DIGEST OF DECISIONS RELATING TO NATIONAL BANKS.

[The following Federal cases were reported from Jan. 1 to Oct. 15, 1914, in vols. 230 to 233, U. S. R., and vols. 208-215, Fed. Rep.]

CHECKS.

Acceptance—Promise to accept.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) Where plaintiff bank, on presentation to it by the W. Co. of checks on defendant bank, wired defendant, "Will you pay W. Co. checks?" stating the amount, and received a reply: "Forward your checks. They will undoubtedly be taken care of by the company when presented"—whereupon plaintiff advanced the amount of such checks to the W. Co., defendant was liable to plaintiff for the amount of the checks, since it might have put the matter beyond all possibility of doubt, and what it said in addition to "forward your checks" was not in direct answer to plaintiff's telegram. (First National Bank of Dun v. First National Bank of Massillon, 210 Fed. Rep., 542.)

Unauthorized payment of checks—Liability to depositor.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1913.) A bank is liable to a corporation depositor for the amount of checks paid which were drawn without the authority of the corporation. (Guaranty State Bank & Trust Co. v. Oklahoma Coal Co., 209 Fed. Rep., 350.)

COLLATERAL SECURITIES.

Representation by officer—Liability for conversion.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1914.) Where a bank agreed to make a loan against certain collateral, and received the borrower's note and collateral, it was entitled to turn over the note and collateral to an officer of the bank, who made the loan personally, and, having done so, was not responsible for such officer's subsequent conversion of the collateral. (McKinnon v. Western Development Co., 212 Fed. Rep., 702.)

COLLECTIONS.

Deposits—Ownership of checks—Trust for collections.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1914.) Complainant deposited certain checks to the credit of his account in the bank of which defendant was appointed receiver, which checks the bank, before its failure, sent to its correspondents in the city, where the checks were payable. The checks were credited to the bank's account and drafts drawn against such account, which, except for the checks, would not have been sufficient to have paid the drafts. Held, that though the checks, pending collection, remained in the hands of the bank as a trustee, with the right to charge them back in case of nonpayment, such relation ceased when the bank closed after collecting the checks and using a part of the proceeds, creating the relation of mere debtor and creditor between complainant and the bank, and hence complainant was not entitled to an accounting as against the bank's receiver on the theory that the checks never became the bank's property but were held by it for collection. (Goshorn v. Murray, 210 Fed. Rep., 880.)

LOCATION OF BANK, CHANGE OF.

National banks—Organization.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1914.) There is no right to organize and carry on the business of a national bank except on the conditions and in the manner prescribed by the acts of Congress regulating national banks (Rev. St. U. S., secs. 5134, 5190, 5191 [U. S. Comp. St., 1901, pp. 3454, 3486]; act Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, 31 Stat. 48 [U. S. Comp. St., 1901, p. 3461]; act May 1, 1886, c. 73, 24 Stat., 18 [U. S. Comp. St., 1901, p. 3462]; act June 20, 1874, c. 343, 18 Stat., 123 [U. S. Comp. St., 1901, p. 3487]; act Mar. 3, 1887, c. 378, 24 Stat., 559 [U. S. Comp. St., 1901, p. 3490], of which all must take notice. (First National Bank of Capitol Hill v. Murray, Comptroller of the Currency, 212 Fed. Rep., 140.)

National banks—Control—Comptroller of Currency—Acts—Review.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1914.) Acts of the Comptroller of the Currency within the national banking law conferring on him extensive powers of control and visitation over national banks are not subject to review by the courts. (Ib.)

National banks—Organization—Change of location—Conditions—Comptroller of Currency.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1914.) The national banking acts require the comptroller's certificate of organization of a national bank to state the place where its operations are to be carried on, and declares that its business shall be transacted at an office or banking house at the place specified. The reserve required of a national bank in a nonreserve locality is but 15 per cent of its deposits, while 25 per cent is required in a reserve city. A national bank in a city of more than 50,000 is required to have a capital of $200,000, but, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, it may, in a place of 3,000 inhabitants or less, have a capital of $25,000. Such banks may change their place of business from one place to another in the same State not more than 30 miles distant, with the approval of the comptroller, but such change is not valid until the comptroller has issued his certificate of approval. Held, that where a national bank located in a suburb outside the corporate limits of Oklahoma City, having a population of not to exceed 3,000, was chartered with a capital of $25,000, and, after the suburb had been included in the city, the comptroller refused permission to move the bank's place of business into the business section of the city unless it increased its capital to at least $200,000 and agreed to comply with the law regulating reserves in reserve cities, of which Oklahoma City was one, the alteration of the city's boundaries did not entitle the bank to so remove without compliance with the comptroller's conditions, and, it having removed without fulfilling such conditions, the comptroller was entitled to maintain a suit for the forfeiture of its charter. (Ib.)

INSOLVENCY AND RECEIVERS.

POWERS OF RECEIVER TO DISPOSE OF ASSETS AND COMPOUND CLAIMS.

Receivers—Powers.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) Under Revised Statutes, section 5234 (U. S. Comp. St. 1901, p. 3507), authorizing the receiver of a national bank to take possession, under the direction of the comptroller, of the assets of the bank, and on the order of court to sell the property of the bank, a receiver of a national bank can not sell the real or personal property of the bank without an order of court, and a sale not authorized is void. (Schofield v. Baker, 212 Fed. Rep., 504.)

Receiverships—Sale by receiver—Validity.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) An order of court which authorized the receiver of a national bank to sell the bank assets, consisting of bills receivable, judgments, overdrafts, stocks, warrants, securities, assessments on stockholders, and "all other personal property and chattel property and evidences of indebtedness," entered on a petition which did not comprehend real estate, limited the receiver to sell personal and chattel property, and did not authorize a sale by him of real estate consisting of tidelands purchased by the receiver, with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, by exercising the preference right granted by law to the bank as a riparian owner of uplands to purchase on paying the price in installments and obtaining a deed on final payment. (Ib.)

Courts—Controlling decisions—Decisions of State court defining the nature of property.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) Where property in a State has been defined by the highest court of the State as real property, the United States district court sitting in the State should adopt that definition in determining whether such property is real or personal. (Ib.)

Right to acquire and hold real estate.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) Under Revised Statutes, section 5137 (U. S. Comp. St. 1901, p. 3460), authorizing national banks to purchase and hold real estate for enumerated purposes, and sections 5234 and 5236 (U. S. Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3507, 3508), and act of Congress March 29, 1886, defining the powers of the receiver of a national bank, a national bank lawfully owning uplands, and thereby having under State laws a preference right to purchase tidelands of the State, may purchase tidelands, and receiver acquiring tidelands with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency may not challenge the right to acquire the same, and his holding can be questioned only by the Government. (Ib.)

Trusts—Purchase of property by receiver of national bank—Evidence.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) A receiver of a national bank transferred privately to a third person land purchased with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency. The third person merely paid the price which the receiver had paid to the State and a nominal profit. Subsequently the title was transferred to the receiver's attorney. The receiver thereafter promoted a corporation, and the land was conveyed to it in full payment of its capital stock. The third person made admissions that he purchased for the receiver and held the title to accommodate him. The value of the land greatly exceeded the price paid by the third person and by the receiver on the title being conveyed to his attorney. Held, That the property was chargeable with a trust under the rule that a trustee may not directly nor indirectly purchase any of the trust property and acquire title as against the beneficiary. (Ib.)

Trusts—Enforcement—Laches.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) An action by a receiver of a national bank against a prior receiver to charge with a trust property sold by the prior receiver for his benefit, and subsequently conveyed to a corporation promoted by him in payment of the capital stock of which he owned 95 per cent is not barred by laches, though not brought until the expiration of many years after the sale, but brought shortly after the facts were brought home to the receiver, and it did not appear that he should have known the facts prior thereto. (Ib.)

Trusts—Enforcement—Conditions.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) Where property sold by the receiver of a national bank to a third person for his benefit was subsequently conveyed to a corporation in payment of the capital stock, he owning a large majority of the stock, persons subsequently acquiring the stock could not prevent a decree charging the property with a trust in favor of the bank on payment to such receiver or to the corporation of all money paid for the purchase and all taxes and assessments with interest from date of payment. (Ib.)

Constructive trusts.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) Property sold by the receiver of a national bank and reconveyed to his attorney, and then to a corporation promoted by such receiver held chargeable with a trust. (Ib.)

Receivers—Improvident acts—Stockholders—Right to sue.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) Where a receiver of a national bank, 90 per cent of the stock of which was owned by plaintiff, wrongfully, willfully, and negligently sold assets of the bank for less than 50 per cent of their value, a right of action against such receiver was in the bank, and could not be enforced by plaintiff without alleging a demand on the receiver's successor, the comptroller, and the bank in turn, and the refusal of each to institute suit. (Moss v. Goodhart, 209 Fed. Rep., 102.)

Insolvency—Appointment of receiver—Authority to sue and be sued.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) A national bank continues to exist and has capacity to sue and be sued, notwithstanding the appointment of a receiver of its assets by the Comptroller of the Currency. (Ib.)

Insolvency—Receivers—Misconduct—Actions—Parties.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) Where a receiver of a national bank willfully sold certain of its assets for less than 50 per cent of their value, and the receiver's successor, the comptroller, and the bank successively and in turn refused to bring suit to set aside the sale or for an accounting, the receiver's successor should be made a party defendant to a suit by a stockholder to obtain such relief, that the bank might be bound by the result of the litigation. (Ib.)

ACTIONS BY RECEIVERS.

Pleading—Bill of particulars, right to appeal.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) In an action by a receiver of a national bank against directors to recover damages for negligence in permitting the looting of the bank by its cashier, defendants held not entitled to a bill of particulars to make the complaint more definite and certain as to the means by which the fraud was committed. (Curtis v. Phelps, 209 Fed. Rep., 261.)

Office of bill of particulars.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) The office of a bill of particulars is to prevent surprise and narrow the evidence to the issues framed, but not to furnish defendant with plaintiff's evidence nor the names of his witnesses. (Ib.)

When party can not be required to furnish bill of particulars.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) A party can not be required to furnish a better or more particular statement unless he has more information on the subject than his adversary. (Ib.)

PREFERENCES IN INSOLVENCY.

Insolvency—Deposits received when insolvent—Trust.

(U. S. D. C., 1912.) A private banker, who at the time of making a general assignment was so hopelessly insolvent that his estate in bankruptcy will not pay more than 1 per cent on claims of general creditors, was legally chargeable with knowledge of his insolvency on the preceding day, which made his acceptance of deposits on that day fraudulent and impresses a trust on the money received in favor of the depositors where it is traced into the hands of his trustee. (In re Silver, 208 Fed. Rep., 797.)

OFFICERS.

REPRESENTATION OF BANK BY.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1914.) A loan by defendant bank, secured by the note of B, who was the president and principal owner of plaintiff bank, held an indebtedness of plaintiff, so that, on plaintiff's failure, defendant was entitled to apply plaintiff's deposit balance on such debt. (Kendrick State Bank v. First National Bank of Portland, 213 Fed. Rep., 610.)

Notice to agent—Imputation to principal.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) A bank which made loans to a mercantile company, taking assignments of its accounts receivable as they were created as security, and which appointed the president of the company, who acted for the company in the transaction, its own agent under bond to collect the accounts and deposit the proceeds, is bound by the knowledge of such agent that the company was insolvent. (In re Cotton Manufacturers Sales Co., 209 Fed. Rep., 629.)

OFFICERS, CIVIL LIABILITY OF.

Abatement and revival—Action against directors of national bank—Survival.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) There is an implied contract on the part of the directors of a national bank to faithfully perform their duties as directors, and if by their misconduct or negligence damage results to the creditors or stockholders, a cause of action arises which may be enforced by a receiver. Such a cause of action is contractual, and survives against the representatives of a deceased director. (Curtis v. Phelps, 208 Fed. Rep., 577.)

PREFERENCES.

Preference—Delivery by bank of securities to customer.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) An understanding that the proceeds of a loan made by a bank to a customer and placed to the credit of his general account are to be used to take up certain securities does not, in the absence of any special agreement to that effect, create a lien upon those securities, and the delivery of such securities to the bank with notice of the customer's impending insolvency is an illegal preference under the bankruptcy act. (National City Bank of New York v. Hotchkiss, 231 U. S., 50.)

Preference—Liability of holder of securities constituting preference in suit to recover back.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) Under an agreement made in a suit by a receiver against a bank to recover securities in specie as an illegal preference, that the bank should hold them pending the decision of the suit with a power to sell, in its discretion, which had not been exercised, held that the bank was only liable for the securities and not for their value at the time the agreement was made. (Ib.)

Preferences—Knowledge—Sufficiency of showing of.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) A notice to a bank demanding securities for a loan made to the bankrupt that bankruptcy was impending and that it was receiving a preference is sufficient to show that the bank had cause to believe that it was obtaining a preference. (Ib.)

Intent in transactions between bank and customer—Attitude of courts.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) Courts may go far in giving financial transactions between banks and customers any form which will carry out the mutually understood intent (Sexton v. Kessler, 225 U. S., 90); but if the intent is doubtful or inconsistent with the legal effect of dominant facts it will fail. (Ib.)

Subrogation.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) Although a loan may be made for a specified purpose, if the lender places it in the stream of the borrower's general property there is no right of subrogation. (Ib.)

Advances to pay for goods—Delivery on trust receipt.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) Where a bank purchased with its own funds silk for certain bankrupts, taking title in its own name, and delivered the silk to the bankrupts under a trust receipt binding the latter to hold the goods or their proceeds for the bank until the price was paid, the title never passed to the bankrupts; and their agreement while insolvent to return the goods to the bank was not a preference. (In re Killian Mfg. Co., 209 Fed. Rep., 498.)

Preferential transfers—Equitable assignments.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) An agreement, made by a bankrupt more than four months prior to the bankruptcy, by which it agreed to assign to a bank its future accounts receivable, and the bank agreed to make advances on the same, held not to operate as an equitable assignment of the accounts, which would validate assignments made within the four months' period and otherwise preferential. (In re Cotton Manufacturers' Sales Co., 209 Fed. Rep., 629.)

Transfers of property—voidable preference.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) Assignments of accounts by a bankrupt while insolvent and within four months prior to its bankruptcy to a bank to secure advances made thereon held valid as security for such advances, but in so far as the accounts were to be held as security for other indebtedness to constitute voidable preferences under section 60b of the bankruptcy act, as amended by act February 5, 1903, and act June 25, 1910. (Ib.)

TAXATION.

Discrimination against, by State—Effect of tax law of New York of 1909, chapter 62.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) The provisions in the tax law of New York, chapter 62, Laws of 1909, imposing a flat rate on shares of all banks, both State and National, without the right of exemption in case of indebtedness of the owners, does not discriminate against national banks and is not invalid under 5219, Revised Statutes. People v. Weaver (100 U. S., 539), distinguished. (Amoskeag Savings Bank v. Purdy, 231 U. S., 373.)

Discrimination against, by State—Taxation of, may differ from that of other property.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) The State is not obliged to apply the same system to the taxation of national banks that it uses in the taxation of other property, provided no injustice, inequality, or unfriendly discrimination is inflicted upon them. Bridgeport Savings Bank v. Feitner (191 N. Y., 88) approved. (Ib.)

Discrimination against, by State—Taxation—Sufficiency of showing.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) The Federal courts will not overthrow a system of State taxation as discriminatory against national banks under 5219, Revised Statutes, unless such discrimination is affirmatively shown. (Ib.)

Moneyed capital within meaning of 5219, Revised Statutes.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) Mercantile Bank v. New York (121 U. S., 138) followed as to what constitutes moneyed capital within the meaning of 5219, Revised Statutes. (Ib.)

Powers—Restrictions—Payment of State taxes for depositors not ultra vires.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) While a national bank can only transact such business as the Federal statutes permit, it may, under its incidental powers, make reasonable business agreements in regard to its deposits, including the payment of State taxes thereon, pursuant to the laws of the State in which it is located. Such an agreement is not ultra vires. (Clement National Bank v. Vermont, 231 U. S., 120.)

Contract impairment—Effect on contract between bank and depositor of State statute requiring bank to act as agent of State in collecting tax on deposits.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) A lawful State tax on deposits in bank is imposed in the exercise of a power subject to which deposits are made, and does not impair the contract obligation of the bank to the depositors by requiring the bank to act as agent in collecting it. (North Missouri R. R. Co. v. Maguire, 20 Wall., 46.) (Clement National Bank v. Vermont, 231 U. S., 120.)

State taxation on deposits—Validity of.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) A tax upon deposits in a national bank to be paid by the depositors held in this case not to be a tax upon the franchise of the bank. (Ib.)

State taxation on deposits—Effect of national bank act.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) The national bank act does not withdraw credits of depositors in national banks from the taxing power of the State. (Ib.)

State taxation on deposits—Power of classification.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) Under its broad powers of classification for taxation, a State may classify depositors in national banks so long as the tax is not essentially inimical to such banks in frustrating the purpose of the legislation or impairing their efficiency as Federal agencies. (Ib.)

State taxation—Effect of 5219, Revised Statutes.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) The object of 5219, Revised Statutes, is to prevent hostile discrimination against national banks; and a State tax to be in conflict therewith must constitute such a discrimination. (Ib.)

State taxation; discrimination—Effect of 815, chapter 37, Vermont Public Statutes.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) This court finds no basis for the charge of injurious discrimination against national banks in 815 of chapter 37 of the Public Statutes of Vermont. (Ib.)

Taxation of, by State—Validity under 5219, Revised Statutes.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) Section 5219, Revised Statutes, deals with shareholders of national banks as a class and not as individuals, and a scheme of taxation that is fair to the class will not be held invalid because of a particular case arising from circumstances personal to the individual affected.—(Amoskeag Savings Bank v. Purdy, 231 U. S., 373.)

Due process of law—Effect of want of notice to depositor on validity of tax on deposits paid by bank under agreement with State.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) A State tax of a specified per cent on deposits in national banks paid by the bank under agreement with the State pursuant to statute and which is otherwise valid, does not amount to denial of due process of law because the depositor had no notice in advance of the assessment, where, as in this case, the tax was recoverable by suit in which the depositor would have full opportunity to resist any illegal demand. (Clement National Bank v. Vermont, 231 U. S., 120.)

Equal protection of the law—Effect to deny, of classification for taxation of interest-bearing and noninterest-bearing deposits in bank.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) A State tax on interest-bearing deposits in national banks does not deny equal protection of the law on account of exemptions which it is within the power of the State to allow or on account of the exemption of noninterest-bearing accounts. The classification is reasonable. (Ib.)

Taxation—Assessment—Relief in equity.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1914.) The assessment of the property of national banks at its full value while other classes of property are assessed at only 60 per cent of their fair cash value, though in violation of Revised Statutes, section 5219; Constitution Oklahoma, article 10, sections 5, 8, and Comp. Laws Oklahoma 1909, section 7580, does not entitle a national bank to relief in equity unless it appears that the erroneous valuation was not made accidentally or inadvertently with respect to a single piece or kind of property, but systematically and intentionally with respect to one or more classes of property with the intention of imposing upon such class an undue burden of taxation. (Lacy v. McCafferty, County Treasurer et al., 215 Fed. Rep., 352.)

INCOME TAX.

Computation of net income by national bank.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) A bank in Massachusetts held not authorized to deduct from its gross income taxes paid on its shares on behalf of its stockholders under Revenue Laws Massachusetts, chapter 14, sections 9 to 18, in ascertaining its net income subject to special excise tax under tariff act August 5, 1909, chapter 6, section 38, paragraph 2, 36 Statute 112. (Eliot National Bank v. Gill, 210 Fed. Rep., 933.)

Authority of Commissioner of Internal Revenue to amend return.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) Tariff act August 5, 1909, chapter 6, section 38, paragraph 5, 36 Statutes 112, held to authorize the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to amend the return of a corporation upon which the special excise tax is assessed as a "false" return if it is incorrect although made in good faith, even after the tax assessed on the original return has been paid. (Eliot National Bank v. Gill, 210 Fed. Rep., 933.)

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) The provision being that in case of such false or fraudulent return the commissioner shall make an amended return "upon the discovery thereof at any time within three years after said return is due," the corrected assessment is not required to be made within the three years. (Ib.)

TRUSTS.

Trust funds—Dissipation—Effect of depletion of account in which deposited.

(U. S. Sup., 1914.) Where one has deposited trust funds in his individual bank account and the mingled fund is at any time wholly depleted, the trust fund is thereby dissipated and can not be treated as reappearing in sums subsequently deposited to the credit of the same account. (Schuyler v. Littlefield, 232 U. S., 707.)

Trust funds—Burden of proving individual right to funds in hands of trustee for all creditors.

(U. S. Sup., 1914.) One seeking to charge a fund in the hands of a trustee for the benefit of all creditors as being the proceeds of his property and therefore a special trust fund for him, has the burden of proof; and if he is unable to identify the fund as representing the proceeds of his property, his claim must fail, as all doubt must be resolved in favor of the trustee who represents all creditors. (Ib.)

Establishment—Sufficiency of showing.

(U. S. Sup., 1913.) A trust can not be established in an aliquot share of a man's whole property, as distinguished from a particular fund, by showing that trust moneys have gone into it. (Natl. City Bank of New York v. Hotchkiss, 231 U. S., 50.)

National banks—Liability for money received under contract ultra vires.

(U. S. D. C., 1914.) A national bank can not receive money equitably belonging to another without accounting for the same, even though it was received as an incident of a contract made by the bank, which was ultra vires and not enforceable. (Equitable Trust Co., of New York v. National Bank of Commerce in St. Louis, 211 Fed. Rep., 688.)

Advances to customer for importation of merchandise—Trust receipts.

(U. S. D. C., 1913.) A bank issued letters of credit for the use of a hide-importing company in purchasing hides for import; the custom being for the seller to consign the purchase to the bank and draw on its London correspondent for the price, with invoice and bill of lading attached. On arrival of the consignment, the bank indorsed the bill of lading to the company, taking a trust receipt, by which the company was given the right to have the hides manufactured into leather and to sell the same, but agreed that the leather or its proceeds should be held in trust for the bank for the payment of the amount of the letter of credit and "of any other indebtedness" to the bank. A receiver was appointed for the company, which had at the time a quantity of leather for sale in the hands of commission merchants, consisting, in part, of leather procured through the bank, but intermingled with that from other sources, and it had procured advances on the consignments with the consent of the bank. The bank notified the merchants of its claim to the entire proceeds of the leather in their hands, subject to the advances. At that time the company had paid all of its obligations to the bank then due, including those arising from the particular letters of credit with which the leather then with the commission merchants had been purchased, but owed other claims not matured. Held, that the bank was the general owner of the leather, subject only to the company's contract right to become the owner by paying the amount due under the letters of credit with which it was purchased and any other indebtedness then due the bank, and that, such payment having been made, the title then passed to the company, free from any claim or lien on account of any indebtedness which might subsequently become due for other purchases. (Vaughan v. Massachusetts Hide Corporation. Smith v. Brown Bros. & Co., 209 Fed. Rep., 667.)

NOTE 1.—Specie payments were suspended from Jan. 1, 1862, to Jan. 1, 1879. During the greater part of that period gold and silver coins were not in circulation except on the Pacific coast, where it is estimated the specie circulation was generally about $25,000,000. This estimated amount is the only coin included in the above statement from 1862 to 1875, inclusive.

NOTE 2.—In 1876 subsidiary silver again came into use, and is included in this statement, beginning with that year.

NOTE 3.—The coinage of standard silver dollars began in 1878, under the act of Feb. 28, 1878.

NOTE 4.—Specie payments were resumed Jan. 1, 1879, and all gold and silver coins, as well as gold and silver bullion in the Treasury, are included in this statement from and after that date.

NOTE 5.—The Director of the Mint recently made a revised estimate of the stock of gold coin, and as a consequence of such revision the estimated stock of gold in the United States and of gold coin in circulation has been reduced to $135,000,000 in the figures for 1907.

NOTE 6.—There was a reduction as of June 30, 1910, of $9,700,000 of subsidiary silver coin as a result of the revision of stock by the Mint Bureau.

NOTE 7.—This table has been revised and shows slight changes from previous figures in many of the items.

TABLE No. 93.—Resources and liabilities of the second Bank of the United States.

[Chartered by Congress in 1816, for 20 years; renewal of charter denied; in consequence, reorganization was effected by means of authority of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania. The bank assigned in 1841, the affairs being finally liquidated in 1856, and resulted in the payment in full, interest and principal, of liabilities to depositors and noteholders; the shareholders, however, received nothing on their investment in stock of the bank.]
