rep., 265.

OATH OF DIRECTOR:

1. The directors of a bank at the time of its conversion into a national-banking association are not required to take the oath of directors. Lockwood v. American National Bank, 9 R. I., 308.
2. Prior to the act of February 26, 1881, a notary public holding his commission under a State had no authority to administer the oath required by section 5211, Revised Statutes; and therefore a cashier who made oath before such notary to a false statement of the condition of his association was not guilty of perjury. United States v. Curtis, 107 U. S., 671.

OFFICERS:

1. Directors of national-banking associations may remove the president, both under the law of Congress and the articles of association, where the latter so provide. The power exists, though the association has adopted no by-laws. Taylor v. Hutton, 43 Barb., 195.
2. The officers of a national-banking association can hold their positions only by the tenure specified in section 5136, Revised Statutes, viz, the pleasure of the board of directors. Harrington v. First National Bank of Chittenango, Thomp. N. B. Cas. 761; Taylor v. Hutton, supra.
3. The executive officers of an association can not bind it as a gratuitous bailee, unless they have a special authority from the board of directors so to do, or there exists a general custom or usage to that effect. First National Bank of Lyons v. Ocean National Bank, 60 N. Y., 278.
4. The personal liability of directors of a national bank for violation of Revised Statutes, United States, section 5204, by declaring dividends in excess of net profits, and of section 5200, for loaning to separate persons, firms, or corporations amounts exceeding one-tenth of the capital stock can not be enforced in an action at law. Welles v. Graves, 41 Fed. Rep., 459.
5. The election of an individual as a director does not constitute him an agent of the corporation with authority to act separately and independently of his fellow members. It is the board duly convened and acting as a unit that is made the representative of the association. The assent or determination of the members of the board acting separately and individually is not the assent of the corporation. The law proceeds upon the theory that the directors shall meet and counsel with each other, and that any determination affecting the association shall be arrived at and expressed only after a consultation at a meeting of the board, attended by at least a majority of its members. National Bank v. Drake 35 Kans., 564.
6. An officer may, in the ordinary course of business, borrow money of the association. Blair v. First National Bank of Mansfield, 10 Chicago Legal News, 84.

OFFICERS—Continued.

7. All directors who participate in and assent to a loan in excess of one-tenth of the capital of the bank, in violation of section 5200, Revised Statutes, will be liable to the bank for all damages sustained by it in consequence of such loan. Witters v. Sowles, 31 Fed. Rep., 1.
8. If a cashier, without authority from the directors so to do, makes a loan in excess of one-tenth of the capital of the association, he will be liable, in case of loss, for the amount of the excess. Second National Bank of Oswego v. Burt, 93 N. Y., 233.
9. The directors of a national bank will not be held liable for loss occasioned to the bank through the frauds of a codirector in which they had no part, and which were perpetrated without their connivance or knowledge. It is not sufficient to charge them with liability that the frauds might have been prevented by the exercise on their part of a proper degree of supervision over the affairs of the bank. Morius v. Lee, 30 Fed. Rep., 298.
10. But directors of a national bank must exercise ordinary care and prudence in the administration of the affairs of the bank, and this includes something more than officiating as figureheads; they are entitled under the law to commit the banking business as defined to the duly authorized officers, but this does not absolve them from the duty of reasonable supervision nor ought they to be permitted to be shielded from liability because of want of knowledge of wrongdoing if that ignorance is the result of gross inattention. Briggs v. Spaulding, 141 U. S., 131.
11. Directors of a national bank are "officers" within the meaning of Revised Statutes, United States, section 5209, which makes it a misdemeanor for bank officers to make false entries in any book, report, or statement of the bank, with intent to deceive any of its officers. United States v. Means et al., 42 Fed. Rep., 599.
12. The president of a national bank has no power inherent in his office to bind the bank on the execution of a note in its name, but power to do so may be conferred on him by the board of directors, either expressly by resolution to that effect, or by subsequent ratification, or by acquiescence in transactions of a similar nature of which the directors have notice. National Bank of Commerce v. Atkinson, 55 Fed. Rep., 465.
13. If a president of a bank exercised the functions of a cashier, and was the sole managing officer of the bank, he had authority to borrow money for the use of the bank in the regular course of its business. Simons et al. v. Fisher, 55 Fed. Rep., 905.
14. Under section 5136 of the national-bank act, the cashier of a national bank has no power to bind it to pay the draft of a third person on one of its customers to be drawn at a future day, when it expects to have a deposit from him sufficient to cover it, and no action lies against the bank for its refusal to pay such a draft. Flannagan et al. v. California National Bank et al., 56 Fed. Rep., 359.
15. Persons elected directors of bank about which there is no suspicion of anything wrong, but which became bankrupt in ninety days, are not personally responsible, because they did not institute an investigation. Briggs v. Spaulding, 141 U. S., 132.
16. Duties of directors as to supervision over affairs of bank considered. Ib.
17. If director is seriously ill, the others may give him leave of absence for a year, and if frauds are committed while he is absent, and without his knowledge, he is not responsible. Ib.
18. Director is not precluded from resignation within the year by section 5145, Revised Statutes, providing that he shall hold office for one year, and until successor is elected. Ib.
19. It is within scope of general authority of cashier to receive offers for purchase of securities held by the bank, and to state whether or not bank owns securities in its possession. Xenia Bank v. Stewart et al., 114 U. S., 224.

PLACE OF BUSINESS:

1. The provisions requiring "the usual business" of the association to be transacted "at an office or banking house in the place specified in its organization certificate" must be construed reasonably; and a part of the legitimate business of the association which can not be transacted at the banking house may be done elsewhere. Merchants' Bank v. State Bank, 10 Wall., 604.
2. Although the general business of a national-banking association is to be transacted at its place of business, yet if the association is fully advised of the facts, and does not object, and there is no fraud, its officers, when acting within the general scope of their authority, may bind it by acts done at another place. Burton v. Burley, 9 Biss., 253.

POST-NOTES:

1. A certificate of deposit, endorsed by payee, is not in violation of section 5183 Revised Statutes which forbids national banks to issue any other notes to circulate as money than such as are authorized by the provisions of the statute. In re Hunt, 141 Mass., 515.
2. Certificates of deposit in the ordinary form, issued by a national bank to depositors and payable to order, are not post-notes within the prohibition of section 5183 Revised Statutes. Riddle v. First National Bank of Butler, 27 Fed. Rep., 503.

POWERS:

1. To the enumerated powers of national-banking associations are to be super-added all the powers incidental to the business of banking. Pattison v. Syracuse National Bank, 80 N. Y., 82.
2. A national bank may buy a check drawn upon another bank; and whether the check is payable to order or to bearer is immaterial. First National Bank of Rochester v. Harris, 108 Mass., 514.
3. A national-banking association, in the compromise of a claim growing out of its legitimate business, may take railroad stock. First National Bank of Charlotte v. National Exchange Bank of Baltimore, 92 U. S., 122.
4. And when necessary to do so, it may pay the difference between the value of the stock and the amount of the claim. Ib.
5. A national-banking association may take and hold the coupons of municipal bonds, and may maintain actions thereon. First National Bank of North Bennington v. Town of Bennington, Brown's N. B. Cas., 437; Lyons v. Lyons National Bank, 19 Blatch., 279.
6. A national-banking association may receive a deposit to be held by it as security for the faithful performance of a contract between the depositor and another. Bushnell v. The Chautauqua County National Bank, 10 Hun, 378.
7. Whatever the terms of an arrangement being made before the date of the drawee bank's certificate of authorization, it is invalid under Revised Statutes, section 5136, providing that no banking association "shall transact any business except such as is incidental and necessarily preliminary to its organization, until it has been authorized by the Comptroller of the Currency to commence the business of banking." Armstrong v. National Bank of Springfield, 33 Fed. Rep., 883.
8. Where an association has made or ratified a contract to give a person a certain number of the shares of its stock, upon condition that he will continue to do his business with it, and derives the benefit from this contract, the other party may recover of the association the value of the shares. Rich v. State National Bank of Lincoln, 7 Nebr., 221.
9. As the national-currency act of 1864 authorizes banks created under it to buy and sell coin, such bank, having coin in pledge, may sell and assign its special property therein. Merchants' Bank v. State Bank, 10 Wall., 604.
10. The clause requiring the usual business of the bank to be done at an office or banking house in the place selected does not prevent its purchase of coin at the banking house of another bank. Ib.
11. In adjusting and compromising claims growing out of a legitimate banking transaction, it may take stock of other corporations with a view to selling them at a profit. First National Bank v. National Exchange Bank, 92 U. S., 122.
12. A national bank is not prohibited by law from guaranteeing payment of a note. People's Bank v. National Bank, 101 U. S., 181.
13. Under national-banking act one can exercise only the powers expressly granted and those necessarily incidental. Logan Bank v. Townsend, 139 U. S., 67.

PREFERRED CLAIMS. See Liens; Special deposits.

1. Section 3466 which gives the United States a priority for all claims it has against insolvent debtors, does not apply to the case of an insolvent national-banking association. Cook County National Bank v. United States, 107 U. S., 445.
2. A preference, to be within the meaning of section 5242, Revised Statutes, must be given to an existing creditor to secure a preëxisting debt. A transfer by an insolvent bank to secure a contemporaneous loan is not a violation of the law. Casey v. La Société de Crédit Mobilier 2, Woods, 77.
3. Revised Statutes, United States, section 5242, which prohibits all transfers by any national-banking association made after the commission of an act of insolvency, or in contemplation thereof, with the view to a preference

- of one creditor over another, is directed to a preference, not to the giving of security when a debt is created; and if the transaction be free from fraud in fact, and is intended merely to adequately protect a loan made at the time, the creditor can retain property transferred to secure such a loan until the debt is paid, though the debtor is insolvent, and the creditor has reason at the time to believe that to be the fact. Armstrong v. Chemical National Bank, 41 Fed. Rep., 234.
4. A banker's lien for the amount of the balance of its general account does not exist when the securities have been deposited with the bank for a special purpose, or for the payment of a particular loan. Ib.
 5. Section 5242, Revised Statutes, United States, does not prohibit a bank which has in good faith accepted the draft of a national bank the day before the latter's insolvency, and afterward paid the same, from applying the proceeds of collections made by it, on paper in its hands belonging to the insolvent bank, to the payment of the draft, since its lien on such collections runs from the date of the acceptance. In re Armstrong, 41 Fed. Rep., 381.
 6. The insolvency need be in the contemplation of the bank only. It need not be known to the person to whom the transfer is made. Case v. Citizens' Bank of Louisiana, 2 Woods 23.
 7. After the directors of an insolvent association have voted to close its doors, any transfer of assets whereby a creditor secures a preference must be presumed to be made with an intent to prefer. National Security Bank v. Price, 22 Fed. Rep., 697.
 8. Where the officers of an association which is in danger of insolvency, for the purpose and in the expectation of preventing a failure, make a pledge of securities to a depositor to induce him not to withdraw his deposit, such a pledge is not a preference within the meaning of section 5242, Revised Statutes, and will not be set aside when the association afterward is declared insolvent. Roberts v. Hill, 23 Fed. Rep., 311.
 9. Where an insolvent association receives a deposit a short time before closing its doors, its officers knowing of the insolvency at the time, the receipt of such deposit is a fraud upon the depositor, and no title passes to the association, and therefore the depositor may reclaim the whole amount of the deposit; and as he claims under his original title, and not under a transfer from the association, such reclamation does not amount to a preference. Cragie et al. v. Hadley, 99 N. Y., 131.
 10. A trust was not impressed upon funds deposited on day the bank closed its doors in the absence of proof that the deposit had not gone into the general funds of the bank and lost its identity before reaching the receiver. In re North River Bank, 14 N. Y., 261.
 11. Where the proceeds of an item indorsed "for collection and return" were mingled with other moneys of the bank, if it was a breach of trust it was a conversion, and plaintiff became a simple contract creditor, with no preference at law. Philadelphia National Bank v. Dowed, 38 Fed. Rep. 172.
 12. Where by agreement and custom a national bank received drafts from its correspondent indorsed "for collection for the," and credited it to them as cash, with the understanding that any unpaid draft should be charged back, and where the collecting bank failed before collection, the proceeds of the draft coming into the hands of a receiver, the correspondent bank has the rights of a general creditor only. First National Bank v. Armstrong, 39 Fed. Rep., 231.
 13. Where plaintiff and defendant banks for several years had acted as agents for each other in the collection of checks, notes, and drafts, and where plaintiff sent defendant a note "for collection and credit" which on maturity was paid by a check and credit was immediately given on the books, but defendant failed and the check passed into the hands of a receiver—Held, that in view of the course of dealing the two banks stood in the relation of debtor and creditor with respect to the amount of the check, and it became part of the assets of the bank. Franklin County National Bank v. Beal, 49 Fed. Rep., 606.
 14. Whether the title to a check deposited with a bank passes to the bank before collection, so as to immediately create the relation of debtor and creditor between it and the depositor, is a question of fact, depending upon the circumstances and course of dealing in each particular case. City of Somerville v. Beal, 49 Fed. Rep., 790.
 15. Where a bank in accordance with its custom credited checks deposited by a customer at the close of each day's business, retaining the right to subsequently charge off the same if returned unpaid from the clearing house, and the bank became insolvent on a succeeding day, title in the checks

- passed to the bank so as to create the relation of debtor and creditor.
Id.
16. Where a national bank collected all papers sent to it by complainant under an arrangement which constituted the bank the agent of complainant, the latter can recover, on the ground of a trust, from a receiver of the bank such portion only of the proceeds of its paper sent to the bank as it shows has passed into the receiver's hands, either in its original or some substituted form. Commercial National Bank v. Armstrong, 39 Fed. Rep., 684.
 17. Where checks and drafts sent from one bank to another indorsed "for collection" and credited "subject to payment" according to the dealings between the banks, and part of them were paid to the receiver of the latter bank after its failure and the balances were credited to it by the payors, the amount paid the receiver should be accounted for as a trust fund, but the balance as a general debt. First National Bank v. Armstrong, 42 Fed. Rep., 193.
 18. Negotiable paper with restrictive indorsement credited by agent on date of receipt "subject to payment," although account is subject to be drawn upon, title is not transferred, and upon the insolvency of the agent before receiving notice of the collection of the item, the owner is entitled to the proceeds in the hands of the collecting agent. Fifth National Bank v. Armstrong, 40 Fed. Rep., 46.
 19. The drawers of a draft deposited with a bank for collection, and by it forwarded to a correspondent bank, are entitled to the amount as against the receiver of the forwarding bank, which was insolvent, and known to be so by its officers when it received the draft, and suspended payment before the proceeds were withdrawn from the collecting bank. Importers and Traders' National Bank v. Peters et al., 123 Court of Appeals, N. Y., 272.
 20. When a bank which has received a draft for collection sends it to another bank for that purpose, and on being advised that the latter bank has collected the draft credits the depositor and then becomes insolvent without having received the money from the collecting bank, the depositor remains the owner of the draft, and is entitled to its proceeds from the collecting bank against the receiver and the creditors of the insolvent bank. Armstrong v. National Bank of Boyertown, 11 S. W. Rep., 411; Manufacturers' National Bank v. Continental Bank et al., 20 N. W. Rep., 193.
 21. A bank which collects a draft sent to it by another bank for that purpose with directions to remit the proceeds to a third bank for the owner's account does not thereby become a trustee, so that the fund can be followed into the hands of a receiver, although it had become mixed with the other cash of the bank before his appointment; especially when it appears that the business was carried on, and money paid out, for several days after the collection was probably made. Merchants and Farmers' Bank v. Austin et al., 48 Fed. Rep., 25.
 22. A draft given to a bank in the ordinary course of business does not constitute an equitable assignment of the fund nor is it sufficient that draft be drawn by bank against its reserve fund in another city and given in exchange for clearing house certificates upon the president's representation that it owes a heavy debt at the clearing house which it is unable to meet and his statement, showing the amount of the reserve fund against which the draft was drawn. Fourth Street National Bank v. Yardley, Receiver, 55 Fed. Rep., 850.
 23. Where bank sends paper to another bank for collection and credit on general account, the custom being to enter credit only when paper is collected, the relation being that of principal and agent until collection and receipt of money by the second bank, and if latter sends to another bank, which collects but does not remit until latter bank has failed, the former can recover the proceeds from the receiver thereof. Beal v. National Exchange Bank of Dallas, 55 Fed. Rep., 894.
 24. In a package of miscellaneous bonds was the memorandum of the date, amount, and time when due, and also the words "$6,500 due Putnam." Held, that these facts did not show an equitable assignment by the bank to the plaintiff of $6,500 worth of bonds. To constitute an equitable assignment of property, there must be an appropriation or separation and the mere intent to appropriate is not sufficient. Putnam Savings Bank v. Beal, 54 Fed. Rep. 577.
 25. Where the treasurer and tax collector of a county, without authority of law, deposit county money in a bank and receive certificates of deposit marked "special," the title to the moneys does not pass although there is no agreement that the identical bills shall be returned and they are mixed with

- the bank's general funds, and the county is entitled to recover an equal amount from a receiver of the bank prior to the payment of the general depositors. San Diego County v. California National Bank et al., 52 Fed. Rep., 59.
26. The indorsement of a draft to a bank "for collection," accompanied by a credit of the amount to the endorser's account, does not transfer title to the bank, and correspondent of the bank who collects draft for it is responsible therefor to indorser. Tyson v. Western National Bank of Baltimore, 26 Att. Rep. 520.
 27. Paper for collection was indorsed, "Pay to (correspondent) bank or order for collection for (transmitting) bank." On insolvency of correspondent, Held, that the relation as to uncollected paper was that of principal and agent; that a subagent had collected some of such paper was not a commingling of these collections with the funds of the failed bank and did not relieve them from the trust obligation created by its agency nor create any difficulty in specially tracing it. Commercial National Bank v. Armstrong, 148 U. S., 50.

REAL ESTATE: See Mortgages.

1. Where a national-banking association acquires real estate which it is not authorized to take, the conveyance to it is not void, but only voidable. And the title of the association to such real estate is good until assailed in a direct proceeding by the Government. National Bank v. Matthews, 98 U. S., 621; National Bank v. Whitney, 103 U. S., 99; Swope v. Leffingwell, 105 U. S., 3; Reynolds v. Crawfordsville Bank, 112 U. S., 405; Fortier v. New Orleans Bank, 112 U. S., 439.
2. The amount of real estate which a national-banking association may purchase to secure a preëxisting debt is not limited to the exact amount of the debt, but as much may be purchased as is necessary to secure the debt due, so long as the security of such debt is the real object of the purchase. Upton v. National Bank of South Reading, 120 Mass., 153.
3. Where the purpose is to secure a debt, previously contracted, a national-banking association may take a conveyance of real estate, worth more than the debt, and pay the difference between the debt and the value of the property. Libby v. Union National Bank, 99 Ill., 622.
4. A national-banking association may take as security for a loan the stock of a corporation whose entire capital is vested in real estate. Such a loan does not amount to a lending upon mortgage. Baldwin v. Canfield, 26 Minn., 43.
5. A national-banking association, having taken a mortgage on real estate to secure a debt previously contracted, may, in order to protect itself, pay off a prior lien on the said real estate; and the lien which it thus acquires it may enforce. Ornu v. Merchants' National Bank, 16 Kans., 341; Holmes v. Boyd, 90 Ind., 332.
6. Fact that bank at judgment sale of land mortgaged to it purchases the mortgaged property, and also other property which it was not authorized to acquire, does not invalidate its title as to the mortgaged property. Reynolds v. Crawfordsville Bank, 112 U. S., 405.

RECEIVER: See Insolvent banks; Preferred claims; Interest; Set-off.

1. Upon the appointment of a receiver all the assets of the association become, in his hands a trust fund which the statute of limitations does not touch or affect. Kiddle v. First National Bank, 27 Fed. Rep., 503.
2. Claims arising out of the nonfeasance or malfeasance of the association should be paid ratably with the debts, technically so called. Turner v. First National Bank of Keokuk et al., 26 Iowa, 562.
3. A receiver, when appointed by the Comptroller, with the concurrence of the Secretary, is an officer of the United States. Stanton v. Wilkeson, 8 Ben., 357.
4. He represents the bank, its stockholders, and its creditors; but he does not in any sense represent the Government. Case v. Terrell, 11 Wall., 199.
5. The clause of section 50, act of 1864, which prescribes that the receiver shall be "under the direction of the Comptroller," means only that he shall be subject to the Comptroller's direction, not that he shall not act without orders. He may bring suit to collect assets without having been instructed to do so by the Comptroller. Bank v. Kennedy, 17 Wall., 19.
6. The receiver of a national bank is the instrument of the Comptroller, and may be removed by him. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 505.

RECEIVER—Continued.

7. The power of the Comptroller to appoint a receiver is not exclusive; it does not oust the courts of equity of their authority in the matter; and therefore a court of competent jurisdiction may place the bank in the hands of a receiver in cases where, according to the rules of equity, it may pursue such a course with regard to insolvent corporations generally. Irons v. Manufacturers' National Bank, 6 Biss., 301; Wright v. Merchants' National Bank, 1 Flippin, 561.
8. Suits brought by a receiver can not be settled or compounded upon an order of the Comptroller; this can be done only with the authority of the court. Case v. Small, 2 Woods, 78.
9. The decision of a receiver rejecting a claim is not final. The claimant still has the right to sue. Bank of Bethel v. Palquique Bank, 14 Wall., 383.
10. The receiver can not sell the real or personal property of the bank without an order from a court of competent jurisdiction. Ellis v. Little, 27 Kans., 707.
11. Nor can he sell upon the terms in conflict with the order. Ib.
12. And under an order permitting him to sell the property of the bank he can not exchange, trade, or barter it for other property. Ib.
13. A sale made by a receiver under order of a court is to all intents and purposes a judicial sale. In re Third National Bank, 9 Biss., 535.
14. As the power of a receiver of a national bank appointed by the Comptroller is limited, a person dealing with him in his official capacity is bound as a matter of law to have knowledge of his authority to act, and if contracts and agreements are entered into with the receiver in excess of his authority as conferred by law, the parties contract at their own peril and the estate of the bank can not be charged for the default or inability of a receiver acting outside of his functions as receiver and beyond the duties which it involves. Ellis v. Little, 27 Kans., 707.
15. The receiver can not charge the estate of the bank by any executory contract, unless authorized so to do by the provisions of the national-banking law and the order of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained upon the terms of said law. Ib.
16. The closing of a national bank by order of the examiner, the appointment of a receiver, and its dissolution by decree of a circuit court necessarily transfer the assets of the bank to the receiver. Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U. S., 499.
17. The receiver in such case takes the assets in trust for creditors, and in the absence of a statute to the contrary, subject to all claims and defences that might have been interposed against the insolvent corporation. Ib.
18. Receiver of national bank may sue for demands in his name as receiver, or in name of bank. Bank v. Kennedy, 17 Wall., 19.
19. Receiver of national bank appointed by Comptroller of the Currency is not accountable in equity to owner of real estate for rents thereof received by him and paid into United States Treasury, subject to disposition of Comptroller under Revised Statutes, Sec. 5234. Hitz v. Jenks, 123 U. S. 297; Briggs v. Spaulding, 141 U. S., 132.
20. The expenses of receivership of a national bank appointed in a creditor's suit, contesting a voluntary liquidation of the bank, can not be charged on stockholders as part of their statutory liability, but must come from the creditors at whose instance the receiver was appointed. Ib.; Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27.
21. On a bill filed by receiver against stockholders under section 50, where bank fails to pay its notes, action by Comptroller must precede institution of suit by receiver, and be set forth therein. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 493.
22. Creditors of the bank are not proper parties to such bill. Ib.

REDUCTION OF CAPITAL STOCK:

When a national banking association reduces its capital stock the amount of capital thus released belongs to the shareholders pro rata and must be returned to them; and it can not be retained by the association for a surplus. Seeley v. New York National Exchange Bank, 8 Daly, 400; 4 Abb. N. C., 61; 78 N. Y., 608.

REPORT: See False entry.

1. A national bank is not required to conform the headings of the various accounts on its books to any prescribed names, nor to the names stated in the form of report prescribed by the Comptroller, and therefore when a report is called for, if the person making it enters under the headings in the prescribed form a statement of the bank's condition, which is true with respect to the headings in said form, he has fulfilled the demands of the law. United States v. Graves, 53 Fed. Rep., 634.

REPORT—Continued.

2. The entry of "loans and discounts" in reports to the Comptroller does not guaranty the solvency of the makers of the paper, but is a statement that in truth and fact, at the date named in the report, the bank actually held and owned loans and discounts to the aggregate so reported. Ib.
3. Where the form of report, as prescribed by the Comptroller, contains heading of "Loans and Discounts," and also of "Overdrafts," it is the duty of the bank officer to make his entries in such report in such manner that each of these headings shall truthfully state the condition of his bank as to such heading. Ib.
4. A director of a bank is personally liable to the bank on paper made to it by a firm of which he is a member, and, in making a report of the condition of the bank to the Comptroller, the amount of such paper should be entered under the heading of "Liabilities of directors (individual and firm) as payers." Ib.

RESIGNATION:

1. The law providing no particular mode by which a director is to resign from the board, an oral resignation would be as good as any. Marius v. Lee, 30 Fed. Rep., 298.
2. The president being the head of the board, a resignation to him is a resignation to the board. Ib.
3. A director is not prohibited from resigning during the year. The apparent purpose of the provision in regard to the term of office is to make it conform to the time of the new election, and not to absolutely require every director to serve the full term. Ib.

RESTRAINING ACTS:

National-banking associations located outside of a State are subject to its restraining acts prohibiting all corporations, not authorized by the law of the State, from keeping therein offices for the purpose of discount and deposit. National Bank of Fairhaven v. The Phoenix Warehousing Company, 6 Hun., 71.

SET-OFF:

1. Against the proceeds of the bonds deposited to secure circulation the United States can set off no claim, except for money advanced to redeem notes. Cook Co. National Bank v. United States, 107 U. S., 445.
2. And upon the failure of any association its 5 per cent redemption fund can not be retained by the Treasurer to pay taxes due to the United States, but the fund passes to the Comptroller as an asset of the association. Jackson v. United States, 20 Ct. Cls., 298.
3. A person liable upon a note to an insolvent national bank may set off, against his indebtedness, the amount of his deposits with the bank. Platt v. Bentley, Thomp. N. B., Cas., 758.
4. But a debtor can not set off the amount of a deposit assigned to him after the act of insolvency committed. Venango National Bank v. Taylor, 56 Penn. St., 14.
5. The indorser of a note discounted by a national bank and which matures after the bank becomes insolvent and a receiver is appointed is entitled to set-off against the note the amount of his deposit in the bank at the time of its failure. Yardley v. Clothier, 51 Fed. Rep., 506.
6. The commercial paper of a national bank becomes overdue and dishonored after the commission of an act of insolvency and appointment of a receiver, and is subject to all equities between the bank and the original party to whom it was payable. U. S. D. C., N. D., Ill., May, 1890.
7. A set-off under Illinois statute in favor of the maker of a note or bill is available if the paper is assigned after due, whether arising out of the same transaction or otherwise. Ib.
8. The ordinary equity rule of set-off in case of insolvency is that where the mutual obligations have grown out of the same transaction, insolvency on the one hand justifies the set-off of the debt due on the other, and there is nothing in the statutes relating to national banks which prevents the application of that rule to the receiver of an insolvent national bank under circumstances like those in this case. Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U. S., 499.
9. A customer of a national bank who, in good faith, borrows money of the bank, gives his note therefor due at a future day, and deposits the amount borrowed to be drawn against, any balance to be applied to the payment of the note when due, has an equitable (but not a legal) right, in case of

- the insolvency and dissolution of the bank and the appointment of a receiver before the maturity of the note, to have the balance to his credit at the time of the insolvency applied to the payment of his indebtedness on the note. Id.
10. Acts of Congress in relation to the administration of the assets of insolvent banks authorize no other rules of set-off than those recognized by courts in the settlement of the affairs of other insolvent corporations. Yardley v. Clothier, 49 Fed. Rep., 337; Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U. S., 499.
 11. Set-off must be governed by the law of the place where, in case of controversy, suit must be brought to settle the rights of the parties. Sarary v. Sarary, 3 Clark, 271; Gibbs v. Howard, 2d N. H., 296; Vose v. Philbrook, 3 Story, 335; Ruggles v. Kuler, 3 Johns., 263.
 12. A separate demand can not be set off against a joint one, or a joint debt against a separate one. Gray v. Rollo, 18 Wall., 629; Scammon v. Kimball, 92 U. S., 362.
 13. Where, however, a note is signed by one as principal and others as sureties, the indebtedness of the bank to the principal may be set off. Andrews v. Varnell, 46 N. H., 17; Himrod v. Baugh, 85 Ill. 435.
 14. Indorser of note held by the bank is entitled to set off, against his liability as such, any indebtedness from the bank to himself. Yardley v. Clothier, 49 Fed. Rep., 337.
 15. An executor, administrator, or public officer is not entitled to set off against his liability as such any indebtedness from bank to himself individually, nor contra. Scammon v. Kimball, 92 U. S., 362; Benton v. Hoomes, executor, 1 A. K. Marsh. 19; Stowe v. Yarwood, 14 Ill., 424.
 16. One indebted to bank can not set off a claim against bank acquired subsequent to its suspension. Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U. S., 499; Venango National Bank v. Taylor, 56 Penn. St., 14; Colt v. Brown, 12 Gray, 233.
 17. Right of set-off is allowable where the indebtedness sought to be set off had or had not matured at time of bank's suspension. Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U. S., 499; Skiles v. Huton, 110 Penn. St., 254; Drake v. Rollo, 3 Biss., 273.

SHAREHOLDERS:

1. One who appears on the books of the association as the owner of shares of its stock is individually liable, though he hold the stock merely as collateral security. National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 628; Moore v. Jones, 3 Woods, 53; Bowdell v. Farmers and Merchants' National Bank of Baltimore, Browne's N. B. Cas., 147; Hale v. Walker, 31 Iowa, 344; Wheelock v. Kost, 77 Ill., 296.
2. And a subscription to stock of a national bank, and payment in full on the subscription and entry of the subscriber's name on the books as a stockholder, constitutes the subscriber a shareholder without taking out a certificate. Pacific National Bank v. Eaton, 141 U. S., 227.
3. The individual liability of a shareholder adheres to his estate after his death until his place as a member of the association is taken by some new shareholder. Davis v. Weed, 44 Conn., 569.
4. The receiver has a valid claim against the estate generally of a deceased shareholder who died prior to the insolvency of the bank, but whose stock has not been transferred. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27; Davis v. Weed, supra.
5. But a pledgee of shares of stock in a national bank who in good faith and with no fraudulent intent takes the security for his benefit in the name of an irresponsible trustee for the avowed purpose of avoiding individual liability as a shareholder, and who exercises none of the powers or rights of a stockholder, incurs no liability as such to creditors of the bank in case of its failure. Anderson, Receiver, v. Warehouse Company, 111. U. S., 479.
6. And where stock has been transferred as collateral security for a loan, with the understanding that in case of default in the payment of the loan the shares shall be sold, the transferee, upon default made, and before the bank closes its doors, may sell the stock for a nominal consideration, though his purpose be to avoid a personal liability; and such a transaction can not be set aside as a fraud upon the creditors of the association. Magruder v. Colston, 44 Md., 349.
7. If the trusteeship of one who holds stock in trust does not appear upon the books of the association he will be individually liable. Davis Essex v. Baptist Society, 44 Conn., 582.
8. The real owner of the stock is liable as a stockholder, though when he purchased the stock he had it transferred upon the books to another. Davis v. Stevens, 17 Blatch., 259.

SHAREHOLDERS—Continued.

9. The individual liability of the shareholders of an insolvent association may be enforced for the purpose of paying all of its liabilities, and not merely for the purpose of paying its "debts," technically so called. Stanton v. Wilkeson, 3 Ben., 557.
10. The individual liability of the stockholders must be restricted in its meaning to such contracts, debts, and engagements of the association as have been duly contracted in the ordinary course of its business. And, therefore, creditors of an association who make settlements after the association is put into liquidation and receive from the president payment of their claims in paper of the association, or of the individual notes of the president himself, indorsed or guaranteed in the name of the association, are not to be considered as creditors of the association entitled to subject the stockholders to individual liability; for these are new contracts. Richmond v. Irons, 121, U. S., 27.
11. The individual liability of the stockholders is enforceable only in behalf of all the creditors, and any security given by a stockholder for his liability in this respect should likewise be for the benefit of all the creditors. Accordingly, a mortgage of all the individual property of a stockholder, made after the bank has closed its doors, for the purpose of securing a single depositor, is void as against a judgment obtained against such stockholder in an action by the receiver to recover the amount of his individual liability. Gatch v. Fitch, 34 Fed. Rep., 566.
12. While it is undoubtedly the rule as regards stockholders that one put upon the books as a stockholder without his consent can not be held for any liability in respect to such stock, yet where the person to whom the stock is transferred is a director of the bank, and is concerned in the management of its affairs, he must be presumed to have knowledge of the fact that the stock stood in his name, and if he has not repudiated the transfer to himself, is liable as the holder of such stock. Brown v. Finn, 34 Fed. Rep., 124.
13. A national bank, having so received stock of another national bank, was sued as a stockholder. Held, that loan by national bank on such security is not prohibited, and if it were, defendant could not avoid liability by its own illegal act. National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 628.
14. Where stockholder, knowing that bank is to fail, collusively transfers his shares to an irresponsible person to avoid liability, his liability is not affected by such fraud. Bowden v. Johnson, 107 U. S., 251.
15. Bill filed by receiver against transferrer and transferee to enforce such liability will lie where it is for discovery as well as relief, as the transfer would be good between the parties. Ib.
16. A shareholder in national bank, who is liable for its debts, is liable for interest thereon to the extent of the bank's liability, and not in excess of the maximum liability fixed by statute. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27.
17. A Federal court will not, even if it has the power, under section 5234, grant an order authorizing the receiver of a national bank to compound the statutory liability of certain stockholders by accepting payment of a gross sum less than is due in satisfaction and discharge thereof, although more money would thus be realized than by proceedings to collect the same in the usual way, when it appears probable that such stockholders have fraudulently conveyed their property to avoid their legal obligations as stockholders or to shield themselves from injury and exposure by litigation. In re certain stockholders of the California National Bank of San Diego, 53 Fed. Rep., 38.
18. A corporation which holds certain shares of stock in a national bank as collateral security for a loan and is carried on the registry of the bank as the holder of such stock "as pledgee," is not subject on the bank's insolvency to the statutory liability of a stockholder. Pauley v. State Loan and Trust Co., 56 Fed. Rep., 430.
19. A person who is entered on the books of a national bank as the owner of stock, but who is admitted to hold the stock in trust for the true owner, is not liable, as a stockholder, for the debts of the bank when the true owner has been adjudged so liable, although nothing is realized on the execution of such judgment. Yardley v. Wilgus, 56 Fed. Rep., 965.
20. Where stockholder of national bank sells to the bank, as agent for unknown principal, his stock and delivers to it his certificate and power of attorney for transfer, in blank, though no formal transfer is made, his responsibility for further assessments on the stock ceases. Whitbeck v. Mercantile National Bank, 127 U. S., 193.

SHAREHOLDERS—Continued.

21. Subscription to stock and payment in full and entry of name on books as a stockholder makes subscriber a shareholder without taking out a certificate. Pacific National Bank v. Eaton, 141 U. S. 227; Thayer v. Butler, ib., 234; Butler v. Eaton, ib., 240.
22. A pledgee of stock who in good faith takes the security for his benefit in name of an irresponsible trustee for the avowed purpose of avoiding individual liability as shareholder, incurs no liability as such. Anderson v. Phil. Warehouse Co., 111 U. S. 479.
23. The statutory liability of a shareholder in a national bank for the debts of the corporation survives against his personal representatives. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27.
24. Shareholder in national bank continues liable for the company's debts until his stock is actually transferred or certificate surrendered for that purpose; a delivery to the president of the bank as vendee, and not as president, is insufficient to discharge the shareholder. Ib.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS: See Preferred claims; Set-off.

1. A national-banking association may receive special deposits. The provision in section 5228, Revised Statutes, authorizing an association "to deliver special deposits," implies that it may receive them as a part of its legitimate business; and this implication is as effectual as an express declaration to the same effect would have been. National Bank v. Graham, 100 U. S., 699.
2. Section 5228 of Revised Statutes, which provides that it shall be lawful for a national bank after its failure to "deliver special deposits," is an effectual recognition of its power to receive them. Ib.
3. National banking associations have power to receive special deposits either gratuitously or otherwise. Pattison v. Syracuse National Bank, 80 N. Y., 82.

STOCKS: See Broker; Collateral securities; Ultra vires.

TAXATION: See Circulation.

1. A State can not tax the capital stock of a national bank as such. The tax must be assessed upon the shares of the different stockholders. Collins v. Chicago, 4 Biss., 472.
2. Under Revised Statutes, United States, section 5219, which declares that nothing in the national-banking act shall prevent all the shares of stock of a national bank from being included in the assessment of the personal property of the owners of such shares, an assessment of the entire stock of a national bank in solido against the bank itself is invalid. National Bank of Virginia v. City of Richmond et al., 42 Fed. Rep., 877.
3. The assessment of the entire capital stock of a national bank in solido against the bank itself is invalid. The bank may pay the tax assessed upon the shares of its different stockholders, and it will have a lien thereon when it pays such tax until the same is satisfied; but if for any cause the tax levied upon the different stockholders is not paid by the bank, the property of the individual stockholders will be liable therefor. First National Bank of Leoti v. Fisher, 45 Kans., 726.
4. The individual stockholders of a national bank are allowed the same deductions from the assessment against them upon their shares of stock as other taxpayers in the State, owning moneyed capital, are allowed. Ib.
5. "Moneyed capital" in Revised Statutes, section 5219, embraces capital employed in national banks and that used by individuals in business for profit by use of it as money, but does not include that in the hands of a corporation, even if its business be such as to make its shares moneyed capital when in the hands of individuals, or if it invests its capital in securities payable in money. Mercantile Bank v. New York, 121 U. S., 133; Newark Bank Co. v. Newark, ib., 163; Talbot v. Silver Bow County, Montana, 139 U. S., 438.
6. Laws, New York, chapter 596, section 3, which provide that the stockholders in banks and trust companies organized under the authority of the State or of the United States, shall be assessed for the value of their shares of stock, but which omits to provide for the taxation of the shares of stock in other private corporations, does not contravene Revised Statutes, United States, section 5219, which forbids the taxation of shares of national banks at a greater rate than is assessed on other "moneyed capital" in the hands of the individual citizen of the State. Palmer v. McMahon, 133 U. S., 660; Central National Bank v. United States, 137 U. S., 355.
7. The shares of a national bank are taxable to the owners, and the bank is not liable primarily or as the agent of the shareholders, under the act of Con-

TAXATION—Continued.

- gress or the various laws of the State or Territory, for the payment of a tax levied upon such shares; but if such bank, through its proper officers, voluntarily lists such shares as the property of the bank for taxation, and the taxing officers of the State or Territory, in pursuance of such erroneous listing, tax the same in the name of the bank, equity will not relieve the bank from the payment of such tax by enjoining its collection in the absence of proper application to all the statutory tribunals authorized to hear such matter and determine and grant the proper relief. Albuquerque National Bank v. Peoria et al. (S. C. N. Mer.), January 28, 1892.
8. The entire interests of the shareholders may be taxed without any deduction for that portion of the capital which is invested in United States securities. Van Allen v. The Assessors, 3 Wall., 573.
 9. New shares issued by a national-banking association can not be taxed until the increase of capital has been approved by the Comptroller of the Currency. Charleston v. People's National Bank, 5 S. C., 123.
 10. The manifest intention of the law is to permit the State in which a national bank is located to tax, subject to the limitations prescribed, all the shares of its capital stock without regard to their ownership; and, therefore, a national bank may be taxed upon the shares which it holds in another national bank. Bank of Redemption v. Boston, 126 U. S., 60.
 11. The undivided surplus of a national-banking association, unless invested in Federal securities, may be lawfully taxed by the State. North Ward National Bank of Newark v. City of Newark, 10 Vroom, 380; First National Bank v. Peterborough, 56 N. H., 38.
 12. But, of course, if the surplus is taken into consideration in estimating the taxable value of the shares, it is not to be taxed separately. North Ward National Bank v. City of Newark, supra.
- NOTE.—But it has been held in Maryland that the stock of an association represents its whole property, and where a tax is assessed upon the shares a separate tax upon the real or personal estate amounts to double taxation; and, therefore, where the organic laws of the State prohibit double taxation, such a tax upon the property of an association is void. County Commissioners v. Farmers and Mechanics' National Bank, 48 Md., 117; National State Bank v. Young, 25 Iowa, 311, wherein it was held that the State could tax only the shares eo nomine and the real estate.
13. The surplus fund of a national-banking association is not excluded in the valuation of its shares for taxation. Strafford National Bank v. Dover, 59 N. H., 316.
 14. Where shares of stock are assessed at their actual cash value, without any deduction for the real estate owned by the association, the real estate should not be taxed eo nomine. Commissioners of Rice County v. Citizens' National Bank of Faribault, 23 Minn., 280.
 15. Real estate owned by a bank constitutes part of its assets, within the meaning of code of Mississippi providing that banks shall pay a privilege tax, whose amount varies with their "capital stock or assets," in lieu of all other taxes. Vicksburg Bank v. Worrell, 7 So. Rep., 219.
 16. The State can not tax the circulating notes of national-banking associations. Horne v. Greene, 25 Miss., 452; contra, Board of Commissioners v. Elston, 32 Ind., 27; Ruffin v. Board of Commissioners, 69 N. C., 498; Lily v. The Commissioners, 69 N. C., 300.
 17. Where the State banks are taxed upon the capital, no tax can be imposed upon the shares of national-banking associations; for, as the capital of the State banks may consist of the bonds of the United States, which are exempt from State taxation, a tax on capital is not equivalent to a tax on shares. Van Allen v. The Assessors, 3 Wall., 573; Bradley v. The People, 4 Wall., 459.
 18. But though the tax upon the State banks is not eo nomine a tax on shares, yet if it is equivalent to such a tax the shares in the national-banking associations located in that State may be taxed. Frazer v. Seibern, 16 Ohio St., 614; Van Styke v. State, 23 Wis., 656; Boynoll v. State, 25 Wis., 112.
 19. Where by local legislation different rates are prescribed for different classes of moneyed capital, the rate imposed upon shares of national banks should approximate as closely as may be the rate imposed upon other moneyed capital of the same or similar class, viz, shares of State banks. City National Bank v. Paducah, 5 Cent. L. J., 347.
 20. Congress meant no more than to require of the States, as a condition to the exercise of the power to tax the shares in national banks, that they should, as far as they had the capacity, tax in like manner the shares of banks of issue of their own creation. Lionberger v. Rouse, 9 Wall., 468.

21. Therefore, where a State has previously contracted with the banks which it has chartered that they shall not be taxed above a certain rate, a tax upon national-bank shares at a greater rate is not invalid, if this rate is not greater than that assessed upon all the moneyed capital within the State, except that of the State banks. Ib.
22. Any system of assessment of taxes which exacts from the owner of the shares of a national-banking association a larger sum in proportion to the actual value of those shares than it does from other moneyed capital, valued in like manner, taxes the shares at a greater rate, notwithstanding that the percentage of tax on the valuation is the same as that applied to other moneyed capital. Pelton v. Commercial National Bank, 101 U. S., 143.
23. In estimating the value of the shares for the purpose of taxation reference may be had to all the property and values of the bank. St. Louis National Bank v. Papin, 3 Cent., L. J., 669.
24. If no excessive valuation is complained of, and a correct result is arrived at, equity will not restrain the collection of a tax because the method of computation was erroneous. Ib.
25. The shares may be valued for taxation at an amount exceeding their face value, if this amount is not at a greater rate than the valuation set upon other moneyed capital in the State. Hepburn v. School Directors, 23 Wall., 480.
26. Under the statute of New York, shares in national-banking associations should be taxed at their real or market value. People v. The Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments, 94 U. S., 415.
27. Where shares in national-banking associations are purposely valued proportionately higher than the other moneyed capital in the State, the assessment is void. Pelton v. National Bank, 101 U. S., 143.
28. And the collection of what is in excess of the rate imposed on the other moneyed capital may be enjoined. Ib.
29. A State statute creating a system of taxation of banks which does not discriminate against national banks is not unconstitutional. Ib; Davenport Bank v. Davenport, 123 U. S., 83.
30. Section 5219, Revised Statutes, does not require perfect equality between State and national banks, but only a system of taxation which shall work no discrimination between them. Ib.
31. The intention of Congress was that the rate of taxation of the shares should be the same as, or not greater than, the tax upon the moneyed capital of the individual citizen which is subject and liable to taxation. People v. The Commissioners, 4 Wall., 244.
32. The fact that by the statutes creating them, which statutes were passed prior to the national-banking law, State banks are entirely exempt from taxation will not render a tax upon the shares of national-banking associations void. City of Richmond v. Scott, 48 Ind., 568.
33. And a State tax upon shares in national-banking associations is not rendered invalid by an exemption of the shares of other corporations the capital of which consists of property required to be listed for taxation as such. McIver v. Robinson, 53 Ala., 456.
34. Merely a partial exemption of other moneyed capital will not invalidate a tax upon shares in national-banking associations. Hepburn v. School Directors, 23 Wall., 480.
35. But though Congress did not contemplate that there should be an absolute equality (which in the nature of things is impossible), yet it did intend that there should be a substantial equality; and therefore if the exemptions in favor of other moneyed capital are so palpable as to show that there is a serious discrimination against capital invested in the shares of national-banking associations the tax will be declared unlawful. Boyer v. Boyer, 113 U. S., 690.
36. A State law which does not permit a deduction to be made from the assessed value of bank shares for all debts due by the holder thereof, while authorizing such a deduction to be made from the assessed value of moneyed capital otherwise invested, is void. People ex rel. Williams v. Weaver, 100 U. S., 539, reversing S. C., 67 N. Y., 516, and overruling People v. Dolan, 36 N. Y., 59.
37. In the assessment and taxation of shares of national-bank stock the owners thereof, having no other credits or moneyed capital, are entitled to deduct their bona fide debts from the value of such shares of stock. Wasson v. Bank, 8 N. E. Rep., 97.
38. Revised Statutes, section 5219, providing that shares of national-bank stock may be taxed as part of the personality of the owner, and that each State

- may tax them in its own manner, except that the taxation shall not be at a greater rate than is imposed on other "moneyed capital" owned by citizens of the State, and that the shares of nonresidents shall only be taxed in the city wherein the bank is located, do not authorize the taxation of the stock of a bank in solido by the city in which it does business, but only the shares of individual owners residing in the city are taxable, and they must be taxed separately, in order that the owner may deduct from their value the amount of his personal indebtedness, where the State laws or municipal ordinances permit such deductions, and require equality of taxation. First National Bank of Richmond v. City of Richmond et al., 39 Fed. Rep., 309; Whitbeck v. Mercantile Bank, 127 U. S., 193.
39. The main purpose of Congress in fixing limits to State taxation on investments in the shares of national banks was to render it impossible for the State in levying such a tax to create and foster an unequal and unfriendly competition by favoring institutions or individuals carrying on similar business and operations and investments of a like character; and the language of the law is to be read in the light of this policy. And, therefore, the exemption of shares of stock in corporations the business of which does not come into competition with that of the national bank (e. g., railroad companies, mining companies, manufacturing companies, and insurance companies) does not invalidate a tax upon national-bank shares. Capital thus employed is not "moneyed capital" within the meaning of the act of Congress. Mercantile Bank v. New York, 121 U. S., 138; Newark Bank Co. v. Newark, ib., 163; Bank of Redemption v. Boston, ib., 60.
 40. The bonds of municipal corporations are not within the reason of the rule established by Congress for the taxation of national banks. Central National Bank v. United States, 137 U. S., 355.
 41. Although deposits in savings banks constitute moneyed capital in the hands of individuals within the terms of any definition which can be given of that phrase, yet they are not within the meaning of the act of Congress in such a sense as to require that, if they are exempted from taxation, shares of stock in national banks must thereby also be exempted from taxation, for it can not be supposed that savings banks come into any possible competition with national banks. Mercantile Bank v. New York, 121 U. S., 138; Newark Bank Co. v. Newark, ib., 63; Bank of Redemption v. Boston, 125, ib., 60.
 42. Under act Louisiana, 1888, section 27, relating to taxation of national-bank shares, making no deduction for that part of the bank's property entering into their value which consists of nontaxable State and national securities, which deduction may, under the act, be made by individuals, a tax on national-bank shares violates Revised Statutes of the United States, section 5219, prohibiting the assessment of such shares at a greater rate than moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens, and it is immaterial that the same discrimination is made against other corporations. Whitney National Bank v. Parker, 41 Fed. Rep., 402.
 43. The taxation of national-bank shares by the statute of Indiana without permitting the owner of them to deduct from their assessed value the amount of his bona fide indebtedness as he may in the case of other investments of moneyed capital, is a discrimination forbidden by the act of Congress. Britton v. Evansville National Bank, 105 U. S., 322.
 44. Section 5219 prohibits an adverse discrimination by a local government in the valuation of national-bank stock for assessment as compared with an assessment by the same government for the same year of other moneyed capital invested so as to make a profit from the use thereof as money. Puget Sound National Bank of Seattle v. King County et al., 57 Fed. Rep., 433.
 45. The State has a right to resort to the bank as a garnishee for the collection of its claims against stockholders for taxes, and legislation may require assessment of stock to be made to the bank in solido. First National Bank of Aberdeen v. Chehalis Co. et al., Washington supreme court, March 18, 1893.
 46. The nontaxation of credits of individuals, such as accounts, promissory notes, and mortgages, is not unlawful discrimination against national banks whose capital is taxed. Ib.
 47. A State tax upon shares is valid, though the tax is collected from the bank. National Bank v. Commonwealth, 9 Wall., 353.
 48. And the State may require the banks to pay a tax rightfully laid upon the shares. Ib.
 49. And where the tax on shares is payable by the association the collection of the tax may be enforced by distraint of its property. First National Bank v. Douglas County, 3 Dill., 330.

TAXATION—Continued.

50. But where the tax laws of the State make the bank the mere agent for paying the tax on shares, and direct it to retain so much of the dividends as will answer that purpose, other agents being required to pay taxes for their principals only when they have under their control the property, money, or credit of such principals, the bank can not be made liable unless it has the control of the property, etc., of its shareholders, or has dividends in its possession, or has failed to retain them. Hershire v. First National Bank, 35 Iowa, 272.
51. Act Louisiana, 1888, section 27, providing that shares in banks shall be assessed to shareholders, but requiring the bank to pay taxes so assessed, and authorizing it to collect the same from the shareholders, imposes a tax, not upon the bank, but upon its shares, as permitted by act of Congress, providing that a State may determine the manner of taxing the shares of national banks located in the State. Whitney National Bank v. Parker, 41 Fed. Rep., 402.
52. No suit for the collection of a tax under State statutes imposed upon the shares of stock of a national bank can be maintained against the receiver of an insolvent national bank where the property represented by the shares has disappeared; for, there being nothing from which the receiver can be reimbursed, the tax will fall upon the assets of the bank, which belong to its creditors, and thereby violate the rule that a State can not tax the capital stock of a national bank. City of Boston v. Beal, 51 Fed. Rep., 306.
53. National-banking associations can not be subjected to a license or privilege tax. Mayor v. First National Bank of Macon, 59 Ga., 648; City of Carthage v. First National Bank of Carthage, 71 Mo., 508; National Bank of Chattanooga v. Mayor, 8 Heiskell, 814.
54. Municipal officers can not assess a tax upon the shares of national-banking associations until authorized to do so by some law of the State. Stetson v. City of Bangor, 56 Me., 274.
55. The officers of a national-banking association can not be compelled to exhibit to the taxing officers of a State the books of the association showing the deposits of its customers. First National Bank of Youngstown v. Hughes, Brown's N. B. Cas., 176.
56. The tax imposed on State or national banks paying out the notes of individuals or State banks for circulation is constitutional. Veazie Bank v. Fenno, 8 Wall., 533.
57. So is the tax imposed on them for paying out the circulating notes of municipal corporations. Merchants' National Bank of Little Rock v. United States, 101 U. S., 1.
58. Such a tax is not a direct tax within the meaning of the clause of the Constitution which declares that "direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers." Veazie Bank v. Fenno and Mechanics' National Bank of Little Rock v. United States, supra.
59. Where the tax on shares is collected from the association it may bring a suit to enjoin the collection of an illegal tax. Cummings v. National Bank, 101 U. S., 153; Pelton v. Commercial National Bank, 101 U. S., 143; Boyer v. Boyer, 113, U. S., 143.
60. No suit can be maintained against the receiver of an insolvent national bank where the property represented by the shares has disappeared, under a statute which provides that shares of stock in all banks, State and national, shall be taxed to the owners thereof, to be paid in the first instance by the bank itself, which for reimbursement shall have a lien upon the shares and all the rights of the shareholders in the bank property. City of Boston v. Beal, 55 Fed. Rep., 26.
61. The imposition of a tax upon the shares of the bank according to the Louisiana statute, which requires the bank to pay the tax and then look to the dividends upon the shares and to the stockholders for reimbursement, is a tax upon the bank itself. Citizens' Bank of Louisiana v. Board of Assessors, 54 Fed. Rep., 73.
62. In 1856 the State of Tennessee granted to the Bank of Commerce a charter which provides that the bank "shall have a lien on the stock for debts due it by the stockholders and shall pay to the State an annual tax of one-half of one per cent on each share of capital stock, which shall be in lieu of all other taxes." Held, that this charter exempts from taxation the property of the bank as well as the individual property of the shareholders in the corporate stock and its shares, and such construction is not affected by the fact that the United States Supreme Court decided that the charter tax was a tax on the shareholder only, and an exemption therefore of the shareholder, since such decision does not exclude from

- the exemption the corporation and its property. State of Tennessee et al. v. Bank of Commerce et al., 53 Fed. Rep., 735.
63. When the statute requires property to be assessed for taxation at its cash value, a bill to enjoin the collection of a tax solely on the ground that the property of other persons is assessed below its cash value, can not be maintained by a person whose property is also assessed below that value. Albuquerque National Bank v. Perea, 147 U. S., 87.
 64. Massachusetts laws for taxation of national banks do not deny them the equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the Constitution, nor impose an unequal tax in violation of the constitution of that State. Bank of Redemption v. Boston, 125 U. S., 60.
 65. If a bank by mistake declares a dividend or adds to its surplus when it is not in condition to do so, such dividend is subject to taxation and the mistake can not be corrected in action to recover the tax. Central National Bank v. United States, 137 U. S., 355.
 66. When an assessment on national-bank stock for taxation by a State is not made in contravention of the Federal Constitution or laws. Palmer v. McMahon, 133 U. S., 660.
 67. The same power of taxation in respect to national banks exists in the Territories that does in the States. Talbott v. Silver Bow County, 139 U. S., 138.
 68. When increase in valuation of national-bank shares over that of the moneyed capital of individuals is a discrimination forbidden by Revised Statutes, Sec. 5219. Whitbeck v. Mercantile Bank, 127 U. S., 193.
 69. Act of 1864, "to provide a national currency," etc., subjects shares of banks authorized by it to taxation by States, though part or whole of capital is invested in national securities exempt from State taxation, and is constitutional. Van Allen v. Assessors, 3 Wall., 573.
 70. New York act of 1865, subjecting shares of national banks to taxation, but not providing that the tax should not exceed rate imposed on State banks, is void, as there was no tax on shares of State banks—only on the capital. Ib.
 71. Shares of stock in national banks are personal property, and the law creating them could give them a citius of their own, apart from owners, for purpose of taxation. This was done by act of 1864, section 41. Tappan v. Merchants' National Bank, 19 Wall., 490.
 72. State statutes taxing shares without permitting owner to deduct his indebtedness, as allowed to owners of other personal property, make a discrimination forbidden by acts of Congress. Supervisors v. Stanley, 105 U. S., 305; Evansville Bank v. Britton, ib., 322.
 73. State statute is not void which requires, for purposes of taxation, that the cashier of each national bank within the state transmits to clerks of several towns in State a true list of its stockholders residing there. Waite v. Dowley, 94 U. S., 527.
 74. National-bank shares can not be subjected to State taxation where a large part relatively of other moneyed capital in hands of individual citizens in same taxing district is exempted. Boyer v. Boyer, 113 U. S., 689.
 75. Bank may, on behalf of stockholders, maintain suit to enjoin collection of State tax unlawfully assessed on shares. Hills v. Exchange Bank, 105 U. S., 319.
 76. Act of 1866, taxing every national bank or State bank on the amount of State-bank notes paid out is the proper restraint on the circulation of such notes. Feazie Bank v. Fenno, 8 Wall., 533.

TRANSFER OF STOCK. See Shareholders:

1. The transfer of shares in national-banking associations is not governed by different rules from those which are ordinarily applied to the transfer of shares in other corporate bodies. Johnson v. Lajtin, 103 U. S., 800.
2. The entry of the transaction in the books of the association is required, not for the translation of the title, but for the protection of the parties, and others dealing with the association, and to enable it to know who are its stockholders. Ib.
3. A shareholder in a national bank, while it is a going concern, has the absolute right, in the absence of fraud, to make a bona fide and actual sale and transfer of his shares at any time to any person capable in law of purchasing and holding the same, and of assuming the transferer's liabilities in respect thereto; and this right is not in such cases subject to the control of the directors or other stockholders. Johnson v. Lajtin, 5 Dill., 65.
4. Under the pretense of prescribing the manner thereof, an association can not clog the transfer with useless restrictions. Ib.

5. When a shareholder, acting in good faith, delivers his certificates of stock, with a blank power of attorney for making the transfer, and receives the purchase money, the sale is complete and the title passes. Ib.
6. A shareholder who disposes of his stock will continue to be liable thereon until the transfer is noted on the books of the association. Bowdell v. Farmers and Merchants' National Bank of Baltimore, Browne's N. B. Cas., 147.
7. In such case the mere return of the dividends paid upon the stock to the person by whom the transfer was made will not be a sufficient repudiation thereof. Ib.; Brown v. Finn, 34 Fed. Rep., 124.
8. A national-banking association can not acquire a lien on the stock of a shareholder. And a by-law prohibiting a transfer until all liabilities of the shareholder to the association are discharged, or a provision to that effect in the certificates of stock, is void. Bullard v. National Bank, 18 Wall., 589; Bank v. Lanier, 11 Wall., 369; Conklin v. The Second National Bank, 45 N. Y., 655.
9. When bank's stock is sold by aid of fraudulent representations in regard to its solvency the purchaser is entitled to a complete rescission of the fraudulent sale. Florida Land and Improvement Co. v. Merrill, Receiver, 52 Fed. Rep., 77.
10. When bank's stock is fraudulently sold, and the proceeds are turned over to the bank, and a receiver subsequently appointed, no creditor of the bank can be said to have any such interest in the proceeds as would prevent restitution and a rescission of the sale, and such appointment of a receiver does not in itself show that there are creditors of the bank that had prior equities. Ib.
11. Where a cashier who is intrusted by the directors with the duty of transferring the stock of the association refuses, for insufficient reasons, to transfer shares, and the association subsequently becomes insolvent, the owner of the shares may maintain an action against the receiver for the injury sustained. Case v. Citizens' Bank, 100 U. S., 446.
12. Where a shareholder who has sold his stock has delivered to the bank the certificates of stock and a power of attorney, with the request that the transfer be made upon the books of the bank, and has had no reason to suppose that such transfer was not made, he will not, should the bank afterward become insolvent, be held liable as a shareholder, although he still appears as such on the books of the bank. Whitney v. Butler, 118 U. S., 655.
13. But where the president of the bank is himself the purchaser of the stock, then the delivery of the certificates and power of attorney to him with the request to make the transfer upon the books of the bank would not be sufficient to discharge the seller from liability as a stockholder. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27.
14. Where a shareholder of a national bank makes a bona fide sale of his stock and goes with the purchaser to the bank, indorses the certificate, and delivers it to the cashier of the bank, with directions to make the transfer on the books, he has done all that is incumbent upon him to discharge his liability, and he is not liable, though the cashier failed to make the transfer, upon the subsequent suspension of the bank, for an assessment made by the Comptroller of the Currency, under Revised Statutes, section 5151, to pay the bank's debts. Hayes v. Shoemaker, 39 Fed. Rep., 319.
15. A transfer of shares for the purpose of avoiding liability, though made "out and out," is void. National Bank v. Case, supra; Bowden v. Santos, 1 Hughes, 158.
16. And where a shareholder, who has knowledge of the insolvent condition of the bank, transfers his shares, without consideration, to a person unable to respond to the assessment, the transfer may be set aside. Bowden v. Johnson, 107 U. S., 125.
17. Title to stock passes on delivery of certificates to purchaser with authority to have shares transferred on books of bank. Johnston v. Laflin, 103 U. S., 800.
18. Party who, as security for a loan, accepts stock which he causes to be transferred to him on books, incurs liability as a stockholder and is not relieved by colorable transfer with understanding that he may have it back on request. National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 628.
19. Bank cashier refusing to transfer on books of bank shares of capital stock pledged and sold for debt of one of its stockholders, receiver of bank is liable for value of stock at that time if bank had no lien thereon to justify such refusal. Case v. Bank, 100 U. S., 446.

ULTRA VIRES:

1. A national-banking association can not deal in stocks. The prohibition is to be implied from the failure to grant the power. First National Bank v. National Exchange Bank, 92 U. S., 122.
2. A national-banking association can not purchase negotiable paper. Lazear v. National Union Bank of Baltimore, 52 Md., 73; First National Bank of Rochester v. Pierson, 24 Minn., 140; Farmers and Mechanics' Bank v. Baldwin, 23 Minn., 198. But see Smith v. The Exchange Bank of Pittsburg, 26 Ohio St., 141.
3. Where the provisions of the national-banking act prohibit certain acts by banks or their officers, without imposing any penalty or forfeiture applicable to particular transactions which had been executed, their validity can be questioned by the United States only and not by private parties. Thompson v. St. Nicholas National Bank, 146 U. S., 240.
4. Can make no valid loan or discount on security of their own stock unless necessary to prevent loss on debt previously contracted in good faith. Bank v. Lanier, 11 Wall., 369.
5. The national-banking act does not give a bank an absolute right to retain bonds coming into its possession by purchase under a contract which it was without legal authority to make. Logan Bank v. Townsend, 139 U. S., 67.

USURY: See Interest.

1. The usury laws of the States do not apply to national-banking associations. Farmers and Mechanics' Bank v. Dearing, 91 U. S., 29; Central National Bank v. Pratt, 115 Mass., 539; First National Bank v. Garlinghouse, 22 Ohio St., 492; Davis v. Randall, 115 Mass., 547; Hintermister v. First National Bank, 64 N. Y., 212.
2. And the remedies provided by the State for the taking of usury can not be resorted to. Farmers and Mechanics' Bank v. Dearing, supra; Wiley v. Starbuck, 44 Ind., 298.
3. The taking of illegal interest by a national-banking association does not render the contract void. Farmers and Mechanics' Bank v. Dearing, supra.
4. It does not invalidate an indorsement or a guaranty of the notes upon which the usurious interest was paid. Oates v. First National Bank of Montgomery, 100 U. S., 239; Lazear v. National Union Bank of Baltimore, 52 Md., 78.
5. But usury destroys the interest-bearing power of the obligation; and there will be no point of time from which it can bear interest. Lucas v. Government National Bank, 73 Penn. St., 228.
6. The usury works a forfeiture of the entire interest accruing after maturity and before judgment, as well as that which accrues before maturity. Shunk v. The First National Bank of Gallion, 22 Ohio St., 508.
7. The discounting of business paper by a national-banking association at a higher than the legal rate is usurious, though the law of the State fixes no limit to the rate which natural persons may take for the discount or purchase of such paper. Johnson v. National Bank of Gloversville, 74 N. Y., 329; National Bank v. Johnson, 104 U. S., 271.
8. By charging more than legal interest on overdrafts, a national-banking association loses the right to recovery any interest at all. Third National Bank of Philadelphia v. Miller, 90 Penn. St., 241.
9. The liabilities of antecedent parties to a note or bill will not be affected by the usurious character of the transaction between the payee and the association; and the association may recover the full amount of the note or bill from the maker or acceptor. Smith v. The Exchange Bank of Pittsburg, 26 Ohio St., 141.
10. Usurious interest which has been paid to a national-banking association can not be applied by way of payment, set-off, or counter claim in an action by the association to recover the amount of the loan, but a separate action must be brought therefor. Barnet v. Muncie National Bank, 98 U. S., 855.
11. Where a national-banking association has discounted notes for another bank at a usurious rate of interest, the fact that the other bank has charged illegal interest on those notes to its customers will not affect its right to set up the defense of usury in an action by the association. Third National Bank of Philadelphia v. Miller, supra.
12. The amount which may be recovered from the association as a penalty is twice the amount of interest paid, and not simply twice the amount in excess of the legal rate. Crocker v. First National Bank of Chetopa, 3 Am. L. T. [N. S.], 359; Oeverholt v. National Bank of Mount Pleasant, 82 Penn. St., 490; Barnet v. Muncie National Bank, supra.

USURY—Continued.

13. The purchase of accepted drafts by a national bank from the holder without his indorsement at a greater reduction than lawful interest on their face value is a discounting of those drafts within the meaning of Revised Statutes, United States, section 5197, which prohibits such bank from taking interest on any loan or discount made by it at a greater rate than is allowed by the laws of the State where it is situated. Danforth et al. v. National State Bank of Elizabeth, 48 Fed. Rep., 271.
14. Where a bankrupt has paid usurious interest, his assignee may bring an action against the association to recover the penalty. Wright v. First National Bank of Greensburg, 8 Biss., 243; Crocker v. First National Bank of Chetopa, 4 Dill., 358; 3 Am. L. T. N. S., 350.
15. The party who paid the usurious interest is the only party to the note who is entitled to sue for the penalty. Lazear v. National Union Bank of Maryland, supra.
16. Under Revised Statutes, United States, 5198, providing that a suit against a national bank for taking usurious interest must be commenced within two years from "the time the usurious transaction occurred," the limitation begins to run from the time when such interest is paid. National Bank v. Carpenter, N. J., 19 A., 181; Bobs v. People's National Bank, 21 Fed. Rep., 888.
17. The penalty for all illegal interest paid to a national-banking association within two years prior to the commencement of proceedings may be recovered in a single action, whether the amount was in one payment or in several. Hintermister v. First National Bank, 64 N. Y., 212.
18. A note dated and signed by the makers in Tennessee and payable in Chicago, Ill., and forwarded by them to the payees in Chicago, to be used by the latter in raising money with which to pay off a prior note made by the same parties, must be held an Illinois contract and governed by the laws of Illinois relating to usury. Buchanan et al. v. Drivers' National Bank of Chicago, 55 Fed. Rep., 223.
19. Bank loaned money upon note which it afterward discounted, the maker agreeing to open account with bank or to pay 2½ per cent commission to the bank on the loan. As the money loaned belonged to the bank, commission held to be usury. Union National Bank v. L. N. O. & C. Ry. Co., Ill., Supreme Court, May 9, 1893.
20. An act of a legislature providing that no corporation shall set up defense of usury in any action does not render contracts by corporations for usurious interest enforceable and does not prevent corporations setting up a defense of illegality under section 5197, Revised Statutes. Ib.
21. When allegations of complaint are sufficient to sustain a judgment in an action against a national bank for exacting usurious interest. First National Bank v. Morgan, 132 U. S., 141.
22. Usurious interest paid a national bank on renewing a series of notes can not, in an action by the bank on the last of them, be applied in satisfaction of the debt. Driesbach v. National Bank, 104 U. S., 52; Barnett v. National Bank, 98 U. S., 555.
23. Remedy given by section 5198, Revised Statutes, for recovery of usurious interest paid to a national bank is exclusive. Barnett v. National Bank, 98, U. S., 555; Stephens v. Monongahela Bank, 111 U. S., 187.
24. The only forfeiture for usury declared by section 30 of act of 1864 is of entire interest, and no greater loss is incurred by such bank by reason of the usury laws of a State. Farmers' National Bank v. Dearing, 91 U. S., 29.

VOTING:

The provision of section 5144, Revised Statutes, which disqualifies shareholders "whose liability is past due and unpaid" from voting at meetings of shareholders, applies only to liability for unpaid subscriptions for stock. United States ex rel. v Barry, 36 Fed. Rep., 246.
